Myths Of Motherhood How Culture Reinvents The Good Mother Myths Of Motherhood:

Myths of Motherhood Sherry Thurer,1995-05-01 This groundbreaking and irreverent history of motherhood is worth a hundred advice books for any mother who's ever been made to feel guilty or frazzled by society's impossible expectations. Analyzing data from the psychoanalyst's couch to the hidden history of wet nursing, psychologist Shari L. Thurer wends her way from the Stone Age to the age of Hillary Rodham Clinton, painting a vivid, often frightening picture of life for mothers and children in a time when their roles were constructed by men. Along the way, she debunks myth after myth, exposing the not-so-golden ages of Classical Greece and the Italian Renaissance and revealing the pervasive ideal of Dr. Spock's selfless stay-at-home mother as the historical aberration it actually was. A work of impassioned scholarship and astonishing range, The Myths of Motherhood does nothing less than recast our conception of good mothering.

The Motherhood Business Anne Teresa Demo, Jennifer L. Borda, Charlotte H. Kroløkke,2015-11-13 The essays in The Motherhood Business examine how consumer culture both constrains and empowers contemporary motherhood. The collection demonstrates that the logic of consumerism and entrepreneurship has redefined both the experience of mothering and the marketplace.

Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2010-04-06 In the last decade, the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry. A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable. The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three-volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical, historical, and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions. In human society, few institutions are as important as motherhood, and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference. The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences.

Bad Mothers: Regulations, Representations and Resistance Hughes Michelle Miller,2017-03-01 While the image or construct of the good mother has been the focus of many research projects, the bad mother as a discursive construct, and also mothers who do bad things as complicated agentic social actors, have been quite neglected despite the prevalence of the image of the bad mother across late modern societies. The few researchers who address this powerful social image point out that bad mothers are culturally identified by what they do, yet they are also socially recognized by who they are. Mothers become potentially bad when they behave or express opinions that diverge from or challenge social or gender norms, or when they deviate from mainstream white middle-class heterosexual nondisabled normativity. When suspected of being bad mothers, women are surveilled and may be disciplined, punished, or otherwise excluded by various official agents, i.e. legal, medical, and welfare institutions, as well as by their relatives, friends, and communities. Too often, women are judged and punished without clear evidence that they are neglecting or abusing their children. Frequently, they are blamed for the marginal sociocultural context in which they are mothering This anthology presents empirical theoretical and creative works that address the construct of the bad mother and the lived realities of mothers labeled as bad Throughout the volume the editors consider voices and acts of resistance to bad mother constructions demonstrating that mothers across time and across domains have individually and collectively taken a stand against this destructive label

The Women's National Indian Association Valerie Sherer Mathes, 2015-04-15 Mathes's edited volume the first book to address the history of the WNIA comprises essays by eight authors on the work of this important reform group

Mothers in Children's and Young Adult Literature Lisa Rowe Fraustino, Karen Coats, 2016-05-05 Winner of the Children's Literature Association's 2018 Edited Book Award Contributions by Robin Calland Lauren Causey Karen Coats Sara K Day Lisa Rowe Fraustino Dorina K Lazo Gilmore Anna Katrina Gutierrez Adrienne Kertzer Kouen Kim Alexandra Kotanko Jennifer Mitchell Mary Jeanette Moran Julie Pfeiffer and Donelle Ruwe

Living or dead present or absent sadly dysfunctional or merrily adequate the figure of the mother bears enormous freight across a child's emotional and intellectual life Given the vital role literary mothers play in books for young readers it is remarkable how little scholarly attention has been paid to the representation of mothers outside of fairy tales and beyond studies of gender stereotypes This collection of thirteen essays begins to fill a critical gap by bringing together a range of theoretical perspectives by a rich mix of senior scholars and new voices Following an introduction in which the coeditors describe key trends in interdisciplinary scholarship the book's first section focuses on the pedagogical roots of maternal influence in early children's literature The next section explores the shifting cultural perspectives and subjectivities of the twentieth century The third section examines the interplay of fantasy reality and the ethical dimensions of literary mothers The collection ends with readings of postfeminist motherhood from contemporary realism to dystopian fantasy The range of critical approaches in this volume will provide multiple inroads for scholars to investigate richer readings of mothers in children's and young adult literature

Mental Illness in Popular Media Lawrence C. Rubin, 2014-01-10 Whether in movies cartoons commercials or even fast food marketing psychology and mental illness remain pervasive in popular culture In this collection of new essays scholars from a range of fields explore representations of mental illness and disabilities across various media of popular culture Contributors address how forms of psychiatric disorder have been addressed in film on stage and in literature how popular culture genres are utilized to communicate often confusing and conflicted relationships with the mentally ill and how popular cultures around the world reflect mental illness and disability Analyses of sources as disparate as the Batman films Broadway musicals and Nigerian home movies reveal how definitions of mental illness mental health and of psychology itself intersect with discourses on race gender law capitalism and globalization

Migrant Mothers in the Digital Age Leah Williams Veazey,2021-05-03

This book explores the experiences of migrant mothers through the lens of the online communities they have created and participate in Examining the ways in which migrant mothers build relationships with each other through these online communities and find ways to make a place for themselves and their families in a new country it highlights the often overlooked labour that goes into sustaining these groups and facilitating these new relationships and spaces of trust Through the concept of digital community mothering the author draws links to Black feminist scholarship that has shed light on the kinds of mothering that exist beyond the mother child dyad Providing new insights into the experiences of women who mother away from home in this contemporary digital age this volume explores the concepts of imagined maternal communities personal maternal narratives and migrant maternal imaginaries highlighting the ways in which migrant mothers imagine themselves within local national and diasporic maternal communities As such it will appeal to scholars and students with interests in migration and diaspora studies contemporary motherhood and the sociology of the family and modern forms of online sociality Winner of The Australian Sociological Association Raewyn Connell Prize for best first book published in Australian sociology 2020 2021 Family Trouble Ara Francis, 2015-09-18 Our children mean the world to us They are so central to our hopes and dreams that we will do almost anything to keep them healthy happy and safe What happens then when a child has serious problems In Family Trouble a compelling portrait of upheaval in family life sociologist Ara Francis tells the stories of middle class men and women whose children face significant medical psychological and social challenges Francis interviewed the mothers and fathers of children with such problems as depression bi polar disorder autism learning disabilities drug addiction alcoholism fetal alcohol syndrome and cerebral palsy Children s problems she finds profoundly upset the foundations of parents everyday lives overturning taken for granted expectations daily routines and personal relationships Indeed these problems initiated a chain of disruption that moved through parents lives in domino like fashion culminating in a crisis characterized by uncertainty loneliness guilt grief and anxiety Francis looks at how mothers and fathers often differ in their interpretation of a child s condition discusses the gendered nature of child rearing and describes how parents struggle to find effective treatments and to successfully navigate medical and educational bureaucracies But above all Family Trouble examines how children s problems disrupt middle class dreams of the normal family It captures how children s problems radiate and spill over into other areas of parents lives wreaking havoc even on their identities leading them to reevaluate deeply held assumptions about their own sense of self and what it means to achieve the good life Engagingly written Family Trouble offers insight to professionals and solace to parents The book offers a clear message to anyone in the throes of family trouble you are in good company and you are not as different as you might feel

Narratives of Mothering Gill Rye, 2009 Mothers have been both idealized and demonized in Western cultures With Simone de Beauvoir s feminist analysis of motherhood in The Second Sex as her point of departure Rye Germanic and Romance studies U of London studies how French autobiographical and fictional narratives of mothering since 1990 differ from those told about them In the context of societal changes she explores themes including loss and trauma related to childbirth literally and figuratively ambivalence and guilt power and powerlessness and lesbian and single parenting in the works of Christine Angot Genevieve Brisac Marie Darrieussecq Camille Laurens Leila Marouane and Marie Ndiaye among others

Transformative Power in Motherwork Marie Porter, 2021-02-03 This book explores the experiences of a group of Australian women who became first time mothers between 1950 and 1965 A grounded theory of transformative power in motherwork is presented that has emerged from the analysis of interviews The mothers talked about what they did in their active mothering years The author argues that despite being constrained by the gender bias in the patriarchal context these mothers were agents who developed skills that enabled them to resist or creatively deal with most of the constraints they faced Their emphasis was on their agency and the power to nurture their children into responsible adults Their awareness of the importance of their motherwork acted as a motivator in this development The author further argues that the relationship between each mother and each of her children is a transformative power relationship in which both mother and child are transformed the child into an independent adult and the mother into a skilled self motivated agent through her motherwork Any threat to this process resulted in the mother doing all she could to resist or counteract the constraints she was encountering Transformative power expressed in motherwork can be recognised analytically by several characteristics It empowers both parties in the mother child duality Complexity diversity fluidity and responsiveness to the physical intellectual and emotional aspects of the relationship are all evident in transformative power relationships Mothers of Heroes, Mothers of Martyrs Suzanne Evans, 2007-02-09 Maternal love is considered the most unconditional form of love yet mothers have been prepared to sacrifice their children or to see them sacrificed for a noble cause Mothers of Heroes Mothers of Martyrs shows that across cultures and historical eras in times of great stress societies will channel all their resources even maternal love and grief toward a common cause Mothers and Children Susan E. Chase, Mary Frances Rogers, 2001 Motherhood is a highly personal array of experiences with a uniquely public dimension preoccupying policymakers advice givers health care providers religious leaders child care workers educators and total strangers who feel entitled to judge mothers they see with their children in the neighborhood or on the TV news Chase U of Tulsa and Rogers U of West Florida approach motherhood and mothering as feminist sociologists focusing on questions such as how ideas about motherhood are shaped by social and historical conditions how ideas about motherhood change over time and across social contexts who has the power to make their definitions of motherhood stick and what diverse groups of mothers themselves think Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy Shadow Mothers Cameron Lynne Macdonald, 2011-02-09 Shadow Mothers shines new light on an aspect of contemporary motherhood often hidden from view the need for paid childcare by women returning to the workforce and the complex bonds mothers forge with the shadow mothers they hire Cameron Lynne Macdonald illuminates both sides of an unequal and complicated relationship Based on in depth interviews with professional women and childcare providers immigrant and

American born nannies as well as European au pairs Shadow Mothers locates the roots of individual skirmishes between mothers and their childcare providers in broader cultural and social tensions Macdonald argues that these conflicts arise from unrealistic ideals about mothering and inflexible career paths and work schedules as well as from the devaluation of paid care work

Handmaids, Tributes, and Carers Myrna Santos, 2018-12-21 This book is a multi disciplinary anthology about the role of female figures in dystopian narratives Such female figures from all stages of life are often critical to these narratives positing females as particularly powerful heroines or catalysts to action especially in young adult manifestations such as The Hunger Games and Divergent trilogies among others This book explores the totality of these rich and varied roles from fiction to television to film This collection will capture the interest of scholars and students in popular culture literature gender studies and media as well as fan readers and followers of genre fiction television and film

The Wall Between Women Beth Brykman, 2012-04-03 Women today struggle to make difficult choices involving their children and their careers so why do they simultaneously criticize undermine and point fingers at one another Beth Brykman taps her personal experience as well as her professional marketing skills in crafting this well researched look at the life transforming issue that American mothers face Having been both a full time employed mother and a stay at home mom Brykman interviewed more than one hundred mothers She lets these women speak for themselves about the reality of their lives their views of the other mother and how they balance the pros and cons of motherhood Separate chapters examine the factors that create the wall between women stereotypes of mothers on both sides of the wall the lives and attitudes of full time employed mothers versus mothers who choose to stay at home working part time the reality of daycare how different women determined what was right for them and their families coparenting and suggestions for modifying marriages and letting go of the emotional baggage of success and guilt including suggestions for broad cultural change An appendix details her research methods including questions she posed to each mother and a useful bibliography that points readers to other resources Filled with revealing quotations and stories from mothers themselves this insightful discussion of contemporary motherhood reveals the many challenges facing women and offers creative solutions for overcoming those challenges
