Nachdenken Ueber Christa T:

The Quest for Christa T. Christa Wolf, 1979-11 When The Quest for Christa T was first published in East Germany ten years ago there was an immediate storm bookshops in East Berlin were given instructions to sell it only to well known customers professionally involved in literary matters at the annual meeting of East German Writers Conference Mrs Wolf's new book was condemned Yet the novel has nothing explicit to do with politics Literatur - Geschichte Lothar Köhn, 2000 The Child's View of the Third Reich in German Literature Debbie Pinfold, 2001-08-23 This book examines the ways in which German authors have used the child's perspective to present the Third Reich It considers how children at this time were brought up and educated to accept unquestioningly National Socialist ideology and thus questions the possibility of a traditional naive perspective on these events Authors as diverse as Günter Grass Siegfried Lenz and Christa Wolf together with many less well known writers have all used this perspective and this raises the question as to why it is such a popular means of confronting the enormity of the Third Reich This study asks whether this perspective is an evasive strategy a means of gaining new insights into the period or a means of discovering a new language which had not been tainted by Nazism This raises and addresses issues central to a post war aesthetic in German writing The Spiritual Geography of Modern Writing Constantin V. Ponomareff, 1997 This collection of essays deals with the spiritual crisis in modern society and focusses in particular on European writers of the 19th and 20th centuries The essays trace themes of spiritual unease narrowing of inner human space impoverishment of the self growing human isolation dehumanization and the writers' attempts to overcome this malaise The essays also try to show how inhuman political and social environments and feelings of cultural impasse can become mitigated and reclaimed by socially conscious acts of creative writing Obsession self delusion creative frustration and personal tragedy are seen to haunt this kind of modern writing which is at the same time infused with the writers' profound sense of moral responsibility to society and marked on occasion by that rare experience of Epiphany and transcendence Post-fascist Fantasies Julia Hell, 1997 Employing an approach informed by Slavoj Žižek's work on the Communist's sublime body and by British psychoanalytic feminism's concern with feminine subjectivity Hell first examines the antifascist works by exiled authors and authors tied to the resistance movement She then strives to understand the role of Christa Wolf the GDR's most prominent author in the GDR's effort to reconstruct symbolic power after the Nazi period Writing the Woman Artist Suzanne W. Jones, 2016-11-11 I mean what is a woman I assure you I do not know I do not believe that you know I do not believe that anybody can know until she has expressed herself in all the arts and professions open to human skill Virginia Woolf Professions for Women Writing The Woman Artist is a collection of essays that explores the ways in which women writers portray women painters sculptors writers and performers Surveying the works of a variety of women writers from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from different ethnic national racial and economic backgrounds this book treats their revisions of the Künstlerroman and their perceptions of the relationships between muse artist and audience in other genres Suzanne W ones and her collaborators seek to understand how representations of women artists and their poetics and politics are mediated by social and historical factors including literary movements and theories of language In doing so they make an important contribution to the field of feminist scholarship and generate new ways of understanding how the dynamics of creativity intersect with the dynamics of gender Contributors to the volume are Ann Ardis Alison Booth Kathleen Brogan Lynda Bundtzen Pamela Caughie Mary DeShazer Linda Dittmar Josephine Donovan Susan Stanford Friedman Gayle Greene Linda Hunt Katherine Kearns Holly Laird Estella Lauter Z Nelly Martinez Jane Atteridge Rose Margaret Diane Stetz Renate Voris and Mara Witzling Writing The Woman Artist is a valuable new resource for scholars and students working in the fields of European and American literature and women s studies Retrospect and Review Robert Atkins,Martin Kane,2023-12-18 In Retrospect and Review an international team of scholars explore East German literature and the circumstances of its production in the last phase of the German Democratic Republic s existence The provocative claim of the novelist playwright and essayist Christoph Hein Ich nehme au erdem f r mich in Anspruch elfmal das Ende der DDR beschrieben zu haben serves as the starting point for the twenty three contributors to the volume who consider the many and varied ways in which Hein and his fellow writers signalled and diagnosed the demise of the GDR The fraught relationship between the state and its intellectuals inevitably forms a consistent theme in the studies of writers as diverse as Anna Seghers and Kito Lorenc Christa Wolf and Jurek Becker or Irmtraud Morgner and Heiner M ller However the process of retrospect and review also reveals the innovative and independent minded character of the culture of the GDR s later years Several contributors trace the emergence of a strong and distinctive women s writing which increasingly and subversively imposed itself on the hitherto patriarchal literary landscape of the GDR And in the literature of the 1970s and 1980s experimental narrative strategies take on a political role as a counter discourse to a stubbornly inflexible political order Dialogue Analysis IX: Dialogue in Literature and the Media, Part 1: Literature Anne Betten,Monika Dannerer,2011-12-22 These two volumes offer a selection of the papers held at the conference of the International Association for Dialogue Analysis IADA in 2003 Volume I contains 38 articles devoted to dialogue and the phenomenon of dialogicity in literature ranging from antiquity to a large number of modern languages and literatures The conversation analytic approaches drawn upon are notable for their methodological diversity This is also true of the 32 articles in Volume II The main focus here is on present day types of dialogue in the new electronic media and their traditional counterparts press radio television film The examples are taken from various countries and they are discussed in terms of the intercultural semiotic translatorial and general pragmatic issues they pose Der Aufstieg der Untergangsseherin Cassandra Thomas Eppler,1993 Inscription and Rebellion Sonja E. Klocke,2015 Employs research on the GDR s healthcare system along with feminist and queer theory to get at socialism s legacy revealing a specifically East German literary convention employment of symptomatic female bodies to either enforce or rebel against political and social norms Post-war
