Twentieth-century Short Story Explication ,1967 The purpose of this work is to provide a bibliography of short story explication published from 1900 through 1966 in books monographs and periodicals Preface SAKI - Ultimate Collection: 145 Novels & Short Stories; Including Plays, Sketches & Historical Study Saki,H. H. Munro,2023-11-17 The SAKI Ultimate Collection 145 Novels Including Plays Sketches Historical Study anthology is a comprehensive gathering that underscores the wit irony and discerning critique of Edwardian society encapsulated in the works of H H Munro known by his pen name Saki This collection showcases a remarkable diversity of literary styles from the succinct satire of his short stories to the nuanced drama of his plays and insightful sketches of the historical context in which he wrote. Notable for its inclusion of lesser known works alongside celebrated stories, this anthology offers a unique lens through which to view the breadth of Saki's literary contributions and understanding of human nature and societal follies. The contributing authors in this case, Saki himself with his distinct literary persona, provides a vivid tableau of the social mores and the undercurrents of discontent that characterized the late Victorian and early Edwardian periods. His keen observation coupled with a sharp, often dark humor captures the complexities and contradictions of his time, making his work an important part of literary and cultural discussions of the early 20th century. For readers seeking to immerse themselves in the Edwardian period through the prism of satire and to appreciate the craft of short storytelling at its finest, SAKI Ultimate Collection is an invaluable compilation. Offering not just entertainment but also a deep, multi-faceted historical perspective, this anthology is a testament to the enduring relevance of Saki's works. Scholars, enthusiasts, and new readers alike will find in this collection a rich source of study, reflection, and enjoyment, bridging the gap between literary art and historical insight.

Reginald H. H. Munro, 2017-08-17. Hector Hugh Munro, 18 December 1870 – 14 November 1916, better known by the pen name Saki, and also frequently as H. H. Munro, was a British writer whose witty, mischievous and sometimes macabre stories satirize Edwardian society and culture. He is considered a master of the short story and often compared to O. Henry. Citation needed and Dorothy Parker citation needed. Influenced by Oscar Wilde, Lewis Carroll, and Rudyard Kipling, he himself influenced A. A. Milne, Noël Coward, and P. G. Wodehouse. Besides his short stories, which were first published in newspapers as was customary at the time, and then collected into several volumes, he wrote a full-length play, The Watched Pot, in collaboration with Charles Maude; two one-act plays; a historical study, The Rise of the Russian Empire, the only book published under his own name; a short novel, The Unbearable Bassington; the episodic The Westminster Alice, a parliamentary parody of Alice in Wonderland; and When William Came, subtitled A Story of London Under the Hohenzollerns, a fantasy about a future German invasion and occupation of Britain.

Early life Hector Hugh Munro was born in Akyab, British Burma, which was then still part of the British Raj and was governed from Calcutta under the authority of the Viceroy of India. Saki was the son of Charles Augustus Munro, an Inspector General for the Indian Imperial Police, by his marriage to Mary Frances Mercer (1843–1872), the daughter of Rear Admiral Samuel Mercer. Her nephew, Cecil William Mercer, later became a famous novelist as Dornford Yates. In 1872, on a home visit to England, Mary Munro was charged by a cow, and the shock caused her to miscarry. She never recovered and soon died. After the death of Munro's mother, Charles Munro sent his children, including two-year-old Hector, home to England. The children were sent to Broadgate Villa in Pilton village near Barnstaple, North Devon, to be raised by their grandmother and paternal maiden aunts, Charlotte and Augusta, in a strict and puritanical household. It is said that they were most likely models for a few of his characters notably The Lumber Room and Sredni Vashtar Leading slightly insular lives Munro and his siblings during their early years were educated under tutelage of governesses At the age of 12 the young Hector Munro was educated at Pencarwick School in Exmouth and then as a boarder at Bedford School In 1887 after his retirement his father returned from Burma and embarked upon a series of European travels with Hector and his siblings Hector followed his father in 1893 into the Indian Imperial Police and was posted to Burma but successive bouts of fever meant his return home after only fifteen months Writing career In 1896 he decided to move to London to make a living as a writer Munro started his writing career as a journalist for newspapers such as the Westminster Gazette the Daily Express the Morning Post and magazines such as the Bystander and Outlook His first book The Rise of the Russian Empire a historical study modelled upon Edward Gibbon's The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire appeared in 1900 under his real name but proved to be something of a false start Whilst he was writing The Rise of the Russian Empire he made his first foray into short story writing and published a piece called Dogged in St Paul's in February 1899 He then moved into the world of political satire in 1900 with a collaboration with Francis Carruthers Gould entitled Alice in Westminster Gould produced the sketches and Munro wrote the text accompanying them using the pen name Saki for the first time The series lampooned political figures of the day Alice in Downing Street begins with the memorable line Have you ever seen an Ineptitude referring to a zoomorphised Arthur Balfour and was published in the Liberal Westminster Gazette
