The Prophet's Pulpit Patrick D. Gaffney, 2023-07-28 Muslim preaching has been central in forming public opinion building grassroots organizations and developing leadership cadres for the wider Islamist agenda Based on in depth field research in Egypt Patrick Gaffney focuses on the preacher and the sermon as the single most important medium for propounding the message of Islam He draws on social history political commentary and theological sources to reveal the subtle connections between religious rhetoric and political dissent Many of the sermons discussed were given during the rise of Islamic fundamentalism and Gaffney attempts to describe this militant movement and to compare it with official Islam Finally Gaffney presents examples of the sermons so readers can better understand the full range of contemporary Islamic expression Muslim preaching has been central in forming public opinion building grassroots organizations and developing leadership cadres for the wider Islamist agenda Based on in depth field research in Egypt Patrick Gaffney focuses on the preacher and the sermon

Power and the Pulpit in Puritan New England Emory Elliott, 2015-03-08 For years scholars have attempted to understand the powerful hold that the sermon had upon the imagination of New England Puritans In this book Emory Elliott puts forth a complex and striking thesis that Puritan religious literature provided the myths and metaphors that helped the people to express their deepest doubts and fears feelings created by their particular cultural situation and aroused by the crucial social events of seventeenth century America In his early chapters the author defines the psychological needs of the second and third generation Puritans arguing that these needs arose from the generational conflict between the founders and their children and from the methods of child rearing and religious education employed in Puritan New England In the later chapters he reveals how the ministers responded to the crisis in their society by reshaping theology and constructing in their sermons a religious language that helped to fulfill the most urgent psychological needs of the people Originally published in 1975 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Bully Pulpit, Presidential Speeches, and the Shaping of Public Policy, Jeffrey S. Ashley, Marla J. Jarmer, 2015-11-11 Issue framing is the way that people especially politicians get other people to view a particular problem or issue By framing the issue in a particular way the goal is to get people to think about the issue to believe that an action is required and most importantly to believe that a particular action the one being proposed by the framer is the right one The use of language and imagery is an essential part of issue framing and has been an integral part of the presidency since our nation s founding but it has become particularly important since Theodore Roosevelt began to take his message directly to the people This work examines a selected speech delivered by every president from Roosevelt through Barack Obama to show how language has been instrumental in directing policy. Each chapter will examine the situation or background for the problem, include a transcript of the speech the president delivered, and conclude with an analysis of the speech in terms of the particular frame that the speech utilized and the eventual outcome or policy direction inspired by the speech.

The Writings of Irenaeus Saint Irenaeus (Bishop of Lyon.), 1868 The Writings of Irenaeus saint Irenaeus (évêque de Lyon), 1868 Pulpit Speech Jay Edward Adams, 2004-07-01

Timeless Texts introduces a monograph series for ministry. The General categories introducing the series are Church Counseling, Preaching, and Theology. Other categories will be added in the future. The books are topical writings by contemporary authors addressed to those who are involved in ministry in today's church. That would include Pastors, Elders, Deacons, Counselors, and active laymen.

The Force of Fantasy Ernest G. Bormann, 2001. In this book first published in 1985, Ernest G. Bormann explores mass persuasion in America from 1620 to 1860, examining closely four rhetorical communities: the revivals of 1739-1740, the hot gospel of the postrevolutionary period, the evangelical revival and reform of the 1830s, and the Free Soil and Republican parties. Each community varies greatly, but Bormann asserts that each succeeding community shares a rhetorical vision of restoring the American Dream that is essentially a modification of the previous visions. Thus they form a family of rhetorical visions that constitutes a rhetorical tradition of importance in nineteenth-century American popular culture.
