Public Television Americas First Station:

Public Television William Hawes, 1996 KUHT TV in Houston Texas was the first non commercial educational television station This is the story of its development and struggle for survival Public Broadcasting in America L. R. Ickes, 2006 The Corporation for Public Broadcasting CPB was created out of the Public Broadcasting Act of 1967 P L 90 129 The CPB was intended to provide a funding mechanism for individual public broadcasting stations but not subject these stations to political influence or favouritism Therefore the CPB receives an annual appropriation and then uses this money in addition to foundation corporate individual memberships and other funding sources to provide grants to individual public television and radio broadcast entities The Public Broadcasting System PBS National Public Radio NPR and Public Radio International PRI do not receive any direct appropriations from CPB all of the appropriated money goes directly to member stations of these organisations The number of radio and television public broadcasting stations supported by the CPB increased from 270 in 1969 to approximately 1 100 as of August 2003 of which 356 are television stations Public broadcasting stations are mostly run by universities non profit community associations and state government agencies Public broadcasting is regarded as a public service To serve most Americans public television reaches approximately 99% of the population and public radio 91% With regard to programming the public broadcasting system observes the principle of local autonomy That is public broadcasting stations make decisions independently of the CPB as to what programming will be available to their viewing or listening audience as well as on their programming schedule The CPB serves as an umbrella organisation for public television and radio Broadcasting The CPB s principal function is to receive and distribute government contributions or federal appropriations to fund national programs and to support qualified member radio and television stations based on legislatively mandated formulas The bulk of these funds are to provide Community Service Grants or CSGs to member stations that have matching funds By law the CPB is authorised to exercise minimum control of program content or other activities of local member stations The CPB is prohibited from owning or operating any of the primary facilities used in broadcasting In addition it may not produce disseminate or schedule programs This new book presents the issues dealing with this hot topic

Race in American Television David J. Leonard, Stephanie Troutman Robbins, 2021-01-26 This two volume encyclopedia explores representations of people of color in American television It includes overview essays on early classic and contemporary television and the challenges for developments related to and participation of minorities on and behind the screen Covering five decades this encyclopedia highlights how race has shaped television and how television has shaped society Offering critical analysis of moments and themes throughout television history Race in American Television shines a spotlight on key artists of color prominent shows and the debates that have defined television since the civil rights movement This book also examines the ways in which television has been a site for both reproduction of stereotypes and resistance to them providing a basis for discussion about racial issues in the United States This set provides a significant resource for
