Myths and Folk-Lore of Ireland Jeremiah Curtin, 2020-09-28 The young man went home sad and weary The king and queen were outside watching and when they saw him approaching they knew great trouble was on him When he came to where they were he wouldn t speak but went straight into the castle and wouldn t eat or drink He was sad and lamenting for a good while till at last he disappeared one day the king and queen knew not whither After that they didn t hear of him didn t know was he dead or alive The young man after he left home was walking along over the kingdom for a long time One day he saw no house big or little till after dark he came in front of a hill and at the foot of the hill saw a small light He went to the light found a small house and inside an old woman sitting at a warm fire and every tooth in her head as long as a staff She stood up when he entered took him by the hand and said You are welcome to my house son of the king of Erin Then she brought warm water washed his feet and legs from the knees down gave him supper and put him to bed When he rose next morning he found breakfast ready before him The old woman said You were with me last night you ll be with my sister to night and what she tells you to do do or your head ll be in danger Now take the gift I give you Here is a ball of thread do you throw it in front of you before you start and all day the ball will be rolling ahead of you and you ll be following behind winding the thread into another ball He obeyed the old woman threw the ball down and followed All the day he was going up hill and down across valleys and open places keeping the ball in sight and winding the thread as he went till evening
