Monuments for Posterity Antony Kalashnikov,2023-04-15 Monuments for Posterity challenges the common assumption that Stalinist monuments were constructed with an immediate propagandistic function arguing instead that they were designed to memorialize the present for an imagined posterity In this respect even while pursuing its monument building program with a singular ruthlessness and on an unprecedented scale the Stalinist regime was broadly in step with transnational monument building trends of the era and their undergirding cultural dynamics By integrating approaches from cultural history art criticism and memory studies along with previously unexplored archival material Antony Kalashnikov examines the origin and implementation of the Stalinist monument building program from the perspective of its goal to immortalize the memory of the era He analyzes how this objective affected the design and composition of Stalinist monuments what cultural factors prompted the sudden and powerful yearning to be remembered and most importantly what the culture of self commemoration revealed about changing outlooks on the future both in the Soviet Union and beyond its borders Monuments for Posterity shifts the perspective from monuments political ideological content to the desire to be remembered and prompts a much needed reconsideration of the supposed uniqueness of both Stalinist aesthetics and the temporal culture that they expressed Many Stalinist monuments still stand prominently in postsocialist cityscapes and remain the subject of continual heated political controversy Kalashnikov makes manifest monuments intentional attempts to seduce us the posterity for whom they were built

Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects Thomas Houlton, 2021-11-25 Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects explores monuments as political psychical social and mystical objects Incorporating autoethnography psychoanalysis deconstruction postcolonialism and queer ecology Houlton argues for a radical interdisciplinary approach to our monument culture Tracing historical developments in monuments alongside contemporary movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Black Lives Matter Houlton provides an in depth critique of monument sites as well as new critical and conceptual methodologies for thinking across the field Alongside analysis of monuments to the Holocaust colonial figures and LGBTQIA subjects this book provides new critical engagements with the work of D W Winnicott Marion Milner Jacques Derrida Edward Said Eve Sedgwick and others Houlton traces the potential for monuments to exert great influence over our sense of self nation community sexuality and place in the world Exploring the psychic and physical spaces these objects occupy their aesthetics affects politics and powers this book considers how monuments can challenge our identities beliefs and our very notions of remembrance The interdisciplinary nature of Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects means that it is ideally placed to intervene across several critical fields particularly museum and heritage studies It will also prove invaluable to those engaged in the study of monuments psychoanalytic object relations decolonization queer ecology radical death studies and affect theory

Artistic Citizenship Mary Schmidt Campbell, Randy Martin, 2006-06-21 This volume identifies the question of artistic citizenship to explore civic identity Featuring contributions from experts in the field this book is indispensable to anyone involved in arts education or the creation of public policy for the arts

The Monument of Tomorrow Miguel Caballero, 2025-07-15 Rupture iconoclasm and tabula rasa are concepts commonly used to describe the approach to cultural heritage associated with the avant garde and revolutionary politics during the early twentieth century Highlighting artists and radical intellectuals who worked to protect public monuments in 1910 1950s Spain The Monument of Tomorrow challenges the persistent narrative imposed by Francoism of an iconoclastic Second Republic in Spain Author

Miguel Caballero draws on a wide range of sources to examine how artists architects writers and activists transformed monument and heritage conservation into a progressive experimental cause in their fight against fascism During the Spanish War with its devastating air raids these individuals were motivated by the defense of culture to become determined conservationists Caballero s research incorporates surviving monuments architectural plans propaganda posters and literary works including novels plays and poetry The war became a laboratory for experiments in conserving and redefining monuments and national heritage Modernist style protective structures for example were built atop Madrid s historic monuments including statues of Cybele Neptune and Phillip III in Plaza Mayor Such innovations later influenced strategies for safeguarding monuments during the Second World War This history Caballero argues makes the Spanish War pivotal to development of the concept of World Heritage Ultimately The Monument of Tomorrow demonstrates that heritage conservation does not have to be politically conservative Those interested in anti fascism art history modern architecture modernism cultural heritage conservation and preservation Iberian studies and war studies should find valuable insights in this innovative original work

Commemorating and Forgetting Martin J. Murray, 2013-04-25 When the past is painful as riddled with violence and injustice as it is in postapartheid South Africa remembrance presents a problem at once practical and ethical how much of the past to preserve and recollect and how much to erase and forget if the new nation is to ever unify and move forward The new South Africa s confrontation of this dilemma is Martin J Murray s subject in Commemorating and Forgetting More broadly this book explores how collective memory works how framing events persons and places worthy of recognition and honor entails a selective appropriation of the past not a mastery of history How is the historical past made to appear in the present In addressing these questions Murray reveals how collective memory is stored and disseminated in architecture statuary monuments and memorials literature and art landscapes of remembrance that selectively recall and even fabricate history in the service of nation building He examines such vehicles of memory in postapartheid South Africa and parses the stories they tell stories by turn sanitized distorted embellished and compressed In this analysis Commemorating and Forgetting marks a critical move toward recognizing how the legacies and impositions of white minority rule far from being truly past remain embedded in intertwined with and imprinted on the new nation s here and now

Art and War Laura Brandon, 2012-11-25 This is a truly encyclopedic survey of artists responses both official and personal to the horrors of war Art and War reveals the sheer diversity of artists portrayals of this most devastating aspect of the human condition from the heroic paintings of Benjamin West and John Singer Sargent to brutal and iconic works by artists from Goya to Picasso and the equally oppositional work of Leon Golub Nancy Spero and others who reacted with fury to the Vietnam War Laura Brandon pays particular attention to work produced in response to World War I and World War II as well as to more recent art and memorial work by artists as diverse as Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jarr and Maya Lin She looks finally to the reactions of contemporary artists such as Langlands and Bell to the US invasion in 2001 of Afghanistan and the

War on Terror
