Nabobs Ward:

Power, Culture and Place John H. Mollenkopf, 1989-02-16 With a population and budget exceeding that of many nations a central position in the world's cultural and corporate networks and enormous concentrations of wealth and poverty New York City intensifies interactions among social forces that elsewhere may be hidden or safely separated The essays in Power Culture and Place represent the first comprehensive program of research on this city in a quarter century Focusing on three historical transformations the mercantile industrial and postindustrial several contributors explore economic growth and change and the social conflicts that accompanied them Other papers suggest how popular culture public space and street life served as sources of order amidst conflict and disorder Essays on politics and pluralism offer further reflections on how social tensions are harnessed in the framework of political participation By examining the intersection of economics culture and politics in a shared spatial context these multidisciplinary essays not only illuminate the City's fascinating and complex development but also highlight the significance of a sense of place for social research It has been said that cities gave birth to the social sciences exemplifying and propagating dramatic social changes and proving ideal laboratories for the study of social patterns and their evolution As John Mollenkopf and his colleagues argue New York City remains the quintessential case in point The Nabobs of Madras Henry Dodwell, 1926 The Flickering Bridge (Time Alleys Book 2) J.A.

Enfield, 2024-11-15 Mick and his friends fought off the threats to London's time travel alleys but they suspect those efforts were only the beginning So when people start getting attacked in the real world and the time alleys start flickering with unexplained lightning they're pretty sure that danger is soon to follow As the threat materializes the Forsyth Institute once again presses Mick and his uncanny alley sight into service to protect the alleys and the kids inside them But this time the threat is greater than Mick expected and its source is more shadowy and powerful than anyone imagines Despite all their efforts on London's streets and waterways Mick and his friends may not be able to stop it And even if they can they may not be able to bear the price to be paid The nabob's wife, by the author of 'Village reminiscences' Mrs. Monkland, 1837

Memoirs of the Flight Surgeon of HMS Nabob Jr. Herbert Read, Charles, 2018-02-20 In the evening dusk of August 22 1944 during an intense battle off the Norwegian coast the HMS Nabob one of the two Canadian crewed aircraft carriers in the Second World War was struck by a torpedo on the starboard side Among the souls on board was Dr Charles Read Jr a young flight surgeon who needed to draw upon every bit of his training and skills to fight against seemingly impossible odds to save the lives of his shipmates These are his memoirs Follow Dr Read from his first fresh faced moments in Halifax as a newly minted Navy Medical Officer to a surprise appointment to be the flight surgeon on the much lauded Nabob the aircraft carrier thought of as the sign that Canada's navy had arrived in the big leagues of world sea power In vivid detail Read recounts his training including a hair raising ride in a fighter jet his friendships from Chizy the affable wine steward to the legendary fighter pilot Bobby Bradshaw to his wonder at the beauty of Europe even in the midst of wartime destruction to his memorable encounters with those he met along the way including two beautiful movie stars Read presents war as he saw it the gut wrenching carnage the endless monotony the baffling absurdity and shamefully the inevitable tragedies that happen under incompetent command These memoirs present an exciting and never before seen view into a ship that has until this book been little more than a footnote in history The Nabob of Singapore St. George Rathborne,1895 The History of Ayder Ali Khan, Nabob-Bahader Maistre de La Tour (M.),1784 The Works of Alphonse Daudet: The nabob; tr. by G.B.
