Pursuing Justice For The Child:

Pursuing Justice for the Child Margaret K. Rosenheim, 1978-02 Seeking Justice in Child Sexual Abuse Karen M. Staller, Kathleen Coulborn Faller, 2009-11-20 St Mary County is a small rural midwestern enclave with a unique approach to handling accusations of child sexual abuse Hoping to spare children the trauma of lengthy court appearances and probing interrogations St Mary's professionals strive to obtain confessions from accused sex offenders rather than ask the victim to bear the burden of proof Treating this county as a critical case study scholars from a variety of fields come together to analyze this community's unique approach They address relevant case law innovative treatments for both victim and offender and the social history of child sexual abuse as a national policy concern They cover legal burdens and scientific methods prosecutors and protocol the interrogation of victims and suspects the use of expert witnesses defense strategies and practice wisdom in videotaping In addition they examine the unfolding drama of a single legal case from incidence to conviction The result is a fascinating dialogue that confronts the unique complexities of child sexual abuse for readers on all sides of the issue Introducing a model that makes enormous headway in the pursuit of justice fairness and trauma treatment this interdisciplinary text is an indispensable tool for all communities seeking redress Pursuing Justice Gilbert J. Gall, 1999-01-01 Examines the career of the nation's most prominent liberal labor lawyer during a period of ascending labor power Pressman was also one of the most prominent underground communists active in American political life from the early New Deal to the beginning of the Cold War Pursuing Justice in Africa Jessica Johnson, George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2018-10-31 Pursuing Justice in Africa focuses on the many actors pursuing many visions of justice across the African continent their aspirations divergent practices and articulations of international and vernacular idioms of justice The essays selected by editors Jessica Johnson and George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane engage with topics at the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship across a wide range of disciplines These include activism land tenure international legal institutions and postconflict reconciliation Building on recent work in sociolegal studies that foregrounds justice over and above concepts such as human rights and legal pluralism the contributors grapple with alternative approaches to the concept of justice and its relationships with law morality and rights While the chapters are grounded in local experiences they also attend to the ways in which national and international actors and processes influence for better or worse local experiences and understandings of justice The result is a timely and original addition to scholarship on a topic of major scholarly and pragmatic interest Contributors Felicitas Becker Jonathon L Earle Patrick Hoenig Stacey Hynd Fred Nyongesa Ikanda Ngeyi Ruth Kanyongolo Anna Macdonald Bernadette Malunga Alan Msosa Benson A Mulemi Holly Porter Duncan Scott Olaf Zenker

Kiyala, 2018-07-18 This book investigates how while children used as soldiers are primarily perceived as victims of offences against international law they also commit war atrocities In the aftermath of armed conflict the mainstream justice system targets warlords internationally armed groups and militias commanders who abduct and enrol children as combatants leaving child perpetrators not being held accountable for their alleged gross human rights violations Attempts to prosecute child soldiers through the mainstream justice system have resulted in child rights abuses Where no accountability measures have been taken demobilised young soldiers have experienced rejection and eventually some have returned to soldiering This research provides evidence of the potential of restorative justice peacemaking circles and locally based jurisprudence specifically the Baraza to hold former child soldiers accountable and facilitate their reintegration into society
