It marked the beginning of a personal pilgrimage of faith. I had no intention of taking it. I thought I was dealing with my parent's remains. As time passed, I realized I had no choice but to take this path. This journey was the only way forward for me. Surprisingly for me, it actually strengthened my faith in God and his ways as taught in the Christian faith, and it's hard to describe how. Once I committed myself to the task, I had to take action. I plunged my hands into their ashes that first day, even though for me it was like plunging my hands into my parent's dead bodies. It was irksome and revolting to me the first time.
