The Palgrave Handbook of Religion, Peacebuilding, and Development in Africa Susan M. Kilonzo, Ezra Chitando, Joram Tarusarira, 2023-10-17 This Handbook explores the ways in which religion among the African people has been applied in situations of conflict and violence to contribute to sustainable peace and development. It analyzes how peacebuilding inspired and enabled by religion serves as the foundation for sustainable development in Africa while also acknowledging that religion can also be a tool of destruction and can be used to fuel violence and underdevelopment. Contributors to this volume offer theoretical discussions from existing literature as well as experiences of practitioners to deepen the readers' understanding on the role of religion and religious institutions in peacebuilding and development in Africa. The Handbook provides reflections on possible future developments as well, thereby aligning with the goals of SDG 16

For Younger Readers, 2004 Papa'S Letters Judith C. Lovell, 2013-01-09 What a powerful story. Thank you for not thinking it robbery to share. Isn't love an amazing thing? Papa wrote very well. He was brilliant in his observations. I never knew any of my grandparents and I envy ever so slightly those persons blessed to have that richness as part of their family quilt. God bless. Continue to share your grandparents with the rest of us. Annette Smith, Author of Etched. I was blown away by your detailed descriptions of your loved ones accompanied by those magnificent letters from 1914. Left me speechless. There is nothing more inspirational and soul stirring than reading a story about true love based in reality. Thanks for sharing. Rebecca McFadden, Author of Surfing to Find the One. You've given us such a lovely gift. I was touched on so many levels by the determination and devotion of your grandfather and the abiding love between your grandparents that is revealed in excerpts from his letters. The glimpses of the challenges faced by a West Indian immigrant determined to make it in America. The parallels between your son and his great grandfather. The reminder you have given us to maintain the precious human connection through letter writing in this age of technology. Barbara Gardner, Instructor, Boricua College. Your grandfather is awesome. His writings are poetry from the heart. Several times I just stopped reading and said, "Oh my God, this man is bad." My head is full, my heart is overflowing, my pen is ready, paper is convenient, and ink is nearby. All I have to do is write. Shoot pure, passionate, prayerful poetry. William A. Jones III, Community Leader
