

The greatest tragedy in life is not death but life without a purpose – life with the wrong priorities. Life's greatest challenge is in knowing what to do. The greatest mistake in life is to be busy but not effective. Life's greatest failure is to be successful in the wrong assignment. Success in life is measured by the effective use of one's time.

The Lost Second Book of Aristotle's Poetics Walter Watson, 2020-03-04 Aristotle's lost wisdom on comedy and catharsis come to life in this philosopher's interpretation of recovered ancient writings Aristotle's Poetics was the first philosophical treatise to propound a theory of literature But we know that what remains of this important text is incomplete In the existing material Aristotle tells us that he will speak of comedy address catharsis and give an analysis of what is funny but these promised chapters are missing Now philosopher Walter Watson offers a new interpretation of the lost second book of Aristotle's Poetics A document known as the Tractatus Coislinianus first recovered in the Biblioteque Nationale in Paris in 1839 appears to be a summary of Aristotle's second book Based on Richard Janko's philological reconstruction Watson mounts a compelling philosophical argument that gives revealing context to this document and demonstrates its hidden meanings Watson renders lucid and complete explanations of Aristotle's ideas about catharsis comedy and a summary account of the different types of poetry ideas that influenced not only Cicero's theory of the ridiculous but also Freud's theory of jokes humor and the comic Here at last Aristotle's lost second book is found again

Nietzsche's Zarathustra Kathleen Marie Higgins, 2010-04-27 Nietzsche's Zarathustra takes an interdisciplinary approach to Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra focusing on the philosophical function of its literary techniques and its fictional mode of presentation It argues that the fictional format is essential to Nietzsche's philosophical message in his work Part of that message is Nietzsche's alternative to the Western worldview as developed by Plato's dialogues and the Christian Gospel which he presents through the teachings of his hero Zarathustra Another part of that message is that any doctrine including those of Zarathustra himself has an ambivalent nature Although doctrinal formulations are designed to preserve and communicate philosophical insights they can become dead formulas out of touch with the live philosophical discoveries that they aimed to capture Thus Spoke Zarathustra explores Zarathustra's own vulnerability to this risk and his way of regaining real connection with living wisdom The doctrine of eternal recurrence which is particularly prominent in Zarathustra is a case in point The doctrine is offered in opposition to the worldview that Nietzsche associates with the Christian doctrine of sin which in his view promotes a view of this life as devoid of intrinsic value However certain ways of adhering to this doctrine themselves rob life of its value The book also defends the importance of Part IV of Thus Spoke Zarathustra which many scholars have seen as unimportant by comparison with the first three parts Nietzsche's Zarathustra argues that Part III would not have been a culmination for the work and that Part IV is essential to Nietzsche's project Part IV's allusions to Apuleius The Golden Ass an ancient Menippean satire suggest that it should be read as a satire in which Zarathustra falls into and recovers from folly It is thus the culminating statement of the point that there is always a discrepancy between the living philosophical insight and any attempt to articulate it

Samuel Johnson,Arthur Murphy,1834 On the Art of Poetry & The Categories Aristotle,2016-06-13 Aristotle uses logic to observe the art of poetry and give it credibility in society as an art form Using many poetic references from his own day he masterfully defends the use of poetic voice and also gives the thinking behind it and what kind of creative genius it is He next argues and defends the use of categories in human thinking He shows that putting labels on the wonders around us help us to sort them out and remember them for what they really are and mean to us as a society
