Myths You Hear From The Tv Pulpit Debunked:

Myths You Hear from the TV Pulpit George R. Begault, 2005-08-01 Strong religious beliefs and an insatiable demand for fact order and analysis were the driving forces that wrote this book It examines some of the dramatic and totally incorrect statements that are constantly made by ministers on TV and other teachers of the Bible In the book the author presents each myth then leads the reader through a logical procession of related biblical verses joined with common sense logic that simply yet forcefully prove that the myth is indeed a myth The only source for the supporting arguments is the Bible itself and the ensuing logic is simple straightforward and unassailable In the process of disproving the myth the author explains the true biblical teaching with emphasis on rigid analysis and biblical correctness Consequently the believer is given sound and solid ground for his possible future defense of his new accurate understanding and awareness of the topics covered Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 , 2008-02 Expository Sermons on the Epistle to the Hebrews 2 Joe Tolin,
