God's Armor Bearer Vol. 3 Terry Nance, 2005-09-28 Terry Nance in the sequel to God's Armorbearer champions the local church and its leadership focusing believers on the traditional time honored values of the local church He reaffirms the place and position of the local church in our lives In a day of apathy and indifference Nance calls us to faithfulness to our local churches pastors leaders and congregations in an effort to more effectively impact our local communities Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1890 The Friend Samuel Chenery Damon, 1902 Exploring Worship Anew Pamela Ann Moeller, 2010-02-01

In search of a way to worship that is relevant today and into the twenty first century Moeller proposes an approach based on the great commandment to love God and one's neighbor as oneself With special attention to the time space sounds sights touches and symbols that form the context of every worship service she argues for a collaborative approach to the worship service in which the participants are involved from preparation to celebration Illustrating this highly evocative thoroughly feminist theology of worship is a sample service that pays particular attention to how the process and design of worship impact the experience of the worshipers Grave Dancin' Bob Whetstone, 2011-07-01 The untold story of the early Twentieth Century migration of farm hands to work in cotton mills in the south as seen through the eyes of a young man whose quest for freedom is stymied by his tyrannical father and overwhelming responsibility for his younger siblings

The Construction of Witchcraft in Early Modern Denmark, 1536-1617 Louise Nyholm Kallestrup, 2025-03-31 This book examines how the experience of witchcraft developed and evolved from the Lutheran Reformation of Denmark in 1536 to the celebration of the Lutheran centennial of 1617 As well as exploring witchcraft this volume is a portrait of Denmark and how religion and politics in the 16th and 17th centuries were impossible to separate It was in this period from 1536 to 1617 that witchcraft went from an offence condemned in the Bible and prohibited in the medieval Law of Jutland to being described in detail as the worst of crimes Witchcraft evolved from being defined as imposing harm to someone or something to being a mockery of God Approaching the theme from the new history of experience this book refers to the process of the construction of witchcraft as a crime Contributions draw on a wide range of textual and visual sources and bring together court records sermons legal regulations and correspondence with pamphlets devotional literature and demonological treatises The book is the first of its kind that aims to explain how this development occurred This volume is useful for undergraduates postgraduates and scholars as well as non specialist readers interested in the history of witchcraft magic and alchemy women's and gender history and European history Pulpit Words Translated for Pew People Charles W.
