Pevsner On Art And Architecture:

Pevsner: The Complete Broadcast Talks Mr Stephen Games, 2014-05-30 This book brings together the surviving texts of the 113 talks on art and architecture that we know of given by the art historian Sir Nikolaus Pevsner on radio and television over a 37 year period between 1945 1977 These talks are important as an example of the attempt by the BBC in particular to provide intellectual programming for the mass population The talks are important for what they reveal about changing tastes in the treatment of the arts as a broadcast topic as well as offering a case study of the development of one particular historian's approach to a subject that was gaining ground in universities as a direct result of his popularisation of it

Pevsner on Art and Architecture Nikolaus Pevsner, 2003 A refugee from Nazi Germany Nikolaus Pevsner became a central player in the intellectual and cultural life of his adopted country Almost impossibly energetic efficient and effective his contribution both to scholarship and to the public appreciation of art and architecture is immense In addition to the famous Buildings in England series known commonly as Pevsner he wrote standard textbooks held professorships delivered Reith lectures promoted with equal fervour Victorian and Bauhaus architecture and for over 25 years from the end of the war was a regular broadcaster for the BBC Here principally for the Third Programme his talks ranged from a discussion of Breughel's art to the buildings of Gaudi from a series on Englishmen's castles to meditations on modern town planning from Elizabethan mannerism to contemporary American architecture

Pevsner - the Complete Broadcast Talks Nikolaus Pevsner, 2014 This book brings together the surviving texts of the 113 talks on art and architecture that we know of given by the art historian Sir Nikolaus Pevsner on radio and television over a 37 year period between 1945 1977 It includes the seven texts of the 1955 Reith Lectures in their original broadcast form as well as lectures that Pevsner gave in German for the BBC in London and RIAS in Berlin and on the radio in New Zealand Publisher's description

Pevsner: The BBC Years Mr Stephen Games, 2015-08-28 Pevsner The BBC Years gives the first full account of Sir Nikolaus Pevsner's engagement with the BBC at a time when both were the dominant institutions in their own fields Pevsner as the most persuasive figure in architecture and art history the BBC as the country's sole broadcaster A German emigré Pevsner was not at first trusted to speak on the air and was only invited to appear at the very end of the war in spite of his growing eminence in academia and publishing With the arrival of the Third Programme in 1946 however he quickly became a broadcasting celebrity and one whom senior BBC figures regarded as essential and novel listening Pevsner The BBC Years looks at the sudden rise in Pevsner's standing at the BBC at what he was admired for and at the circumstances surrounding his being commissioned in the mid 1950s to give the first series of Reith Lectures on an arts subject the relationship between visual expression and national identity The book explains the roles played by Geoffrey Grigson Basil Taylor Anna Kallin and Leonie Cohn in advancing Pevsner's BBC career analyses the literary character of his broadcasting and considers the function of his talks as an extension of European belletrism It also demonstrates the significance of his concurrent editorship of the King Penguin series of books In addition Pevsner The BBC Years documents the unravelling of Pevsner's reputation It shows how he was caught between changing fashions in media culture and damaged by doubts about the safety of his ideas both within the BBC and externally among British conservatives who found him too radical and American radicals who found him too conservative In Pevsner The BBC Years correspondence from the BBC's archives provides a case study of scholarly thought being exposed to independent scrutiny a process with lessons for today Reassessing Nikolaus Pevsner Peter Draper,2017-07-05
