Edward and George Herbert in the European Republic of Letters Greg Miller,Anne-Marie Miller-Blaise,2022-08-09 George Herbert 1593 1633 the celebrated devotional poet and his brother Lord Herbert of Cherbury 1583 1633 often described as the father of English deism are rarely considered together This collection explores connections between the full range of the brothers writings and activities despite the apparent differences both in what they wrote and in how they lived their lives More specifically the volume demonstrates that despite these differences each conceived of their extended republic of letters as militating against a violent and exclusive catholicity theirs was a communion in which contention or disputation served to develop more dynamic forms of comprehensiveness The literary philosophical and musical production of the Herbert brothers appears here in its full European context connected as they were with the Sidney clan and its investment in international Protestantism The disciplinary boundaries between poetry philosophy politics and theology in modern universities are a stark contrast to the deep interconnectedness of these pursuits in the seventeenth century Crossing disciplinary and territorial borders
