Public Power Private Life:

Public Power, Private Interests and Where Do We Fit In? Edmund F. Byrne, 1998 All over the world the statues of Mary are miraculously crying In the meantime a journalist in Washington D C is diverted away from her own personal demons when she takes it upon herself to question why the Vatican is not declaring these occurrences as miracles after witnessing the unexplainable phenomena herself The journalist suspects her nightly barrage of haunting nightmares about the violent murders of countless women from five thousand year old priestesses to women accused of being witches in the seventeenth century may have something to do with the answer as she investigates the biggest story of her life Women all over the world in the 21st century are feeling the awakening as the discovery of ancient artifacts are disproving the beliefs set forth by patriarchal religions for thousands of years When the journalist receives a visitation from a beautiful Goddess who at first appears to be the Virgin Mary she suddenly realizes that an ancient religious and political cover up has grossly distorted some very important historical truths As the journalist investigates and begins to publicly write about what she has uncovered death threats and terror follow next as powerful members of the world's patriarchal religions and the age old male run organizations that support them fight viciously to keep one of the world's oldest and most deceptive societal form of control against women hidden from the world But as intimidation and threats increase so too do the miracles and visitations from the real Sleeping Goddess as she awakens once again to bless and protect the world while igniting the hearts and souls of oppressed women everywhere

Public Power, Private Dams Karl Boyd Brooks, 2009-11-17 In the years following World War II the world's biggest dam was almost built in Hells Canyon on the Snake River in Idaho Karl Boyd Brooks tells the story of the dam controversy which became a referendum not only on public power expansion but also on the environmental implications of the New Deal's natural resources and economic policy Private power critics of the Hells Canyon High Dam posed difficult questions about the implications of damming rivers to create power and to grow crops Activists attorneys and scientists pioneered legal tactics and political rhetoric that would help to define the environmental movement in the 1960s The debate however was less about endangered salmon or threatened wild country and more about who would control land and water and whether state enterprise or private capital would oversee the supply of electricity By thwarting the dam's construction Snake Basin irrigators retained control over water as well as economic and political power in Idaho putting the state on a postwar path that diverged markedly from that of bordering states In the end the opponents of the dam were responsible for preserving high deserts and mountain rivers from radical change With Public Power Private Dams Karl Brooks makes an important contribution not only to the history of the Pacific Northwest and the region's anadromous fisheries but also to the environmental history of the United States in the period after World War II

Moondoggle Mark C. Borton, 2023-04-15 For 25 years Franklin Roosevelt tried to build the world's first tidal electric power plant by harnessing the Bay of Fundy's giant tides The enormous project would have dammed up 110 square miles of coastal Maine and Canada

Moondoggle is a dramatic tale about the appeal of tidal power the difficulties in realizing its potential and the engineers and three U S Presidents Roosevelt Truman and Kennedy who tried to make clean and renewable tidal power a reality Now on the 100th anniversary of the Passamaquoddy Project s conception 1920 2020 Moondoggle the only book on the project explores what almost was and what could be A History of Private Life Philippe Ariès,Michelle Perrot,Georges Duby,1987 Library has Vol 1 5 Strange Love Robin Truth Goodman,Kenneth J. Saltman,2002 Seeks to answer the question of how varied cultural forms in this case curricula multicultural literature and popular films educate the public ideologically Interrogates the relationship between the political economy of globalization and the new human rights imperialism and the cultural politics that educate the public into complicity with it through such narratives as family war politics privatization and innocence Introduction Feminist Theory in Pursuit of the Public R. Goodman,2010-09-27 Feminist Theory in Pursuit of the Public argues that feminism needs to develop a theory of the public It responds to a moment when feminism s impetus to reconstitute the private sphere left a huge gap in its political thinking on the public This inattention to the public is particularly worrisome now when the nation state and its publics seem to have diminishing power and compromised democratic agency The waning of power in the public sphere diminishes the influence that citizens can have in deciding on the conditions of life and therefore minimizes the changes that feminists can envision or enact in the social field to work towards equality access deliberation participation just distribution rights and authority for women

The Constitution of Freedom András Sajó,Renáta Uitz,2017 Informed by a life lived under the oppressions of communism ECtHR Judge Andr s Saj examines the fundamentals of constitutional systems of government protection from tyranny and promotion of freedom in this timely and important book Governing Child Sexual Abuse Samantha Ashenden,2016-04-29 The turn of the 1990s saw a number of high profile public inquiries into the handling of child sexual abuse cases in Great Britain In examines the implications of these inquiries on the regulation of relationships between families and the state author Samantha Ashenden brings a number of contemporary debates in social and political theory to bear upon the governance of child sexual abuse In particular drawing on the work of Foucault and Habermas Ashenden looks at how to analyze the boundary between public and private spheres the legal and scientific determination of legitimate intervention the relationship between democracy and expertise in the governance of social life Timely and topical this book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of social and political theory political sociology the sociology of law and social policy A Millennium of Family Change Wally Seccombe,1995-10-17 How do changes in family form relate to changes in society as a whole In a work which combines theoretical rigour with historical scope Wally Seccombe provides a powerful study of the changing structure of families from the Middle Ages to the beginning of the Industrial Revolution Responding to feminist critiques of sex blind historical materialism Seccombe argues that family forms must be seen to be at the heart of modes of production He takes issue with the mainstream consensus in family history which argues that capitalism did not fundamentally alter the structure of the nuclear family and makes a controversial intervention in the long standing debate over European marriage patterns and their relation to industrialization Drawing on an astonishing range of studies in family history historical demography and economic history A Millennium of Family Change provides an integrated overview of the long transition from feudalism to capitalism illuminating the far reaching changes in familial relations from peasant subsistence to the making of the modern working class

On the Borders of Love and Power David Wallace Adams, Crista DeLuzio, 2012-07-09 Embracing the crossroads that made the region distinctive this book reveals how American families have always been characterized by greater diversity than idealizations of the traditional family have allowed The essays show how family life figured prominently in relations to larger struggles for conquest and control
