New Left Revisited John Campbell

McMillian, Paul Buhle, 2008 Starting with the premise that it is possible to say something significantly new about the 1960s and the New Left the contributors to this volume trace the social roots the various paths and the legacies of the movement that set out to change America As members of a younger generation of scholars none of them apart from Paul Buhle has first hand knowledge of the era Their perspective as non participants enables them to offer fresh interpretations of the regional and ideological differences that have been obscured in the standard histories and memoirs of the period Reflecting the diversity of goals the clashes of opinions and the tumult of the time these essays will engage seasoned scholars as well as students of the 60s

Marcuse in the Twenty-First Century Robert Kirsch, Sarah Surak, 2018-12-07 This book engages the critical theory of political philosopher Herbert Marcuse to imagine spaces of resistance and liberation from the repressive forces of late capitalism Marcuse an influential counterculture voice in the 1960s highlighted the smooth democratic unfreedom of postwar capitalism a critique that is well adapted to the current context The compilation begins with a previously unpublished lecture delivered by Marcuse in 1966 addressing the inadequacy of philosophy in its current form arguing how it may be a force for liberation and social change This lecture provides a theoretical mandate for the volume's original contributions from international scholars engaging how topics such as higher education aesthetics and political organization can contribute to the project of building a critical rationality for a qualitatively better world offering an alternative to the bleak landscape of neoliberalism The essays in this volume as whole engage the current context with an urgency appropriate to the problems facing an encroaching authoritarianism in political society with an interdisciplinary lens that speaks to the complexity of the problems facing modern society The chapters originally published as a special issue in New Political Science

Legal Modernism David Luban, 2010-05-06 Modernism in legal theory is no different from modernism in the arts both respond to a cultural crisis a sense that institutions and traditions have lost their validity Some doubt the importance of the rule of law others question the objectivity of legal reasoning We have lost confidence in the justice of our legal institutions and even in our very capacity to identify justice Legal philosopher David Luban argues that we cannot escape the modernist predicament Accusing contemporary legal theorists of evading rather than confronting the challenge of modernity he offers important and original objections to pragmatism traditionalism and nihilism He argues that only by weaving together the broken narrative and forgotten voices of history s victims can we come to appreciate the nature of justice in modern society Calling a trial the embodiment of the law s self criticism Luban demonstrates the centrality of narrative by analyzing the trial of Martin Luther King the Nuremberg trials and trial scenes in Homer Hesiod and Aeschylus With these examples Luban explores several of the tensions that motivate much more contemporary legal theory order versus justice obedience versus resistance statism versus communitarianism an illuminating account of how contemporary legal theory can be understood as an expression of the modernist predicament by exploring the analogy between modernism in the arts and modernism in law politics and philosophy a valuable critical discussion of modern legal theory Choice David Luban is Morton and Sophia Macht Professor of Law at the University of Maryland and Research Scholar at the Institute for Philosophy and Public Policy His other books include Lawyers and Justice An Ethical Study The Marcusean Mind Eduardo Altheman C. Santos, Jina Fast, Nicole K. Mayberry, Sid Simpson, 2024-10-29 Herbert Marcuse 1898 1979 was a member of the Frankfurt School a leading figure of 1960s counterculture and a fundamental character for the New Left His ideas and theories inspired by a rich fusion of Marxian and Freudian thought exert a strong influence on contemporary thinking about activism emancipation and political resistance He was also a student of Martin Heidegger in the late 1920s and engaged deeply with philosophy throughout his career The Marcusean Mind is an outstanding survey and assessment of Marcuse s thought Beginning with a thorough introduction to Marcuse s life and work 39 chapters by an international and interdisciplinary team of contributors are organized into five clear parts Intellectual Ecosystems of Marcuse Reason and Sensibilities Futures and Utopias Contemporary Movements Counterrevolutions Neoliberalism and Fascism These sections each contain a short introduction after which Marcusean ideas are brought to bear on many key contemporary debates and issues across the humanities social sciences and science and technology Including a Foreword by Craig Calhoun and an Afterword by Douglas Kellner The Marcusean Mind is a superb resource for anyone interested in Marcuse s thought and its legacy It is valuable reading for students of contemporary political theory activism philosophy sociology media and cultural studies critical legal studies and race and gender studies Classical and Contemporary Sociological Theory Scott Appelrouth, Laura Desfor Edles, 2020-08-13 The authors are proud sponsors of the 2020 SAGE Keith Roberts Teaching Innovations Award enabling graduate students and early career faculty to attend the annual ASA pre conference teaching and learning workshop Now available for the first time in print and e book formats Classical and Contemporary Sociological

Foretelling the End of Capitalism Francesco Boldizzoni, 2020-05-12 Intellectuals since the Industrial Revolution have been obsessed with whether when and why capitalism will collapse This riveting account of two centuries of failed forecasts of doom reveals the key to capitalism's durability Prophecies about the end of capitalism are as old as capitalism itself None have come true Yet whether out of hope or fear we keep looking for harbingers of doom In Foretelling the End of Capitalism Francesco Boldizzoni gets to the root of the human need to imagine a different and better world and offers a compelling solution to the puzzle of why capitalism has been able to survive so many shocks and setbacks Capitalism entered the twenty first century triumphant its communist rival consigned to the past But the Great Recession and worsening inequality have undermined faith in its stability and revived questions about its long term prospects Is capitalism on its way out If so what might replace it And if it does endure how will it cope with future social and environmental crises and the inevitable costs of creative destruction Boldizzoni shows that these and other questions have stood at the heart of much analysis and speculation from the early socialists and Karl Marx to the Occupy Movement Capitalism has survived predictions of its demise not as many think because of its economic efficiency or any intrinsic virtues of markets but because it is ingrained in the hierarchical and individualistic structure of modern Western societies Foretelling the End of Capitalism takes us on a fascinating journey through two centuries of unfulfilled prophecies An intellectual tour de force and a plea for political action it will change our understanding of the economic system that determines the fabric of our lives

Adsensory Urban Ecology (Volume Two) Pamela Odihi, 2019-03-14 Adsensory sign technology which depicts the human body as both object and subject of inscriptive advertising technologies is integral to a western capitalist insurantal financialisation of health and wellbeing Developing further the theme of adsensory technologies of the sign in conjunction with Daniel Bell's theory of the codification of knowledge as an axial feature of the structuring of post industrial society this book explores gentrification in heterotopic post industrial urban spaces It brings together case studies from the City of Bath's decommissioned Bath Press print works London's Trafalgar Square busking community and its dialectics of audio sensory gentrification and London's Brick Lane and its gentrification of street art These studies illustrate empirically the extent to which advertising adsensory technologies have become integral to the gentrification of post industrial urban spaces Several of the case studies engage critically with the empirical observation that in the post industrial urban ecology of inner city regeneration adsensory technologies extend avariciously into the infrastructure of neoliberal managerialist gentrification In addition the book explores the forms of capital accumulation which are emerging from the integration of adsensory technology into the gentrification of post industrial urban spaces and examines a new form of capital accumulation in inner city gentrification predicated on the de generative integrity of adsensory financialisation Art, Alienation, and the Humanities Charles Reitz,2000-02-03 Winner of the 2002 American Educational Studies Association s Critics Choice Award By examining the aesthetic social and educational philosophy of Herbert Marcuse the author documents and demonstrates the structure and movement of Marcuse s thought on art alienation and the humanities Reitz s work stresses the centrality of Marcuse s argument that the arts and humanities may act as disalienating educational forces Karl Marx's Life, Ideas, and Influences Shaibal Gupta,Marcello Musto,Babak Amini,2019-09-28 Since the latest crisis of capitalism broke out in 2008 Marx has been back in fashion and sometimes it seems that his ideas have never been as topical or as commanding of respect and interest as they are today This edited collection arises from one of the largest international conferences dedicated to the bicentenary of Marx s birth The volume contains 16 chapters authored by globally renowned scholars and is divided into two parts I On the Critique of Politics II On the Critique of Political Economy These contributions from multiple academic disciplines offer diverse perspectives on why Marx is still so relevant for our times and make this book a source of great appeal for both expert scholars of Marx as well as students and general readers who are approaching his theories for the first time Dwelling in Resistance Chelsea Schelly,2017-08-02 Most Americans take for granted much of what is materially involved in the daily rituals of dwelling In Dwelling in Resistance Chelsea Schelly examines four alternative U S communities The Farm Twin Oaks Dancing Rabbit and Earthships where electricity water heat waste food and transportation practices differ markedly from those of the vast majority of Americans Schelly portrays a wide range of residential living alternatives utilizing renewable small scale decentralized technologies These technologies considerably change how individuals and communities interact with the material world their natural environment and one another Using in depth interviews and compelling ethnographic observations the book offers an insightful look at different communities practices and principles and their successful endeavors in sustainability and self sufficiency Encyclopedia of Case Study Research Albert J. Mills,Gabrielle Durepos,Elden Wiebe,2010 This is the authoritative reference work in the field An interdisciplinary set it investigates the extensive history design and methods of case study research Social Theory, Volume I Roberta Garner,Black Hawk Hancock,2014-05-29 The third edition of this popular reader reflects considerable changes The framework for understanding theory as a set of conversations over time is maintained and deepened pairing classical with contemporary readings to illustrate the ways in which theory continues to be reinterpreted over time Volume I has been completely reorganized with new contextual and biographical materials surrounding the primary readings and end of chapter study guides that include key terms discussion questions and innovative classroom exercises The result is a fresh and expansive take on social theory that foregrounds a plurality of perspectives and reflects contemporary trends in the field while being an accessible and manageable teaching tool

Who Paid the Pipers of Western Marxism? Gabriel Rockhill, 2025-12 Who Paid the Pipers of Western Marxism offers a crash course in the history of imperialist propaganda as well as in the Marxist method for analyzing culture and ideology Author Gabriel Rockhill demonstrates the explanatory and transformative superiority of a dialectical and historical materialist approach while elucidating how the world of ideas is a crucial site of class struggle He then engages in a meticulous counter history of the Frankfurt School which made a foundational contribution to Western Marxism by situating it within the global relations of class struggle and the imperialist war on actually existing socialism With the explicit and direct backing of powerful elements in the capitalist ruling class and the world s leading imperialist state the Frankfurt School developed a widely promoted form of compatible critical theory as an ersatz for dialectical and historical materialism The volume concludes by bringing to the fore the positive project that serves as the guiding methodological framework for the work as a whole a thoroughly anticolonial and anti imperialist Marxism dedicated to building socialism in the real world Drawing on extensive archival research to pull back the curtain on ruling class machinations Rockhill s book elucidates how the intellectual world war on the socialist alternative has sought to shore up and promote a compatible left intelligentsia while misrepresenting maligning and trying to destroy the revolutionary left
