Perspectives on Ecclesiology and Ethnography Pete Ward, 2012-03-15 Within the disciplines of religious studies systematic theology and practical theology there exists a divide between empirical and theological analyses of the church Each volume in the cross disciplinary series Studies in Ecclesiology and Ethnography attempts to address this gap by exploring the methodological and substantive issues that arise from both theological and empirical studies of the church's practices and social reality Perspectives on Ecclesiology and Ethnography the inaugural volume in the series proposes that if theology is to regain its relevance to the church today theologians must utilize ethnographical tools in order to provide more accurate disciplined research that is situated in real contexts Using ethnography in its broadest sense encompassing any form of qualitative research this volume proposes that the church is both theological and social cultural which implies the need for a methodological shift for researchers in theology Contributions from twelve scholar practitioners lead the way forward Contributors Luke Bretherton Paul S Fiddes Nicholas M Healy Mary McClintock Fulkerson Alister E McGrath Richard R Osmer Elizabeth Phillips Christian Scharen John Swinton Pete Ward Clare Watkins John Webster Political Formation Jenny Leith,2023-01-31 What might it mean us to be formed as disciples not only by the church but also by the world In Political Formation Being Formed by the Spirit in Church and World Jenny Leith argues that ethical and political formation of Christians takes place through the work of the Spirit both in the church and in civic life and the church too has something to learn from wider political practices and movements This account of formation places centre stage a reckoning with the forms of exclusion and marginalisation that mar the church and yields an understanding of the church as not only ethically formative but also in constant need of being formed itself Offering a fresh vision for ecclesiology which grapples with the ethical failings of the church and takes seriously the need for the church to keep on recognising and repenting of its sins the book offers a major new contribution to discussions around Christian formation and the relationship between discipleship and ethics The Bonhoeffer Legacy ATF Press,2018-12-31 This collection of essays looks at a range of topics public theology why Chinese intellectuals are interested in engaging with Bonhoeffer Bonhoeffer's concept of the logos and public theology and Bonhoeffer's approach to social analysis Contributors Barry Harvey Robert Vosloo Jason Lam Joel Banman and Dustin Benac Gathering Disciples Myra Blyth,Andy Goodliff,2017-02-08 This collection of essays by British Baptists honors the work of Christopher Ellis amongst the Baptist community recognizing in particular the contribution he has made to the practice and theology of Free Church worship The book takes a selection of his hymns as a starting point for reflection on areas of worship discipleship the sacraments and theology The Bible in Worship Victoria Raymer ,2018-02-27 Biblical proclamation is central to Christian worship The Bible witnesses to the foundational experiences of the Church Its proclamation invites worshippers into encounter with Christ the living Word The Bible in Worship seeks to make visible how the Bible is encountered in the worship of mainstream Western churches Focusing in turn on the Roman Catholic Reformed and Anglican traditions Victoria Raymer offers a detailed and lively consideration of the contemporary practices of proclamation in each considers their respective patterns of reading the Bible as part of public worship and reflects on the place the Bible takes in daily prayer Raymer also draws our attention towards the role the psalms play in contemporary formal liturgy and offers a chapter on how the Bible is weaved into less formal forms of worship including contemporary sung worship Offering a truly holistic study of the scripture in worship the book will resource readers to reflect on how proclamation invites response in understanding and resolve and to consider how it might do so more effectively
