Purpose And Passion Bobby Pruett And The Marshall Years:

Purpose and Passion Bill Chastain, 2005-10-01 Purpose and Passion Bill Chastain, 2005-11-27 A poignant and action packed biography of the Division I college football coach with the best winning record in the 1990s Bobby Pruett of Marshall by a nationally known sports writer and author of books on Steve Spurrier Payne Stewart and the Pittsburgh Steelers A winner of a book Tainted Glory B. David Ridpath, 2012-03-14 In 1997 Dave Ridpath walked onto the campus of Marshall University as a sports loving athletic administrator with a career on the rise Less than five years later Ridpath's quest to reform one of the most corrupt athletic departments in college sports while simultaneously standing up to the behemoth governing body that is the NCAA had all but destroyed that career While serving as assistant athletic director for compliance and student services at Marshall University from 1997 through 2001 Ridpath unearthed violations of several NCAA rules These violations included overt academic fraud and impermissible booster devised employment for members of the Marshall University football team The team had taken the nation by storm because of its incredible success on the field Ridpath now chronicles his experiences through this trying time in Tainted Glory Marshall University the NCAA and One Man's Fight for Justice Instead of being hailed as a conquering hero determined to clean up an outlaw program Ridpath had the tables turned on him He found himself out of a job when Marshall University and the NCAA determined that the path of least resistance would be to remove him rather than address the issues head on With this action they hoped to avoid damaging the university the athletic department and the NCAA overall This story is about more than the NCAA or Marshall University It is about the state of the business of intercollegiate athletics told by someone on the inside who lived it the good and the bad

Jackrabbit: The Story of Clint Castleberry and the Improbable 1942 Georgia Tech Football Season Bill

Chastain, 2019-10-01 He ran like a crazed jackrabbit according to one awe struck sportswriter Clint Castleberry was already an Atlanta area football sensation when he arrived at Georgia Tech in 1942 and in one meteoric college season he became a national sports hero as well He was the first college freshman ever to be voted All American At least one Heisman Trophy was all but certain Though weighing just 155 pounds he seemed destined to become one of the greatest tailbacks in college football history But then World War II intervened and Castleberry became instead another young man whose destiny was cut short His 19 is the only number ever retired in the illustrious history of Georgia Tech football Bill Chastain weaves Clint Castleberry's story around other legends of Georgia Tech football including John Heisman William Alexander and Bobby Dodd to create a glorious portrait of a proud football tradition and America's Greatest Generation God and Humanity at Marshall Mark Coppenger, 2020-09-21 The movie We Are Marshall brought national attention to the tragic loss and dramatic reconstitution of the school's football team But neither this film nor the Emmy winning documentary Marshall University Ashes to Glory explores the spiritual context and effect of the plane crash Few know that a visiting campus preacher touched the life of a popular defensive lineman the week before his ill fated flight that a campus minister was surprised several weeks later by a nighttime visit from students who'd come to ask the Jesus man how to be saved that two years before the crash a new young professor with a doctorate from India enlisted five students to help evangelize the campus and that three decades later a devout linebacker urged the coach to change the name of a play since it was demeaning to women The story extends back to the school's log church beginnings up through the decades when campus Ys generated foreign missionaries to the national championship years when key players testified freely to their faith nearly two centuries of spiritual highs and yes lows in the life of this remarkable school 100 Things Giants Fans Should Know & Do Before They Die Bill
