Congress. Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources,2007 Gabriel García Márquez Gerald Martin,2009-05-05 In this exhaustive and enlightening biography nearly two decades in the making Gerald Martin dexterously traces the life and times of one of the twentieth century's greatest literary titans Nobel Prize winner Gabriel García Márquez Martin chronicles the particulars of an extraordinary life from his upbringing in backwater Colombia and early journalism career to the publication of One Hundred Years of Solitude at age forty and the wealth and fame that followed Based on interviews with more than three hundred of García Márquez's closest friends family members fellow authors and detractors as well as the many hours Martin spent with Gabo himself the result is a revelation of both the writer and the man It is as gripping as any of Gabriel García Márquez's powerful journalism as enthralling as any of his acclaimed and beloved fiction Architecture in Fictional Literature: Essays on Selected Works Nevnihal Erdoğan,2021-12-24 The art of architecture is an important aesthetic element that can leave a lasting impression in one's mind about the values of a society Today's architectural art education and culture have gradually turned into engineering practices and more technical pursuits Architecture in Fictional Literature is a book written with the aim of understanding the concept of living spaces as portrayed in works of fiction and to open the doors to a new perspective for readers on the art of architecture It is a collection of essays written by educators and literary critics about how architecture is presented in 28 selected literary works of fiction These selected works which include well known works such as Hugo's Hunchback of Notre Dame Kafka's The Castle Swift's Gulliver's Travels Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings Carroll's Alice in Wonderland Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby among many others collectively attempt to illustrate facets of human life in a lucidly expressive way while also having an architectural background added in the narrative Each essay is unique and brings a diverse range of perspectives on the main theme while also touching on some niche topics in this area such as spatial analysis urban transformation and time period settings all of which have exploratory potential With this collection the contributors aspire to initiate the transformation of architectural education by including a blend of literary criticism By building a foundation of architectural aesthetics they hope to bridge the gap between the artist and the architect while also inspiring a new generation of urban planners landscape artists and interior designers to consider past works when designing living spaces Architecture in Fictional Literature is also essential to any enthusiast of fictional works who wants to understand the fictional portrayal of living spaces and architecture in literature

Exotic Nations Renata Wasserman, 2018-03-15 In this highly original and critically informed book Renata R Mautner Wasserman looks at how during the first decades following political independence writers in the United States and Brazil assimilated and subverted European images of an exotic New World to create new literatures that asserted cultural independence and defined national identity Exotic Nations demonstrates that the language of exoticism thus became part of the New World's interpretation of its own history and natural environment

Mother Jones Magazine, 1985-02 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues

Family, Friends and Foes Debra D. Andrist, 2018-11-01 Jigsaw puzzles notorious complexity and mega multiple amorphously shaped pieces provide an appropriate metaphor for the navigating and maneuvering necessary throughout all aspects of human dynamics Involvement comprises not only efforts by an individual personally trying to fit together a life of relationships with Family Friends Foes within complex categories and different levels but the efforts by groups of individuals within those categories progressively by those groups within a larger society and or societies and then across so many so called boundaries geographic ethnic linguistic artistic and more Such is the starting point for this particular collection of essays which focuses on the human dynamics in cultures characterized mostly linguistically as Hispanic worlds and those cultures both in real life and in terms of cultural productions such as movies visual art and literature Unlike jigsaw puzzles with their convenient guiding box cover representation of the finished product once the pieces are correctly assembled human dynamics pieces are more like amoebas ever changing size and shape multiplying and dividing sometimes fitting in with other pieces sometimes not sometimes overlapping in short frequently unpredictable and always challenging for the would be assembler's Thus the title of this book could easily morph ad infinitum with the three elements of Family Friends Foes reflecting an enormous and unwieldy range of relationship emotion and viewpoint Mixed messages abound And as can be seen from the individual chapter titles and content so called successful relationships may be fleeting or unattainable or may match the imagined hoped for picture of a working relationship dynamic
