Lonrho Portrait Of A Multinational:

Lonrho - Portrait of a multinational S. Cronjé, G. Cronjé, 1973 Lonrho Suzanne Cronjé, Margaret Ling, Gillian Cronjé, 1976 Monograph on the activities and role of UK based multinational enterprise with foreign investments in Africa examines the pattern of industrial integration top management strategy international relations with the OAU and with Arab country activities in Southern Africa etc Map and references Africa and the International System Christopher S. Clapham, 1996-09-12 Paying for the state Understanding World Order and Structural Change H.

Abrahamsson, 2015-12-22 Hans Abrahamsson assesses the current world order and structural change within an historical framework He analyzes the interaction of Pax American and the Bretton Woods system in the postwar period and its impact specifically on the development of Southern Africa The author also proposed an analytical model and a methodological framework for the study of the international political economy and its global and local implications Finally he addresses the circumstances behind the current opportunity for global change and the social forces and political action required in order to seize it The Rise and Decline of the Zairian State Crawford Young, Thomas Edwin Turner, 1985 Zaire apparently strong and stable under President Mobutu in the early 1970s was bankrupt and discredited by the end of that decade beset by hyperinflation and mass corruption the populace forced into abject poverty Why and how in a new african state strategically located in Central Africa and rich in mineral resources did this happen How did the Zairian state become a parasitic predator upon its own people The Labour Monthly Rajani Palme Dutt, 1977 Includes section Book reviews

Imperialism and Transitions to Socialism Rémy Herrera, 2021-09-30 This collection of essays is designed to shed light on the issues of imperialism and the transitions to socialism Delving into the theoretical aspects whose analysis is key for understanding the subject under consideration and practical experiences of socialist transition in China Vietnam North Korea Cuba Venezuela Ecuador and Brazil Kenyan Foreign and Security Policies Kipyego Cheluget, Stephen Wright, 2025-10-16 Kipyego Cheluget and Stephen Wright evaluate the legacy of Kenya's first president Jomo Kenyatta Following a nationalist uprising and brutal colonial repression Kenya became independent in December 1963 With much of the agricultural land still under European settler control Jomo Kenyatta promoted foreign and security policies to balance Kenyan African and settler interests attracting foreign investment into the new country Kenyatta's programs however favored the West and established a growing need for British and American security guarantees to sustain Kenya in an increasingly unstable Eastern African region In this book Cheluget and Wright show that despite the growing pressures within Kenyan civil society for diversification of policies and redistribution of economic wealth Kenyatta consistently maintained pro western policies until his death in 1978 This book is split into 3 parts Part I discusses the growth of Kenyan nationalism the end of the colonial era and the birth of the Kenyan State Part II considers the political economy and development strategies of the Kenyan State Part III assesses the degree of continuity of the succeeding leadership portrayed from the Jomo Kenyatta presidency Through this detailed analysis the authors examine Kenyatta's policies and examine how successive Kenyan presidents have largely maintained his policies and venerated his legacy Merchants to Multinationals Geoffrey Jones, 2002-03-07 Merchants to Multinationals examines the evolution of multinational trading companies from the eighteenth century to the present day During the Industrial Revolution British merchants established overseas branches which became major trade intermediaries and subsequently engaged in foreign direct investment Complex multinational business groups emerged controlling large investments in natural resources processing and services in Asia Latin America and Africa While theories of the firm predict the demise over time of merchant firms this book identifies the continued resilience of British trading companies despite the changing political and business environments of the twentieth century Like Japanese trading companies they re-invented themselves in successive generations The competences of the trading companies resided in their information gathering relationship building human resource and corporate governance systems This book provides a new dimension to the literature on international business through the focus on multinational service firms and its evolutionary approach based on confidential business records LM, Labour Monthly, 1977 The Third Portuguese Empire, 1825-1975 W. G. Clarence-Smith, 1985 Colonialism Melvin E. Page, 2003-09-16 The most exhaustive reference work available on this critical subject in world history focusing on the politics economy culture and society of both colonizers and colonized The history of the last 500 years is the history of imperialism writes editor Melvin Page In the Americas as a result of imperialist conquest disease famine and war nearly wiped out a population estimated in the tens of millions Africa was devastated by the slave trade an integral part of imperialism from the 1400s to the 1800s In Asia even though native populations survived native political institutions were destroyed Imperialism also forged the two most important ideologies of the last five centuries racialism and modern nationalism In more than 600 essays presented in this three volume encyclopedia Page and other leading scholars historians political scientists economists and sociologists analyze the origins of imperialism the many forms it took and its impact worldwide They also explore imperialism's bitter legacy the gross inequities of global wealth and power that divide the former conquerors primarily Europe the United States and Japan from the people they conquered Making Of A Sugar Giant Philippe Chalmin, Erica E. Long-Michalke, 2022-02-22 First Published in 1990 This is a revised and updated second version for English translation from French by Erica E Long Michalke Sugar provides a fascinating example of an international commodity and this book deals with the history both of a multinational company and of the world sugar economy It describes the emergence in the nineteenth century of the two family companies of Henry Tate and Abram Lyle By 1914 they were the largest and most prosperous sugar refining businesses in the British Empire In 1921 they amalgamated and became after the Second World War pre-eminent in the world sugar economy The book's final chapter covers the company's most recent acquisitions and demonstrates the management strategy of Tate Lyle in its relations with the developed and developing worlds A History of Malawi,

1859-1966 John McCracken, 2012 This title features a general history of Malawi focusing mainly on the colonial period when it was known as Nyassaland but placing that period in the context of the pre colonial past ZANU (PF) and Economic Independence Cain Mathema, 1994 The Making of a Sugar Giant Philippe Chalmin, 1990 First Published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Executive, 1999 Postcolonial Transition and Global Business History Stephanie Decker, 2022-11-30 British multinationals faced unprecedented challenges to their organizational legitimacy in the middle of the twentieth century as the European colonial empires were dismantled and institutional transformations changed colonial relationships in Africa and other parts of the world This book investigates the political networking and internal organizational changes in five British multinationals United Africa Company John Holt Co Ashanti Goldfields Corporation Bank of West Africa and Barclays Bank DCO These firms were forced to adapt their strategies and operations to changing institutional environments in two English speaking West African countries Ghana formerly the Gold Coast and Nigeria from the late 1940s to the late 1970s Decolonization meant that formerly imperial businesses needed to develop new political networks and change their internal organization and staffing to promote more Africans to managerial roles This postcolonial transition culminated in indigenization programmes and targeted nationalizations which forced foreign companies to sell equity and assets to domestic investors in the 1970s Postcolonial Transition and Global Business History is the first in depth historical study on how British firms sought to adapt over several decades to rapid political and economic transformation in West Africa Exploring both postcolonial transitions and development discourse this book addresses the topics with regard to business and economic history and will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of organizational change political economy African studies and globalization Corporate Collapse Frank Clarke, Graeme Dean, Kyle Oliver, 2003-04-07 This revised edition of Clarke Dean and Oliver's provocative book tells why accounting has failed to deliver the truth about a company's state of affairs or to give warning of its drift towards failure A number of well known cases of corporate collapse from the 1960s to the 1990s and beyond are studied and the recent HIH and One Tel collapses are examined Corporate Collapse is essential reading for professional accountants and auditors company directors and managers regulators corporate lawyers investors and everyone aspiring to join their ranks

Colonialism, Class Formation, and Underdevelopment in Sierra Leone Elphas G. Mukonoweshuro, 1993 This study examines from a materialist perspective the socio economic historical and political factors contributing to the political instability and underdevelopment of Sierra Leone Tools of analysis from different methodological perspectives such as class and ethnicity are critically reviewed and utilized in the analysis and identification of colonial class formation the behavior of political groups and their economic bases The emphasis is on the dominant colonial social forces that shaped the evolution and development of the decolonization process including the formation of colonial social classes colonial state and the political relation that developed
