Public Sector Management In Australia:

Public Sector Management in Australia Ciaran O'Faircheallaigh, John Wanna, Patrick Moray Weller, 1999 Revised and updated second edition of a text first published in 1992 Includes recent empirical research and a new section on management in practice Addresses issues relating to the design and structure of governmental bodies the utility and impact of alternative management techniques and public sector ethics and accountability Includes references and an index The authors have senior positions at the Centre for Australian Public Sector Management and have published extensively in their field Public Sector Management in Australia Patrick Weller, Glyn Davis, John Wanna, 1992 Public sector management in Australia, 1996

Competing for Influence Barry Ferguson, 2019-07-12 Amidst growing dissatisfaction with the state of government performance and an erosion of trust in our political class Competing for Influence asks what sort of public service do we want in Australia Drawing on his experience in both the public and private sectors and citing academic research across the fields of public sector management industrial organisation and corporate strategy Barry Ferguson argues the case for the careful selection and application of private sector management concepts to the public service both for their ability to strengthen the public service and inform public policy These include competitive advantage competitive positioning horizontal strategy and organisational design and innovation as an all encompassing organisational adjustment mechanism to a changeable environment But these are not presented as a silver bullet and Ferguson addresses other approaches to reform including the need to rebuild the Public Sector Act the need to reconsider the interface between political and administrative arms of government and determine what is in the public interest and the need for greater independence for the public service within a clarified role This approach and its implications for public sector reform is contrasted with the straitjacket of path dependency that presently constricts the field

Public Sector Accounting and Accountability in Australia Warwick Funnell, Kathie Cooper, 1998 Accountability as it concerns the Commonwealth Government the obligation of governments to be financially accountable ways in which governments answer for the use of resources taken from the public to implement social and economic policies defining the public sector the significance of government the cycle of accountability in government the structure of Australian government
