Punishing The Poor The International Isolation Of Kampuchea

Linda Hitchcox

Punishing The Poor The International Isolation Of Kampuchea:

Punishing the Poor Eva Mysliwiec, 1988 Describes the ravages of war and the efforts of the various relief organizations the United Nations Relief Organization among them to palliate the misery and facilitate agricultural and other production

A history of Cambodia-Thailand Diplomatic Relations 1950-2020. Sok Udom Deth, 2020-07-01 This book aims to provide an analysis of Cambodia Thailand diplomatic relations over the past seven decades specifically from 1950 to 2020 While other academic publications have focused on particular aspects of Cambodian Thai relations e g border conflicts or cultural ties this book is the first to cover a comprehensive history of diplomatic relations between the two countries starting from the establishment of official diplomatic ties in 1950 to the present In addition to empirical discussion it seeks to explain why Cambodian Thai relationships have fluctuated and what primary factors caused the shifts during the period discussed In doing so it employs the social conflict analysis which views states not as unitary actors but within which are comprised of different societal forces competing with one another and pursues foreign policies in accordance with their own ideology interest and strategy As such it is postulated that Cambodia Thailand diplomatic relations should not be seen simply as relations between two unitary states cooperating with or securitizing against one another but rather as a matrix of intertwining relationships between various social and political groups in both states harboring competing ideologies and or interests to advance their power positions at home

The Lost Executioner Nic Dunlop, 2009-07-20 Between 1975 and 1979 the seemingly peaceful nation of Cambodia succumbed to one of the most bloodthirsty revolutions in modern history Nearly two million people were killed As head of the Khmer Rouge s secret police Comrade Duch was responsible for the murder of more than 20 000 of them Twenty years later not one member of the Khmer Rouge had been held accountable for what had happened and Comrade Duch had disappeared Photographer Nic Dunlop became obsessed with the idea of finding Duch and shedding light on a secret and brutal world that had been sealed off to outsiders Then by chance he came face to face with him The Lost Executioner describes Dunlop s personal journey to the heart of the Khmer Rouge and his quest to find out what actually happened in Pol Pot s Cambodia and why

Humanitarian Intervention Brendan Simms, D. J. B. Trim, 2011-04-07 The dilemma of how best to protect human rights is one of the most persistent problems facing the international community today This unique and wide ranging history of humanitarian intervention examines responses to oppression persecution and mass atrocities from the emergence of the international state system and international law in the late sixteenth century to the end of the twentieth century Leading scholars show how opposition to tyranny and to religious persecution evolved from notions of the common interests of Christendom to ultimately incorporate all people under the concept of human rights As well as examining specific episodes of intervention the authors consider how these have been perceived and justified over time and offer important new insights into ideas of national sovereignty international relations and law as well as political thought and the development of current theories of international community

Gender and

Global Politics in the Asia-Pacific B. D'Costa, K. Lee-Koo, 2008-12-22 This book demonstrates the integral nature of gendered issues and feminist frameworks for a comprehensive understanding of contemporary IR bringing together the work of feminist scholars teachers and activists into a coherent and accessible collection

Vietnamese Refugees In Southeast Asian Camps Linda Hitchcox, 1990-09-13

Peacebuilding and NGOs Ryerson Christie, 2013 Analysing the relationship between civil society and the state this book lays bare the assumptions informing peacebuilding practices and demonstrates through empirical research how such practices have led to new dynamics of conflict The drive to establish a sustainable liberal peace largely escapes critical examination When such attention is paid to peacebuilding practices scholars tend to concentrate either on the military components of the mission or on the liberal economic reforms This means that the roles of Non Governmental Organizations NGOs and the impact of attempting to nurture Northern forms of civil society is often overlooked Focusing on the case of Cambodia this book seeks to examine the assumptions underlying peacebuilding policies in order to highlight the reliance on a particular linear reading of European North American history The author argues that such policies in fostering a particular form of civil society have affected patterns of conflict dictating when and where politics can occur and who is empowered to participate in such practices Drawing on interviews with NGO representatives and government representatives this volume will assert that while the expansion of civil society may resolve some sources of conflict its introduction has also created new dynamics of contestation This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution development studies S E Asian politics and IR in general

Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2014-12-17 This massive four volume work provides students with a close examination of 10 modern genocides enhanced by documents and introductions that provide additional historical and contemporary context for learning about and understanding these tragic events Modern Genocide The Definitive Resource and Document Collection spans nearly 1 700 pages presented in four volumes and includes more than 120 primary source documents making it ideal for high school and beginning college students studying modern genocide as part of a larger world history curriculum The coverage for each modern genocide from Herero to Darfur begins with an introductory essay that helps students conceptualize the conflict within an international context and enables them to better understand the complex role genocide has played in the modern world There are hundreds of entries on atrocities organizations individuals and other aspects of genocide each written to serve as a springboard to meaningful discussion and further research The coverage of each genocide includes an introductory overview an explanation of the causes consequences perpetrators victims and bystanders the international reaction a timeline of events an Analyze section that poses tough questions for readers to consider and provides scholarly pro and con responses to these historical conundrums and reference entries This integrated examination of genocides occurring in the modern era not only presents an unprecedented research tool on the subject but also challenges the readers to go back and examine other events historically and consequently consider important questions about human society in the present and the future

Social Cohesion and Conflict Prevention in Asia Nat J.

Colletta, Teck Ghee Lim, Anita Kelles-Viitanen, 2001-01-01 This book is based on discussions from the Asian Regional Consultation on Social Cohesion and Conflict Management that was sponsored by the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank Participants speaking in their personal capacity included representatives from government civil society and donor organisations The papers included in this volume cite a multiplicity of traditional obstacles to social cohesion and integration in the region ranging from xenophobic nationalism to poverty socioeconomic disparities gender inequality and ethnic religious and cultural discrimination

Genocide in Cambodia and Rwanda Susan E. Cook, 2017-07-05

This volume deals with aspects of genocide in Rwanda and Cambodia that have been largely unexplored to date including the impact of regional politics and the role played by social institutions in perpetrating genocide Although the story of the Cambodian genocide of 1975 1979 and that of the Rwandan genocide of 1994 have been written about in detail most have focused on how the genocides took place what the ideas and motives were that led extremist factions to attempt to kill whole sections of their country's population and who their victims were This volume builds on our understanding of genocide in Cambodia and Rwanda by bringing new issues sources and approaches into focus The chapters in this book are grouped so that a single theme is explored in both the Cambodian and Rwandan contexts their ordering is designed to facilitate comparative analysis The first three chapters emphasize the importance of political discourse in the genocidal process Chapters 4 and 5 examine social institutions and explore their role in the genocidal process Chapters 6 and 7 describe the military trajectories of the genocidal regimes in Cambodia and Rwanda after their overthrow showing that genocide and genocidal intents as a political program do not cease the moment the massacres subside The final chapters deal with private and public efforts to memorialize the genocides in the months and years following the killing Drawing on ten years of genocide studies at Yale this excellent anthology assembles high quality new research from a variety of continents disciplines and languages It will be an important addition to ongoing research on genocide
