Puccini Tosca Zubin Mehta:

Zubin Mehta Bakhtiar K Dadabhoy, 2017-04-17 Zubin Mehta A Musical Journey traces the nearly six decade long rich and uniquely varied career of the maestro The only musician ever to simultaneously direct two major orchestras in North America Mehta has worked with the most distinguished artistes of the last century His extraordinary journey from Mumbai to some of the most prestigious podiums of the music world is a saga of genius and dedication This meticulously researched authorized biography explores his life musical legacy and association with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra Engagingly written it offers an insightful window into the life of one of the twentieth century s greatest conductors Zubin Mehta

Zubin Mehta, Renate v Matuschka, 2009 Captures the life of this celebrated musician including a review of his childhood days in Bombay his early education in music in Europe his great success with orchestras around the world and his receipt of the United Nations Lifetime Achievement Peace and Tolerance Award American Opera Singers and Their Recordings

Clyde T. McCants, 2004-08-06 This book focuses on American opera singers and what their recordings say about their artistry It is not a book about all American opera singers since many who had important careers on stage made few if any recordings And many of those who did make recordings did so prior to the introduction of electrical recording in 1925 and the resulting advances in the reproduction of the human voice Opera enthusiasts can only imagine the sound of Farinelli s voice or read what his contemporaries have written about it but with almost any famous or near famous singer of recent years enthusiasts do not have to imagine Their voices are available through the technology of sound recording There are 53 entries one each for 52 singers and a composite entry for a group of Hollywood vocalists Each entry contains biographical information and is followed by a discography of operatic recordings to be used in conjunction with the critical commentaries The entries are in alphabetical order by the singer s last name and provide critical analyses of key recordings and of the artists gifts and limitations Giacomo Puccini

Roger Flury, 2012-06-21 Opera recordings have been with us since the creation of the first wax cylinders Now at a time when the 25 year reign of the compact disc appears to be coming to an end is the moment to take stock of the history of recordings of arguably the most popular composer of operas Giacomo Puccini In Giacomo Puccini A Discography librarian and music historian Roger Flury looks at each opera chronologically from Le Villi to Turandot followed by sections on Puccini s instrumental chamber orchestral and solo vocal works Details of each complete opera are listed by recording date followed by excerpts in the order in which they occur in the opera Recordings of each aria are listed alphabetically by the name of the artist For ease of use Flury establishes as the main criteria for inclusion those recordings assigned a commercial issue number and available for purchase This book does not limit itself to mainstream recordings but includes as well unofficial recordings taken from broadcasts or illegally recorded in theaters ensuring that the audio recording history of Puccini is free of gaps Video and DVD issues whether of staged performances or excerpts in concert are not included unless they have been issued in a sound only format This volume brings together information on nearly 10 000 recordings of Puccini's music. It provides a comprehensive overview of the recorded history of the composer's works and serves as a useful guide for the transfer of recordings from one format to another. The Right Place, The Right Time! Donald Peck, 2007-07-20 From Yakima Washington to the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Donald Peck's journey as a flutist has been extraordinary. Here Peck offers an insider's view of the inner workings of one of the most prestigious orchestras in the country. Peck, like many artists, did not select his path voluntarily but rather let fate lead him to a career in music. In 1957 he secured a seat with the orchestra as a flutist. Beginning in 1958 Peck garnered the title of principal which he kept until his retirement in 1999. A memoir filled with stories about life on the road making recordings and working with the best musicians and singers in the business. The Right Place The Right Time is a joy for anyone interested in the life of a dedicated, devoted and talented artist. Conversations with Joseph Flummerfelt Donald Nally, 2024-03-26 In Conversations with Joseph Flummerfelt: Thoughts on Conducting Music and Musicians Donald Nally presents a window into the mind and heart of one of America's most celebrated and distinguished choral conductors. Through questions from Nally, his former student Flummerfelt provides a captivating narrative tracing his formative years and influences, his most important artistic collaborations, and his approach to conducting and music. The conversation further develops into a philosophical discussion on cultural influences and obstacles in art, how one teaches conducting, and the foundations of ensemble music making. Through these intimate conversations Flummerfelt reveals his life, art, and ideas from his close collaborations with some of the world's greatest orchestral conductors to his work as Artistic Director of Westminster Choir College. The topics range from his approaches to style, conducting gesture, sound generation, and choral sound to the psychology of music making and the contemporary environment of art making. Nally's interview style captures the energy and rhythm of Flummerfelt's speech so that the conductor's voice and passion is easily perceived, and the material is presented as a highly organized yet spontaneous and free conversation. Flummerfelt discusses his early career influences from such musicians as Robert Shaw and Nadia Boulanger and reveals his thoughts on composers like Igor Stravinsky, Samuel Barber, Benjamin Britten, and Olivier Messiaen. The more than 30 photos present a visual record of Flummerfelt's collaborations with many of the great musicians of our time, and a biographical timeline, a list of collaborating orchestras and conductors, and a discography are also included.

Franco Corelli Ren Seghers, 2008 Amadeus. His exceptional good looks made him a matinee idol, and Franco Corelli, the Prince of Tenors, was dubbed Mr. Soldout for 20 consecutive years. In 1958, just seven years after beginning his career, he was already the highest paid tenor in Italy. Following his Met debut in 1961, he was celebrated as the greatest tenor in the world, a position that he retained until his departure from the Met in 1975. His charismatic performances in such operas as La Vestale and Fedora, both in collaboration with Maria Callas, coupled with a formidable mystique as well as a number of notorious and colorful incidents, including his real-life sword fight with Boris Christoff in Rome, the Callas walkout, the beating up of a spectator in Naples, and the alleged biting of Birgit Nilsson on a Boston tour of Turandot, created a mania for Corelli. Nearly a decade in the making this definitive biography is based on the author's extensive research of theater archives and interviews with the opera star's numerous friends, family members, colleagues, Nilsson Pavarotti and many others as well as the management of some of the world's leading opera houses

Dictionary Catalog of the Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound, 1981 Opera 75, 1997 Hi, and Thanks for Your Latest Letter Bennett Lear Fairorth, 2012-02

The first letter received by the author dated September 9, 1988 is from a former student from 1977 who sends happy birthday wishes and condolences for a double tragedy. The last 2 letters are both written Easter Sunday 2010, one by the author to his friend Rudy. They met in first grade in September 1932; their friendship has lasted 78 years. The other letter is from the youngest of the author's 4 children, his son Matt, who was born in 1959 after 3 daughters. Matt also has 3 daughters and in his letter conveys unexpected but good news from Austin, Texas. Before the author retires in June 1991 from teaching advanced placement English for 40 years at 2 high schools, he corresponds with several former students, friends, and family, including 4 younger brothers who live in Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Seattle. After he retires, the author travels extensively on escorted tours to continental Europe and England as well as to Turkey and several times visits a friend in London. During his retirement years, the author battles prostate cancer and heart surgery, tutors for an adult literacy program at Abington township's public library, makes several trips to New York for Broadway shows and Metropolitan Opera productions. After Matt gives his father a laptop, the author spends most of his time writing about his travels. After his oldest grandchild marries, she gives birth to a son. The author becomes a great grandfather.
