Margot Asquith's Great War Diary 1914-1916

Michael Brock,Eleanor Brock,2014-06-26 Margot Asquith was the wife of Herbert Henry Asquith the Liberal Prime Minister who led Britain into war in August 1914 Asquith s early war leadership drew praise from all quarters but in December 1916 he was forced from office in a palace coup and replaced by Lloyd George whose career he had done so much to promote Margot had both the literary gifts and the vantage point to create in her diary of these years a compelling record of her husband s fall from grace An intellectual socialite with the airs if not the lineage of an aristocrat Margot was both a spectator and a participant in the events she describes and in public affairs could be an ally or an embarrassment sometimes both Her diary vividly evokes the wartime milieu as experienced in 10 Downing Street and describes the great political battles that lay behind the warfare on the Western Front in which Asquith would himself lose his eldest son The writing teems with character sketches including Lloyd George a natural adventurer who may make or mar himself any day Churchill Winston s vanity is septic and Kitchener a man brutal by nature and by pose Never previously published this candid witty and worldly diary gives us a unique insider s view of the centre of power and an introduction by Michael Brock in addition to explanatory footnotes and appendices written with his wife Eleanor provide the context and background information we need to appreciate them to the full

Anthony Asquith Tom Ryall,2005 This is the first comprehensive critical study of Anthony Asquith Ryall sets the director s work in the context of British cinema from the silent period to the 1960s examining the artistic and cultural influences which shaped his films Asquith s silent films were compared favourably to those of his eminent contemporary Alfred Hitchcock but his career faltered during the 1930s However the success of Pygmalion 1938 and French Without Tears 1939 based on plays by George Bernard Shaw and Terence Rattigan together with his significant contributions to wartime British cinema re established him as a leading British film maker Asquith s post war career includes several pictures in collaboration with Terence Rattigan and the definitive adaptation of Oscar Wilde s The Importance of Being Earnest 1951 but his versatility is demonstrated in a number of modest genre films including The Woman in Question 1950 The Young Lovers 1954 and Orders to Kill 1958

J. Arthur Rank and the British Film Industry Geoffrey Macnab,2013-01-11 Presiding over the golden era of the British Film Industry from the mid to late 1940s J Arthur Rank financed movies such as Oliver Twist The Red Shoes Brief Encounter Caesar and Cleopatra and Black Narcissus Never before and never since has the industry risen to such heights J Arthur Rank charts every aspect of the robust film culture that Rank helped to create Having started out with relatively little knowledge of the cinema Rank s sponsorship was to bring about astounding progress within the industry and by establishing an organization comparable in size to any of the major Hollywood studios Rank briefly managed to reconcile and consolidate the competing demands of art and business an achievement very much absent from today's diminished and fragmented film industry Macnab goes on to explain the eventual collapse of the Rank experiment amidst the economic and political maelstrom of post war Britain highlighting the problems still facing the industry today By meshing archival research with interviews with Rank's contemporaries and members of his family this definitive study firmly restores Rank to his rightful place at the hub of British film history     A Liberal Chronicle in Peace and War Cameron Hazlehurst, Christine Woodland, 2023-07-03 Jack Pease was at the heart of the British Liberal government from 1908 to 1915 holding the position of Chief Whip through two general elections and a member of the Cabinet confronting domestic tumult international tensions and war Pease was an unassuming participant in the deliberations of a unique gathering of political talent His journals as President of the Board of Education from 1911 to the formation of the coalition ministry in 1915 are a closely observed unvarnished record of what he saw and heard in Downing St and Westminster constitutional and Home Rule crises industrial conflict electoral reform women's suffrage controversies struggles over budgets naval estimates and foreign policy Despite his Quaker beliefs Pease committed to supporting war against Germany and his troubled conscience is laid bare in letters to his wife and friends Replete with intimate portraits of his revered chief H H Asquith and the Prime Minister's social circle the journals also provide evocative observations of the contest of ideas arguments and moods of prominent contemporaries especially David Lloyd George as Chancellor of the Exchequer Winston Churchill as Home Secretary then First Lord of the Admiralty and Lord Kitchener as Secretary of State for War Pease's candid accounts augmented by the diaries and letters of others privy to Cabinet policy secrets and personal rivalries reveal the stories not told in the Prime Minister's reports to the King Together with the editors' biographical introduction extensive explanatory commentaries and bibliographical guidance Pease's text provides a uniquely comprehensive understanding of Asquith's Liberal government in peace and war
