Public Teaching One Kid At A Time:

Public Teaching Penny Kittle, 2003 With this collection of 19 essays Penny takes us straight from her classroom to our own hearts Penny wrests from the teacher's life its trials and triumphs frustration fury and fun all the emotional data that opens up her mind to good solid instruction It also frees her making her ever willing to lay herself open to her students She writes with them seeks their help and teaches them by example showing them exactly what the function of writing is and how to think understand and read differently as writers themselves Penny's mentor Donald Murray interviews her at the end of her book He asks how as a mother wife and teacher she found the time to write and what she has learned as a published writing teacher
