Separate And Unequal:

Is Separate Unequal? Albert Leon Samuels, 2004 In this critique of the liberal perspective on desegregation Samuels leads readers from the Brown decision to Green v School Board of New Kent County and on to United States v Fordice to show how the future of public black universities has been left uncertain at best For Samuels economic equality not segregation remains the primary obstacle to fully realized citizenship for African Americans He argues that African Americans pursuit of equality in higher education can be achieved without defunding programs at these schools and that their funding should be increased in recognition of their role in preserving African American culture

Separate and Unequal Louis R. Harlan, 2011-01-01 This is a revealing study of the crucial period in the educational development of the South as it involved the separate but equal doctrine It is based on extensive research in newspapers public documents official reports and manuscripts and it provi

It's Not You It's the Workplace Andrea S. Kramer, Alton B. Harris, 2019-08-27 Sliver award winner in Women Minorities in Business category 2020 Axiom Business Book Awards It s not you It s the Workplace offers a fresh approach to understanding why women s relationships with other women at work are often fraught and when they are have the potential to completely derail women s careers It s a pervasive and complicated issue which until now has been falsely represented by books that paint women as inherently bitchy back stabbers who cannot help but have challenging relationships with other women As the authors prove this is patently untrue Immensely practical the book features real world advice and tactics to overcome and avoid workplace conflict and most importantly build on the positive aspects of women to women relationships developing stronger networks that foster women s career success and creating a more supportive and satisfying work environment

Residential Segregation in Comparative Perspective Kuniko Fujita, 2016-04-08 We know very little about variations in urban class and ethnic segregation among nations and even less about differences among cities in different regions of the world Spatial organization places and neighbourhoods matters significantly in some cities in reproducing class relations and ethno racial hierarchies but may be much less important in others The degree and the impact of segregation depend upon contextual diversity By emphasizing the importance of contextual diversity in the study of urban residential segregation the book questions currently popular urban theories such as global city neoliberal urbanism and gentrification These theories tend to dissociate cities from their national and regional context and thus ignore their history culture politics and institutions The aim of this book is to introduce the significantly different urban experiences in social and spatial segregation patterns and rationales which exist among the world s regions and to demonstrate that urban theory needs to draw systematically upon this wide range of experiences The cities selected Athens Beijing Budapest Copenhagen Hong Kong Madrid Paris S o Paulo Taipei and Tokyo were chosen in order to achieve geographical spread to maximise the diversity of types of socioeconomic regulation This volume is thus able to avoid the interpretative limitations and misconstructions resulting from universalizing the Anglo American experience Segregated Schools Paul Street, 2013-04-15 Fifty years after the US Supreme Court ruled that separate but equal was inherently unequal Paul Street argues that little progress has been made to meaningful reform America s schools In fact Street considers the racial make up of today s schools as a state of de facto apartheid With an eye to historical development of segregated education Street examines the current state of school funding and investigates disparities in teacher quality teacher stability curriculum classroom supplies faculties student teacher ratios teacher expectations for students and students expectations for themselves Books in the series offer short polemic takes on hot topics in education providing a basic entry point into contemporary issues for courses and general readers

The Psychology of Multiculturalism, Assimilation, and Omniculturalism Fathali M. Moghaddam, 2024-07-03 This book provides from a psychological perspective a concise critical introduction to and assessment of three different approaches to managing diversity multiculturalism assimilation and omniculturalism This task is undertaken in global context and with reference to cutting edge empirical psychological research Historically assimilation has been the dominant approach to managing diversity However since the late 1960s multiculturalism has gained favor and is now the most commonly adopted approach in most Western as well as in some non Western societies Both assimilation and multiculturalism rest on some central psychological assumptions that are not supported by empirical research After critically reviewing the psychological foundations of assimilation and multiculturalism it is argued that we need to explore new approaches to managing diversity in the twenty first century A number of contemporary research programs such as those related to social identity theory and the common group identity model point to omniculturalism as a more promising approach to managing diversity Also global warming nuclear proliferation and other major challenges confronting humankind suggest that a diversity management approach that gives priority to human commonalities and universal rights is better suited to our contemporary needs

Structuring Inequality Tracy L. Steffes, 2024-04-02 How inequality was forged fought over and forgotten through public policy in metropolitan Chicago As in many American metropolitan areas inequality in Chicagoland is visible in its neighborhoods These inequalities are not inevitable however They have been constructed and deepened by public policies around housing schooling taxation and local governance including hidden state government policies In Structuring Inequality historian Tracy L Steffes shows how metropolitan inequality in Chicagoland was structured contested and naturalized over time even as reformers tried to change it through school desegregation affordable housing and property tax reform While these efforts had modest successes in the city and the suburbs reformers faced significant resistance and counter mobilization from affluent suburbanites real estate developers and other defenders of the status quo who defended inequality and reshaped the policy conversation about it Grounded in comprehensive archival research and policy analysis Structuring Inequality examines the history of Chicagoland s established systems of inequality and provides perspective on the inequality we live with today School desegregation
