Quaker History ,1995 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 A Catalog of Books Belonging to the Lower Hall of the Central Department, in the Classes of History, Biography, and Travel Boston Public Library,1873 Toward a Global Middle Ages Bryan C. Keene,2019-09-03 This important and overdue book examines illuminated manuscripts and other book arts of the Global Middle Ages Illuminated manuscripts and illustrated or decorated books like today s museums preserve a rich array of information about how premodern peoples conceived of and perceived the world its many cultures and everyone's place in it. Often a Eurocentric field of study, manuscripts are prisms through which we can glimpse the interconnected global history of humanity. Toward a Global Middle Ages is the first publication to examine decorated books produced across the globe during the period traditionally known as medieval. Through essays and case studies, the volume's multidisciplinary contributors expand the historiography, chronology, and geography of manuscript studies to embrace a diversity of objects, individuals, narratives, and materials from Africa, Asia, Australasia, and the Americas, an approach that both engages with and contributes to the emerging field of scholarly inquiry known as the Global Middle Ages. Featuring more than 160 color illustrations, this wide-ranging and provocative collection is intended for all who are interested in engaging in a dialogue about how books and other textual objects contributed to world-making strategies from about 400 to 1600. A Catalogue of Books Belonging to the Lower Hall of the Central Department in the Classes of History, Biography, and Travel, Including the Histories of Literature, Art, Sects, Etc., Politics, Geography, Voyages, Sketches, and Manners and Customs, Together with Notes for Readers Under Subject-references Boston Public Library, Justin Winsor, 1873. The Illustrated London News, 1888. Air Corps News Letter, 1960. The Eternal Tide Kirsten Beyer, 2012-08-28. An all-new novel that continues the epic saga of the Starship Voyager. As the Voyager fleet continues its exploration of the Delta Quadrant, investigating the current status of sectors formerly controlled by the Borg becomes a key priority. Two of the fleet's special mission vessels, the U.S.S. Galen and U.S.S. Demeter, are left at New Talax to aid Neelix's people while the Voyager Quirinal, Esquiline, Hawking, and Curie do a systematic search for any remnants of the Borg or Caeliar, even as the Achilles moves to a location central enough to offer aid to the exploring vessels as needed. As this critical mission begins, Fleet Commander Afsarah Eden, who has shared what little she knows of her mysterious past with Captain Chakotay, begins to experience several more awakenings as she encounters artifacts and places that make her feel connected to her long-lost home. She is reluctant to allow these visions to overshadow the mission, and this becomes increasingly difficult as time passes. But in the midst of this growing crisis, no one in the fleet could anticipate the unexpected return of one of Starfleet's most revered leaders, a return that could hold the very fate of the galaxy in the balance. Wandering Myths Lucy Gaynor Audley-Miller, Beate Dignas, 2018-10-08. In spite of the growing amount of important new work being carried out on uses of myth in particular ancient contexts, their appeal and reception beyond the framework of one culture have rarely been the primary object of enquiry in contemporary debate. Highlighting the fact that ancient societies were linked by their shared use of mythological narratives, Wandering Myths aims to advance our understanding of the mechanisms by which such tales were disseminated cross-culturally and to investigate how they gained local resonances. In order to assess both wider geographic circulations and to explore specific local features and interpretations, a regional approach is adopted with a particular focus on Anatolia, the Near East, and Italy. Contributions are drawn from a range of disciplines and cross a wide chronological span, but all are interlinked by their engagement with questions focusing on the factors that guided the processes of reception and steered the facets of local interpretation The Preface and Epilogue evaluate the material in a synoptic way and frame the challenging questions and views expressed in the Introduction Nature ,1882 The Churchman ,1878 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1866 The Athenaeum ,1877 Saturday Review ,1866 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1888 The Origin And History Of Missions John Overton Choules,1848
