Nadine A Novel:

Nadine Mrs. Campbell Praed, 1883      Writing and Being Nadine Gordimer, 1995 In this deeply resonant book Nobel Prize laureate Nadine Gordimer examines the tension for a writer between life's experiences and narrative creations investigating where characters come from to what extent are they drawn from real life and using the writings of South African revolutionaries to show how their struggle is contrastingly expressed in factual fiction and in lyrical poetry

Conversations with Nadine Gordimer Nadine Gordimer, 1990 Conversations with Nadine Gordimer edited by Nancy Topping Bazin and Marilyn Dallman Seymour Nadine Gordimer is one of the contemporary world's most admired writers of novels and short stories This volume collects three decades of her interviews In them she presents her attitudes toward her art and its interconnection with the oppressive volatile politics in her native land She has traveled extensively to other countries only to discover that no matter how white her skin she is indeed African and the only country she can call home is South Africa If you write honestly about life in South Africa apartheid damns itself she says She is ruthlessly honest and her fiction has played the vital role of communicating in detail to the rest of the world the effects of apartheid upon the daily lives of the South African people To maintain her integrity she writes as though she were dead without any thought of how anyone will react to what she has written She remains heroically undaunted both by the banning of three of her novels by the white government and by the protests of radical blacks who assert that whites cannot write convincingly about blacks She is concerned neither with the image of blacks nor with the image of whites only with revealing the complexity the full truth This truth condemns the racism upon which apartheid is built In her nine novels and eight volumes of short stories Gordimer digs deeper and deeper until she has thematic layers These include betrayal political sexual every form and power the way human beings use power in their relationships Her accounts in these interviews of how she works and of which writers she admires will fascinate readers scholars teachers and students alike Co editors Nancy Topping Bazin retired from the faculty of the English and women's studies departments at Old Dominion University and Marilyn Dallman Seymour retired from the staff of the Government Publications Department of the Old Dominion University Library      Jump and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 In this collection of sixteen stories Gordimer brings unforgettable characters from every corner of society to life a child refugee fleeing civil war in Mozambique a black activist's deserted wife longing for better times a rich safari party indulging themselves while lionesses circle their lodge Jump is a vivid disturbing and rewarding portrait of life in South Africa under apartheid      None to Accompany Me Nadine Gordimer, 2004-02-01 None to Accompany Me is arresting and reverberant perhaps the most powerful novel to date by one of the world's most commanding writers In an extraordinary period immediately before the first non racial election and the beginning of majority rule in South Africa Vera Stark the protagonist of Nadine Gordimer's passionate novel weaves a ruthless interpretation of her own past into her participation into the present as a lawyer representing blacks in the struggle to reclaim the land      The Novels of Nadine Gordimer

Stephen Clingman, 1993 The novels and short stories of Nadine Gordimer are acclaimed throughout the world In 1991 she was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature Yet until Stephen Clingman's study of her work few will have been aware of how deeply it has responded to the history of South Africa over the past forty years This study traces that history Drawing out the central themes of her work the book follows a developing consciousness of history through Gordimer's novels to contribute towards a history of consciousness in South Africa Major periods and events are covered from the political triumph of the National Party in 1948 to the vibrant social and political world of the fifties from the Sharpeville massacre of 1960 to the Soweto Revolt of 1976 and beyond For Gordimer's many readers this book will provide an illuminating guide to an author whose work mirrors and reflects the turbulence of South African history as well as of our own times Nadine Gordimer's novels include The Conservationist joint winner of the 1974 Booker Prize Burger's Daughter July's People A Sport of Nature and My Son's Story Among her collections of short stories are A Soldier's Embrace Something O The Pickup Nadine Gordimer, 2002-10-07 Longlisted for the 2002 Booker Prize the compelling story of a relationship between a young white South African woman and a young Arab man Addiction, Representation and the Experimental Novel, 1985 2015 Heath A. Diehl, 2020-12-15 Since the nineteenth century the Western realistic novel has persistently represented the addict as a morally toxic force bent on destroying the institutions practices and ideologies that historically have connoted reason order civilization Addiction Representation undertakes an investigation into an alternative literary tradition that unsettles this limited portrayal of the addict The book analyzes the practices and politics of reading the experimental addiction novel and outlines both a practice and an ethics of reading that advocates for a more compassionate response to both diegetic and extra diegetic addicts an approach that at its core is focused on understanding The Later Fiction of Nadine Gordimer Bruce King, 2016-01-30 Nobel Prizewinner Nadine Gordimer's novels and short stories from The Conservationist to Jump have been her best and most controversial work This new book examines such topics as the autobiographical basis of her fiction her relationship to feminism the place of the white woman in black Africa the ambiguity of revolutionary politics her ambivalent relationship to Judaism her use of irony the symbolism of landscape and the ways in which she has revised recurring topics throughout her career as a writer Imagination and the Contemporary Novel John J. Su, 2011-05-26 Imagination and the Contemporary Novel examines the global preoccupation with the imagination among literary authors with ties to former colonies of the British Empire since the 1960s John Su draws on a wide range of authors including Peter Ackroyd Monica Ali Julian Barnes Andr Brink J M Coetzee John Fowles Amitav Ghosh Nadine Gordimer Hanif Kureishi Salman Rushdie and Zadie Smith This study rehabilitates the category of imagination in order to understand a broad range of contemporary Anglophone literature The responses of such literature to shifts in global capitalism have often been misunderstood by the dominant categories of literary studies the postmodern and the postcolonial As both an insightful critique into the themes that drive a range of today's best novelists and a bold restatement of what the imagination is and what it means for contemporary culture this book breaks new ground in the study of twenty first century literature      The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell,Dirk Kloppe,Craig Mackenzie,2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa s history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party s policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele s call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country s literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945      The Contemporary Novel Irving Adelman,Rita Dworkin,1997-10-09 In this new edition what was already an expansive work has been updated and further enlarged to include information not only on American and British novelists but also on writers in English from around the world      My Son's Story Nadine Gordimer,2003-11-03 This is a passionate love story love between a man and two women between father and son and something even more demanding a love of freedom      The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan,2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women s Studies and Comparative Studies departments This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb the major geographical regions of Africa The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes Soyinka Mahfouz and Gordimer and the visibility of African writers increased They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on
