Purity and Communal Boundaries Santi Rozario,1992 Sexual Purity and Communal Boundaries Santi Rozario,1988

Inscribing South Asian Muslim Women Tahera Aftab,2008 Offers an annotated source for the study of the public and private lives of South Asian Muslim women The Micro-politics of Microcredit Mohammad Jasim Uddin,2015-05-01 Microcredit has been seen in recent decades as having great potential for aiding development in poor developing countries with Bangladesh being one of the countries which has pioneered microcredit and implemented it most widely This book based on extensive original research explores how microcredit works in practice and assesses its effectiveness It discusses how microcredit usually channelled through women is often passed to the men of the family a practice disapproved of by some but regarded as acceptable by borrowers who have a communal approach to debt rather than viewing debt as something held by single individuals The book demonstrates how the rules around microcredit are often seem as irksome by the borrowers how lenders often charge high rates of interest and work primarily to preserve their institutions thereby going against the spirit of the microcredit movement and how borrowers often end up on a downward spiral deeper and deeper in debt Overall the book argues that although microcredit does much good it also has many drawbacks Women Writers in Postsocialist China Kay Schaffer,Xianlin Song,2013-07-31 What does it mean to read from elsewhere Women Writers in Postsocialist China introduces readers to a range and variety of contemporary Chinese women s writing which has seen phenomenal growth in recent years The book addresses the different ways women s issues are understood in China and the West attending to the processes of translation adaptation and the grafting of new ideas with existing Chinese understandings of gender feminism subjectivity consumerism and post modernism By focusing on women s autobiographical biographical fictional and historical writing the book engages in a transcultural flow of ideas between western and indigenous Chinese feminisms Taking account of the accretions of social cultural geographic literary economic and political movements and trends cultural formations and ways of thinking it asks how the texts and the concepts they negotiate might be understood in the social and cultural spaces within China and how they might be interpreted differently elsewhere in the global locations in which they circulate The book argues that women centred writing in China has a direct bearing on global feminist theory and practice This critical study of selected genres and writers highlights the shifts in feminist perspectives within contemporary local and global cultural landscapes Women and Work in Indonesia Michele Ford,Lyn Parker,2008-02-19 This book examines the meaning of work for women in contemporary Indonesia It takes a broad definition of work in order to interrogate assumptions about work and economic activity focusing on what women themselves see as their work which includes not only paid employment home life and child care but also activities surrounding ritual healing and religious life It analyses the key issues including the contrasts between new and old forms of work the relationship between experiences of migration and work and the ways in which religion especially Islam shapes perceptions and practice of work It discusses women's work in a range of different settings both rural and urban and in different locations covering Sumatra Bali Lombok Java Sulawesi and Kalimantan A wide range of types of employment are considered agricultural labour industrial work and new forms of work in the tertiary sector such as media and tourism demonstrating how capitalism globalization and local culture together produce gendered patterns of work with particular statuses and identities It addresses the question of the meaning and valuing of women's traditional work be it agricultural labour domestic work or other kinds of reproductive labour challenging assumptions of women as only mothers and housewives and demonstrating how women can negotiate new definitions of housewife by mobilizing kinship and village relations to transcend conventional categories such as wage labour and the domestic sphere Overall this book is an important study of the meaning of work for women in Indonesia

Reshaping the Holy Elora Shehabuddin, 2008 Through extensive field research Elora Shehabuddin explores the profound implications of women's political and social mobilization for reshaping Islam Specifically she examines the lives of Muslim women in Bangladesh who have become increasingly mobilized by the activities of predominantly secular NGOs yet who desire to retain reclaim and reshape rather than reject their faith In their employment and in their interactions with the legal system the state NGOs and political and religious groups women are changing state practices views of women in the public sphere and the nature of lived Islam itself In contrast to most work on Islam and Muslims which has focused on the Middle East and has privileged the study of religious and legal texts this book redirects our attention to South Asia home to one of the largest Muslim populations in the world and emphasizes the actual experiences of Muslims Women and gender as well as Bangladesh's formally democratic context are central to this inquiry and analysis

Young Muslim Women in India Kabita Chakraborty, 2015-12-14 This book based on extensive original research details the changing lives of youth living in slum communities bustees in Kolkata formerly Calcutta Using young people's own photos art and narratives the book explores how Muslim girls and young women are contributing to and impacted by changing youth culture in India We are invited into the risky world of mixed sex dance taking place in clandestine spaces in the slums We join young people on their journeys to find premarital romance and witness their strategic and savvy risk taking when participating in transgressive aspects of consumer culture The book reveals how social changes in India including greater education and employment opportunities as well as powerful middle class Muslim reform discourses are impacting youth the very local level More than just fantasy we see that Bollywood is an important role model which young people consult By carefully negotiating risks and performing multiple identities inspired by modernity globalization and most of all Bollywood culture young people actively participate in a changing India and disrupt dominant discourses about slum youth as poor victims who are excluded from social change

The Women's Movement in Postcolonial Indonesia Elizabeth Martyn, 2004-11-10 This book examines women's activism in the early years of independent Indonesia when new attitudes to gender nationalism citizenship and democratization were forming It questions the meaning of democratization for women and their relationship to national sovereignty within the new Indonesian state and discusses women's organizations and their activities women's social and economic roles and the different cultural regional and ethnic attitudes towards women while showing the failure of political change to fully address women's gender interests and needs The author argues that both the role of nationalism in defining gender identity and the role of gender in defining national identity need equal recognition Women and Labour

Organizing in Asia Kaye Broadbent, Michele Ford, 2007-12-21 Providing a full account of the role of women in union activism in Asia covering all the major economies of the region this book successfully challenges the prevailing conception of women workers in Asia as passive and uninterested in industrial issues
