Joni Woelfel

Pummeled Heart Finding Peace Through Pain:

Finding Peace Through Pain Antoinette Bosco, 1995 Toni has battled terror and prevailed Her courageous pilgrimage makes a great book a spiritual classic that might be inspiring decades or even centuries from now New York Newsday Antoinette Bosco is a mother and grandmother who has lived through every woman's worst nightmares an incapacitated spouse the suicide and murder of two of her six children the blinding and grave illness of two others As the blows kept coming this devout Catholic found herself asking God where are you taking me When is enough enough Yet to meet Antoinette Bosco is to be in the presence of someone profoundly at peace with herself and her world Her serenity and her joy in life are palpable Now drawing on her own suffering and the pain of the many people she has interviewed journalist Antoinette Bosco shares with us the spiritual truths that illumined her path in the darkest days of her tribulations No one else could have written this compelling true story of a life besieged but never broken and of the wisdom gained by passing through such tests coming closer to God because of them Finding Peace Through Pain is not just a good book by a skilled writer but a great book by an accomplished author and spiritual guide Let her help you to learn to smile and be strong again

Mitch Finley Author of Everybody Has a Guardian Angel Reaching for God Roberta Werner, 2013 Reaching for God is a compendium of Benedictine life and prayer for oblates It brings together in one volume the essence of Benedictine spirituality its history its relevance through the ages and in the present and a summary of the most fundamental gifts and values it offers for living a meaningful life Here the meaning and purpose of the oblate way of life is explained in a clear and encouraging way Werner offers guidance and examples of prayer to enrich any spiritual life Sister Roberta Werner OSB having worked as a teacher caregiver and educational administrator is now the assistant oblate director at St Benedict's Monastery in St Joseph Minnesota In this role she guides an oblate discussion group contributes to oblate newsletter publications has set up an oblate library and makes the spiritual journey with the many oblates who connect with her and with the monastery in their search for God

Radical Forgiveness Antoinette Bosco, 2009 A woman who has learned to forgive offenses we can hardly imagine teaches us to free ourselves from the anger and resentment that chains us to those who hurt us including our own selves Toni Bosco lost one son to suicide and later another son and his wife to the hands of a murderer Her life since then has been a dramatic journey to radical forgiveness and inner peace In Radical Forgiveness she shares with us what she has learned about life's most difficult and most healing virtue Radical Forgiveness is rooted in the life of Jesus saints and people living today It offers us freedom from the awful angry unforgiving thoughts that gnaw at our consciousness burn us haunt us and won't let us go until we let them go This wise book offers freedom and peace and a leap into gratitude

Craving Hope Joni Woelfel, 2008 Countless books are published each year with the latest advice and hottest tips on how to lose weight but few of them focus on the steadfast anchor of faith and its role in weight loss Joni Woelfel offers her book Craving Hope as a resource of support and strength during the weight loss process Consisting of 90

reflections each containing an opening quote daily progress notes a reflection question inspirational statement brief prayer and daily affirmation to repeat throughout the day Craving Hope is designed to be used in conjunction with a trustworthy weight loss program While this book can be used successfully by individuals research has shown that trying a weight loss program with a friend or small group is typically more successful and the workbook pages with discussion questions make Craving Hope ideal for groups

Caring for the Sick and Elderly Marie Roccapiore, 2003 This book highlights the various ways pastoral care ministers and parish volunteers can reach out to the sick and elderly There are a wealth of ideas here for extending spiritual sacramental and charitable support to parishioners who are homebound in nursing homes or in hospitals For many years Sr Marie Roccapiore has been involved with a parish program called Project H E A L Homebound are Encouraged through Assistance in Love The details of this program are provided in this book along with forms and other reproducible information that will be useful in developing this type of program in your own parish Also included is an extensive listing of resources that are invaluable for ministry with the sick and elderly The creative ideas offered will motivate more involvement among children as well as adults and bring positive results among the sick and elderly recipients who eagerly look forward to the compassionate and loving care of others Personal examples and anecdotes help illustrate the ways that even the simplest gestures of care and concern can make a world of difference in the lives of the infirm

Choosing Mercy Antoinette Bosco, 2001-01-01 Antoinette Bosco's heart was crushed when Shadow Clark murdered her son John and his wife Nancy In time her grief transformed into forgiveness Toni felt that to want one more unnatural death would be wrong I could say that the 18 year old who ended the lives of my children with an 8mm semiautomatic must be punished for life but I could not say kill this killer Toni chose mercy over vengeance and again her life changed forever Today she is widely known as an opponent of capital punishment in this the only modern Western nation that retains executions In telling her dramatic journey she presents compelling arguments why the death penalty does not work and is morally wrong She also shares unforgettable true stories from parents such as Dominick Dunne who suffered through similar experiences but also learned to choose love over fear Choosing Mercy is timely gut honest and inspiring It may not change some people's minds but it will begin to change their hearts

Where Justice and Mercy Meet Vicki Schieber, Trudy D. Conway, David Matzko McCarthy, 2013-02-01 Where Justice and Mercy Meet Catholic Opposition to the Death Penalty comprehensively explores the Catholic stance against capital punishment in new and important ways The broad perspective of this book has been shaped in conversation with the Catholic Mobilizing Network to End the Use of the Death Penalty as well as through the witness of family members of murder victims and the spiritual advisors of condemned inmates The book offers the reader new insight into the debates about capital punishment provides revealing and sometimes surprising information about methods of execution and explores national and international trends and movements related to the death penalty It also addresses how the death penalty has been intertwined with racism the high percentage of the mentally disabled on death row and how the death penalty disproportionately affects the poor The foundation for the church's position on the death penalty is illuminated by discussion of the life and death of Jesus Scripture the Mass the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the teachings of Pope John Paul II Written for concerned Catholics and other interested readers the book contains contemporary stories and examples as well as discussion questions to engage groups in exploring complex issues Genesis 1 Kevin Perrotta, 2010-06 Genesis 1 11 God Makes a Start is an excellent Bible study resource for teens wanting a better understanding of how and why God created the world and why the earliest events of the Bible should matter to us today The stories of Adam and Eve of their sons Cain and Abel of the people who provoked the flood and those who built the tower of Babel all of these stories display our human tendency to overstep our limits as creatures to take control of our lives apart from God to treat one another unjustly The Genesis accounts tell us that our unhappiness stems from our failure to trust and obey our creator Against this background Jesus life and death emerge as a deliberate reversal of the deep rooted human tendency to distrust and disobey God Designed as a guided discovery Six Weeks with the Bible for Catholic Teens introduces high school students to books of the Bible by integrating the biblical text with insightful questions to help youth discern what Scripture means for their lives today The series provides students with a clear explanation of Biblical text opportunities for prayer and a means to enter into conversation with God Alone But Not Lonely Donna E. Schaper, 1999 Here is a series of meditations that help us confront the causes of our loneliness and journey with us to a point of solitude It defines and differentiates loneliness and solitude and shows how solitude can refresh renew and reconnect us to our real lives and to God

Suffering Loss, Seeking Healing Evan Drake Howard, 1996 Here are the words to pray when one may be at a loss for words This book serves as a companion to anyone who must make the lonely traumatic journey of grief because of death divorce separation from family and friends loss of employment physical impairment financial collapse any of the unfortunate circumstances that create pain through loss
