Looking Within Nancy Morejón, 2003 A bilingual edition of poetry from an important Cuban poet

The Necropolitical Theater Jeffrey K. Coleman, 2020-05-15 The Necropolitical Theater Race and Immigration on the Contemporary Spanish Stage demonstrates how theatrical production in Spain since the early 1990s has reflected national anxieties about immigration and race Jeffrey K Coleman argues that Spain has developed a necropolitical theater that casts the non European immigrant as fictionalized enemy one whose nonwhiteness is incompatible with Spanish national identity and therefore poses a threat to the very Europeaness of Spain The fate of the immigrant in the necropolitical theater is death either physical or metaphysical which preserves the status quo and provides catharsis for the spectator faced with the notion of racial diversity Marginalization forced assimilation and physical death are outcomes suffered by Latin American North African and sub Saharan African characters respectively and in these differential outcomes determined by skin color Coleman identifies an inherent racial hierarchy informed by the legacies of colonization and religious intolerance Drawing on theatrical texts performances legal documents interviews and critical reviews this book challenges Spanish theater to develop a new theatrical space Jeffrey K Coleman proposes a convivial theater that portrays immigrants as contributors to the Spanish state and better represents the multicultural reality of the nation today

The Whole Island Mark Weiss, 2009-11-25 Cuba s cultural influence throughout the Western Hemisphere and especially in the United States has been disproportionally large for so small a country This landmark volume is the first comprehensive overview of poetry written over the past sixty years Presented in a beautiful Spanish English en face edition The Whole Island makes available the astonishing achievement of a wide range of Cuban poets including such well known figures as Nicol s Guill n Jos Lezama Lima and Nancy Morej n but also poets widely read in Spanish who remain almost unknown to the English speaking world among them Fina Garc a Marruz Jos Kozar Ra l Hern ndez Nov s and ngel Escobar and poets born since the Revolution like Rogelio Saunders Omar P rez Alessandra Molina and Javier Marim n The translations almost all of them new convey the intensity and beauty of the accompanying Spanish originals With their work deeply rooted in Cuban culture many of these poets both on and off the island have been at the center of the political and social changes of this tempestuous period The poems offered here constitute an essential source for understanding the literature and culture of Cuba its diaspora and the Caribbean at large and provide an unparalleled perspective on what it means to be Cuban

Liberation Memories Keith Gilyard, 2003 Seeking to strengthen our understanding of this important literary figure Keith Gilyard departs from standard critical frameworks to reveal Killens's novels as artful renderings of rich African American rhetorical forms and verbal traditions

Black Women as Custodians of History: Unsung Rebel (M)Others in African American and Afro-Cuban Women's Writing Paula Sanmartin, 2014-03-28 This book is an essential addition to the study of comparative black literature of the Americas it will also fill the gap that exists on theoretical studies exploring black women's writing from the Spanish Caribbean This book examines literary representations of the historic roots of black women's resistance in the United States and Cuba by studying the following texts by both African American and Afro Cuban women from four different literary genres autobiographical slave narrative contemporary novel on slavery testimonial narrative and poetry Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl 1861 by the African American former slave Harriet Jacobs Dessa Rose 1986 by the African American writer Sherley Ann Williams Reyita sencillamente testimonio de una negra cubana nonagenarian Simply Reyita Testimonial Narrative of a Nonagenarian Black Cuban Woman 1996 written transcribed by the Afro Cuban historian Daisy Rubiera Castillo from her interviews with her mother Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Reyita and a selection of poems from the contemporary Afro Cuban poets Nancy Morej n and Georgina Herrera The study argues that the writers participate in black women's self inscription in the historical process by positioning themselves as subjects of their history and seizing discursive control of their histories. Although the texts form part of separate discourses, the book explores the commonalities of the rhetorical devices and narrative strategies employed by the authors as they disassemble racist and sexist stereotypes, reconstructing black female subjectivity through an image of active resistance against oppression, one that authorizes unconventional definitions of womanhood and motherhood. The book shows that in the women's revisions of national history, their writings also demonstrate the pervasive role of racial and gender categories in the creation of a discourse of national identity while promoting a historiography constructed within flexible borders that need to be negotiated constantly. The study's engagement in crosscultural exploration constitutes a step further in opening connections with a comparative literary study that is theoretically engaging in order to include Afro-Cuban women writers and Afro-Caribbean scholars into scholarly discussions in which African American women have already managed to participate with a series of critical texts. The book explores connections between methods and perspectives derived from Western theories and from Caribbean and Black studies while recognizing the black women authors studied as critics and scholars. In this sense, the book includes some of the writers' own commentaries about their work taken from interviews, many of them conducted by the author Paula Sanmartín herself, as well as critical essays and letters. Black Women as Custodians of History adds a new dimension to the body of existing criticism by challenging the ways assumptions have shaped how literature is read by black women writers. Paula Sanmartín's study is a vivid demonstration of the strengths of embarking on multidisciplinary study. This book will be useful to several disciplines and areas of study such as African diaspora studies, African American studies, Afro-Latin American and Afro-Caribbean studies, women's studies, genre studies, and slavery studies.

Expressivity in Modern Poetry Donald Wellman, 2019-02-26 Expressivity in Modern Poetry explores three interrelated subjects. The first is a general exposition of the radical or deeply realistic aspects of the poetry and visual arts of the modern period. The focus is on the works of Ezra Pound as understood through a prism of postmodern thought. The second subject is the poetry and poetics of Charles Olson, a pivotal figure during the transition from modernism to postmodernism. The third subject is contemporary innovative poetry with special attention to transcultural, neobarroco, and language-centered aspects of composition. The grounding for this section is found in the works of William Carlos Williams, Aimé Césaire, and José Lezama Lima. A reversal of the relation between the center and periphery, decentering the New York to Paris vector, is crucial for understanding the Caribbean as a seedbed for both innovative and identity-based poetics. Wellman's purpose is to amplify the cultural importance of expressivity in a field where critical discussion is often dominated by constructivism and conceptualism. Expressivity in Modern Poetry offers a new reading of the relation between twentieth-century modernism and contemporary poetic practice.

Black Writing, Culture, and the State in Latin America Jerome C. Branche, 2021-04-30 Imagine the tension that existed between the emerging nations and governments throughout the Latin American world and the cultural life of former enslaved Africans and their descendants. A world of cultural production in the form of literature poetry art music and eventually film would often simultaneously contravene or cooperate with the newly established order of Latin American nations negotiating independence and a new political and cultural balance In Black Writing Culture and the State in Latin America Jerome Branche presents the reader with the complex landscape of art and literature among Afro Hispanic and Latin artists Branche and his contributors describe individuals such as Juan Francisco Manzano who wrote an autobiography on the slave experience in Cuba during the nineteenth century The reader finds a thriving Afro Hispanic theatrical presence throughout Latin America and even across the Atlantic The role of black women in poetry and literature comes to the forefront in the Caribbean presenting a powerful reminder of the diversity that defines the region All too often the disciplines of film studies literary criticism and art history ignore the opportunity to collaborate in a dialogue Branche and his contributors present a unified approach however suggesting that cultural production should not be viewed narrowly especially when studying the achievements of the Afro Latin world White Nationalism, Black Interests

Ronald W. Walters, 2003 A study of the most racially conscious aspect of the Conservative movement and its impact on politics and current public policy The rise of the Conservative movement in the United States over the last two decades is evident in current public policy including the passage of the Welfare Reform Act the weakening of affirmative action and the approval of educational vouchers for private schooling At the same time new rules on congressional redistricting prohibit legislators from constructing majority black congressional districts and blacks continue to suffer disproportionate rates of incarceration and death penalty sentencing In this significant new study the distinguished political scientist Ronald W Walters argues that the Conservative movement during this period has had an inordinate impact on American governing institutions and that a strong though very often unstated racial hostility drives the public policies put forth by Conservative politicians Walters traces the emergence of what he calls a new White Nationalism showing how it fuels the Conservative movement invades the public discourse and generates policies that protect the interests of white voters at the expense of blacks and other nonwhites Using historical and contemporary examples of White Nationalist policy as well as empirical public opinion data Walters demonstrates the degree to which this ideology exists among white voters and the negative impact of its policies on the black community White Nationalism Black Interests terms the current period a second Reconstruction comparing the racial dynamics in the post Civil Rights era to those of the first Reconstruction following the end of the Civil War Walters s analysis of contemporary racial politics is uniquely valuable to scholars and lay readers alike and is sure to spark further public debate What Mama Said Osonye Tess Onwueme, 2003 An explosive political drama projecting an African people s revolutionary struggle to confront government forces and foreign oil corporations that have ravaged their land and strangled the voices of their mothers and daughters

Churches and Urban Government in Detroit and New York, 1895-1994 Henry J. Pratt, 2004 Annotation The first book to examine the relationship between church organizations and urban politics Guarding Cultural Memory Flora María González Mandri, 2006 In Guarding

Cultural Memory Flora Gonz lez Mandri examines the vibrant and uniquely illuminating post Revolutionary creative endeavors of Afro Cuban women Taking on the question of how African diaspora cultures practice remembrance she reveals the ways in which these artists restage the confrontations between modernity and tradition Gonz lez Mandri considers the work of the poet and cultural critic Nancy Morej n the poet Excilia Salda a the filmmaker Gloria Rolando and the artists Mar a Magdalena Campos Pons and Belkis Ay n In their cultural representations these women conflate the artistic the historical and the personal to produce a transformative image of the black woman as a forger of Cuban culture They achieve this in several ways by redefining autobiography as a creative expression for the convergence of the domestic and the national by countering the eroticized image of the mulatta in favor of a mythical conception of the female body as a site for the engraving of cultural and national conflicts and resolutions and by valorizing certain aesthetic and religious traditions in relation to a postmodern artistic sensibility Placing these artists in their historical context Gonz lez Mandri shows how their accomplishments were consistently silenced in official Cuban history and culture and explores the strategies through which culturally censored memories survived and continue to survive in a Caribbean country purported to have integrated its Hispanic and African peoples and heritages into a Cuban identity The picture that finally emerges is one not only of exceptional artistic achievement but also of successful redefinitions of concepts of race gender and nation in the face of almost insurmountable cultural odds AfroLatinas and LatiNegras Concetta Bondi, Rosita Scerbo, 2022-11-28

AfroLatinas as a subject of scholarship are woefully underrepresented and this edited volume AfroLatinas and LatiNegras Culture Identity and Struggle from an Intersectional Perspective offers an important and timely intervention The consistent attention to AfroLatinas agency across all the chapters is empowering and attentive to the difficult circumstances of asserting that agency and to the tremendous breadth of what agency can look like The authors argue for the analytical power of the concept of Intersectionality while considering the hegemonic pressures on AfroLatinidad and the essentializing moves that an intersectional approach enables evading overthrowing and resisting systems of power Through the study of multiple cultural expressions of Blackness such as photography colonial inquisition records dance music fiction non fiction poetic memoir and religious expression and throughout different region of the Americas the chapter contributors of this book consider the relationship that social and historical processes such as sovereignty and colonialism have on narrative and cultural production Rosita Scerbo Concetta Bondi and the contributors acknowledge that racial and gender equity cannot exist without Intersectionality and the inclusion of activist voices broadens this volume s reach and links theory to praxis

Poetics of Race in Latin America Mabel Moraña, 2022-06-14 Poetics of Race constitutes a critically and theoretically innovative analysis of racial and ethnic dynamics in Latin America and their symbolic artistic ideological representation The book illustrates the relevance of cultural and racial minorities in different national contexts particularly in Mexico Brazil the Andean region and the Caribbean through the study of literary filmic and visual productions that depict otherness marginalization and popular resistance The book focuses on negritude indigenous cultures andinismo performance and cinematic discourses in which racial issues are displayed elaborated and symbolized The various critical approaches utilized in this volume also contribute to expand methodological horizons in the field while contributing to widening the corpus of literary texts and cultural practices in this area of studies
