

An abstract sculpture featuring flowing, translucent green and white forms against a dark background. The forms appear to be made of a material like glass or polished stone, with smooth, curved surfaces that catch the light. The composition is dynamic, with the forms curving and overlapping, creating a sense of movement and depth. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the edges and curves of the sculpture. The title "Moving Beauty" is written in a cursive font at the top right.

Automotive Prosthetic Charissa N. Terranova, 2014-01-15 In the twenty first century we are continually confronted with the existential side of technology the relationships between identity and the mechanizations that have become extensions of the self Focusing on one of humanity's most ubiquitous machines Automotive Prosthetic Technological Mediation and the Car in Conceptual Art combines critical theory and new media theory to form the first philosophical analysis of the car within works of conceptual art These works are broadly defined to encompass a wide range of creative expressions particularly in car based conceptual art by both older established artists and younger emerging artists including Ed Ruscha Martha Rosler Richard Prince Sylvie Fleury Yael Bartana Jeremy Deller and Jonathan Schipper At its core the book offers an alternative formation of conceptual art understood according to technology the body moving through space and what art historian curator and artist Jack Burnham calls relations This thought provoking study illuminates the ways in which the automobile becomes a naturalized extension of the human body incarnating new forms of car art and spurring a technological reframing of conceptual art Steeped in a sophisticated take on the image and semiotics of the car the chapters probe the politics of materialism as well as high low debates about taste culture and art The result is a highly innovative approach to contemporary intersections of art and technology

Art Deco and British Car Design Barrie Down, 2010 This is a book about automotive styling in particular the streamlined styling that defined what are now known as Airline cars During the mid 1930s the majority of British car manufacturers and coachbuilders experimented with streamlined styling This fashion was the result of Art Deco an international movement that influenced design and marketing in many different industries and produced some of the most unique and visually exhilarating cars ever produced in Britain Part One of the book explains and illustrates the Art Deco styling elements that link these streamlined car designs and describes their development their commonality and their unique aeronautical names The stories of the individual cars their designers and their development are told in Part Two Here Barrie Down has collected examples of all the significant British streamlined production cars made between 1933 and 1936 many of them still represented by beautifully restored survivors The book is well illustrated with over 200 contemporary pictures and colour photographs of existing cars many of which have never before been published This book is an instructive and visual feast for all car lovers

Alternative Cars in the 21st Century Robert Q Riley, 2003-10-17 The rapidly changing landscape of alternative car technologies created the need for the second edition of Alternative Cars in the 21st Century A New Personal Transportation Paradigm This essential publication provides an abundance of critical knowledge for engineering professionals and consumers alike offering a brighter alternative future through better alternative cars in the Twentieth Century Gregory Votolato,1998 Author Greg Votolato presents the intricate story of how design evolved as a profession and a leisure activity Votolato demonstrates that design in affluent American culture is as much about personalization of the material world as it is about the performance and appearance of manufactured goods 114 illustrations

American Design

The Routledge Companion to Twentieth and Early Twenty-First Century Urban Design Jon Lang,2020-11-09 The Routledge Companion to Twentieth and Early Twenty First Century Urban Design is a fully illustrated descriptive and explanatory history of the development of urban design ideas and paradigms of the past 150 years The ideas and projects hypothetical and built range in scale from the city to the urban block level The focus is on where the generic ideas originated the projects that were designed following their precepts the functions they address and or afford and what we can learn from them The morphology of a city its built environment evolves unselfconsciously as private and governmental investors self consciously erect buildings and infrastructure in a pragmatic piecemeal manner to meet their own ends Philosophers novelists architects and social scientists have produced myriad ideas about the nature of the built environment that they consider to be superior to those forms resulting from a laissez faire attitude to urban development Rationalist theorists dream of ideal futures based on assumptions about what is good empiricists draw inspirations from what they perceive to be working well in existing situations Both groups have presented their advocacies in manifestoes and often in the form of generic solutions or illustrative designs This book traces the history of these ideas and will become a standard reference for scholars and students interested in the history of urban spaces including architects planners urban historians urban geographers and urban morphologists

Shifting Mobility Dewan Masud Karim,2023-12-01 In the face of resource depletion environmental changes lifestyle changes demographic and digital adaptation old ideologies of city building and expensive and complex automobility solutions are in freefall These changes are creating severe friction between the old and new paradigms This book provides new perspectives through the process of ideological disassociation and concepts of human mobility code The basic premise of the book human mobility is an essential component of our creativity that comes from our unconscious desire to become a part of a community Several new concepts in the book starts with the hallmark of new discovery of human mobility code and its implications of urban mobility boundary systems to stay within safe planetary zone A new discovery of human mobility code from comprehensive research finding prove that each individual develops a unique mobility footprint and become our mobility identity Beyond individual hallmarks human develops collective mobility codes through interaction with the third space on which entire mobility systems lie and are created by the fundamentals of city planning and the design process Readers are introduced to an innovative mobility planning process and reinvention of multimodal mobility approaches based on new mobility code while formulating new concepts practical solutions and implementation techniques tools policies and processes to reinforce low carbon mobility options while addressing social equity environmental and health benefits Finally the book arms us with knowledge to prevent the disaster of full technological enlightenment against our natural human mobility code Rural Modernity, Everyday Life and Visual Culture Rosemary Shirley, 2016-03-03

Through the lens of the everyday this book explores the countryside as an inhabited and practised realm with lived rhythms and routines It relocates the topography of everyday life from its habitually urban focus out into the English countryside The rural is often portrayed as existing outside of modernity or as its passive victim Here the rural is recast as an active and complex site of modernity a shift which contributes alternative ways of thinking the rural and a new perspective on the everyday In each chapter pieces of visual culture including scrapbooks art works adverts photographs and films are presented as tools of analysis which articulate how aspects of the everyday might operate differently in non metropolitan places The book features new readings of the work of significant artists and photographers such as Jeremy Deller and Alan Kane Stephen Willats Anna Fox Andrew Cross Tony Ray Jones and Homer Sykes seen through this rural lens together with analysis of visually fascinating archival materials including early Shell Guides and rarely seen scrapbooks made by the Women s Institute Combining everyday life rural modernity and visual cultures this book is able to uncover new and different stories about the English countryside and contribute significantly to current thinking on everyday life rural geographies and visual cultures Design Research in Architecture Professor Murray Fraser, 2013-12-31

This volume provides a broad overview on design research that supports and amplifies the different volumes coming out in Ashgate s major new series Design Research in Architecture It raises the central question what is the role of design research in the types of insight and knowledge that architects create and brings together leading architects and academics to discuss the more general issues involved in design research At the end there is an Indicative Bibliography which alludes to a long history of architectural books which can be seen as being in the spirit of design research

Designing the American Century Thomas J. Campanella, 2025-06-10 A richly illustrated look at the lives and collaborations of two unsung giants of American landscape and urban design Gilmore D Clarke and Michael Rapuano were the foremost spatial designers of the American century Their vast portfolio of public landscapes propelled the legacy of Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux into the motor age touching the lives of millions and changing the face of the nation Designing the American Century recovers the forgotten legacy of Clarke and Rapuano whose parks and parkways highways and housing estates helped modernize for better or worse the American metropolis With the patronage of public works titan Robert Moses Clarke and Rapuano transformed New York over a span of fifty years revitalizing the city s immense park system but also planning expressways public housing and urban renewal projects that laid waste to entire sections of the city In this groundbreaking work Thomas J Campanella describes how Clarke and Rapuano helped create some of the metropolitan region s most iconic landscapes from the Central Park Zoo and Conservatory Garden to the Henry Hudson Parkway and Riverside Park Jones Beach the Palisades and Taconic State Parkways and the Brooklyn Heights Promenade He shows how they left their mark far beyond Gotham as well with projects as diverse as Yellowstone s Mammoth Hot Springs the Mount Vernon Memorial Highway site plans for the Pentagon and CIA headquarters and Montreal s Olympic Park Richly illustrated with a wealth of previously unpublished drawings plans and photographs Designing the American Century fills one of the last major gaps in the history of American urbanism Moving Picture World and View Photographer ,1915

Designing Modern America Christopher Innes, 2008-10-01 From the 1920s through the 1950s two individuals Joseph Urban and Norman Bel Geddes did more by far to create the image of America and make it synonymous with modernity than any of their contemporaries Urban and Bel Geddes were leading Broadway stage designers and directors who turned their prodigious talents to other projects becoming mavericks first in industrial design and then in commercial design fashion architecture and more The two men gave shape to the most quintessential symbols of the modern American lifestyle including movies cars department stores and nightclubs along with private homes kitchens stoves fridges magazines and numerous household furnishings Illustrated with more than 130 photographs of their influential designs this book tells the engrossing story of Urban and Bel Geddes Christopher Innes shows how these two men with a background in theater lent dramatic flair to everything they designed and how this theatricality gave the distinctive modernity they created such wide appeal If the American lifestyle has been much imitated across the globe over the past fifty years says Innes it is due in large measure to the designs of Urban and Bel Geddes Together they were responsible for creating what has been called the Golden Age of American culture Proceedings; Second Conference on Engineering Design Education, September 5, 6, 7, 1962 ,1962 Fashion, Design and Events Kim Williams, Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2013-12-17 The importance of fashion and design in an events context remains under researched despite their ubiquity and significance from a societal and economic perspective Fashion themed events for example appeal to broad audiences and may tour the globe Staging these events might help to brand destinations boost visitor numbers and trigger popular debates about the contributions that fashion and design can make to identity They may also tell us something about our culture and wider society This edited volume for the first time examines fashion and design events from a social perspective including the meanings they bestow and their potential economic cultural and personal impacts It explores the reasons for their popularity and influence and provides a critique of their growth in different markets Events examined include fashion weeks fashion or design themed exhibitions historical re enactments extreme alternative fashion and design events and large scale public events such as royal weddings and horse races International examples and case studies are drawn from countries as diverse as the USA UK Germany Bhutan New Zealand and Australia These are used to develop and critique various thematic concepts linked to fashion and design events such as identity gender aspirations and self image commodification authenticity destination development and marketing business strategy and protection infringement of intellectual property Fashion Design and Events also provides a futurist view of these types of events and sets out a future research agenda This book has a unique focus on events associated with fashion and design and features a swathe of disciplinary backgrounds It will appeal to a broad academic audience such as students of art and design cultural studies tourism events studies sociology and marketing
