Nagaland, a Contemporary Ethnography Subhadra Channa, 1992 Social conditions and religion of the Nagas South Asian people from Nagaland India Nagaland Subhaadra Mitra Channa, 1999-05-01 The Cultural Heritage of Nagaland G. Kanato Chophy, Sarit K. Chaudhuri, 2022-12-22 This volume gives an in depth account of cultural heritage of Nagaland covering important themes like cultural beliefs traditional knowledge material culture and social institutions Contributors from diverse disciplines and backgrounds have delved into the cultural heritage of the state s variegated tribes Nagaland a hilly state in North East India had been the centre of British colonialism and American Baptist mission This cultural contact is significantly reflected in the socio cultural life and the contributors have shed light on the continuities and changes This volume highlights the multiplicity of cultural traditions that are specific to various tribes inhabiting sixteen districts of Nagaland since their experiences of modernity and cultural contact with others have been diverse The contributors have mainly focussed on the cultural heritage of the majority Naga tribes but other tribes like the Kukis and Kacharis are part and parcel of the cultural melting pot of Nagaland and this volume in a way underscores the cultural exchange and interactions Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print version of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka In the Shadows of Naga Insurgency Jelle J.P. Wouters, 2018-05-08 In the Shadows of Naga Insurgency is a fine grained critique of the Naga struggle for political redemption the state s response to it and the social corollaries and carry overs of protracted political conflict on everyday life Offering an ethnographic underview Jelle Wouters illustrates an insurgency complex that reveals how embodied experiences of resistance and state aggression violence and volatility and struggle and suffering link together to shape social norms animate local agitations and complicate inter personal and inter tribal relations in expected and unexpected ways The book locates the historical experiences and agency of the Naga people and relates these to ordinary villagers perceptions actions and moral reasoning vis vis both the Naga Movement and the state and its lucrative resources It thus presses us to rethink our views on tribalism conflict and ceasefire development corruption and democratic politics Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia Jelle J.P. Wouters, Michael T. Heneise, 2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Central Asian Studies and South Asian Studies as well as Asian Studies in general Sociology and Social as well as analytical methods are employed in illuminating the emergence of monumentalism in Neolithic Europe Studies are taking place on a macro and micro scale in areas as diverse as Great Britain Denmark Sweden Poland Germany the Dutch wetlands Portugal and Malta involving a range of monuments from long barrows and megalithic tombs to roundels and enclosures Transformation from a natural to a built environment by monumentalizing part of the landscape is discussed as well as changes in megalithic architecture in relation to shifts in the social structure An ethnographic study of megaliths in Nagaland discuss monument building as an act of social construction Other studies look into the role of monuments as expressions of cosmology and active loci of ceremonial performances Also a couple of papers analyse the social processes in the transformation of society in the aftermath of the initial boom in monument construction and the related changes in subsistence and social structure in northern Europe The aim of the publication is to explore different theories about the relationship between monumentality and the Neolithic way of life through these studies encompassing a wide range of types of monuments over vast areas of Europe and beyond The Peripheral Centre Preeti Gill ,2014-02-13 When Thangjam Manorama was arrested and killed by the Assam Rifles in July 2004 in Manipur it unleashed a protest likes of which no one had witnessed before This was one of the triggers for this collection to provide a space for women and men from the Northeast to tell us about the issues that confronted them daily to talk about the pressures the insecurities the uncertainties confronting them in an area that has been facing low intensity warfare for decades The anger and the frustrations of the Manipuri women who staged that dramatic protest after Manorama s killing have in many ways been vindicated Each essay in this book brings to mind that troubling image each contributor points to the Manipuri women holding them up as a flag of rebellion of protest of questioning Each essay questions issues of nation identity of what makes the people of the Northeast so alienated from the mainstream Many contributors are writers academics or activists from the Northeast but there are many are like the editor outsiders But outsiders who share a passion for the region and an intense desire to see change to see peace Published by Zubaan Women and Social Reform in Modern India Sumit Sarkar,Tanika Sarkar,2008 An impressive collection of writings on women s issues in Indian history Constructing the Divine G. Kanato Chophy,2019-01-14 From being characterized as primitive tribe in the colonial imagination to become predominantly practitioners of the American Baptist faith the Sumi Naga formerly known as the Sema Naga in the North East Indian state of Nagaland have come a long way ever since this Naga tribe encountered the white man toward the latter half of the nineteenth century This book in a way chronicles the transition of Sumi society from the period of colonial contact up to the present day context A critical understanding of Sumi society and culture is at the heart of the narrative and the analysis of Sumi religion and world view remains the main thrust of this book It is argued that the Sumi who are overwhelmingly Baptists are faced with new religious issues which has brought about not only schismatic divisions but also rendering ebullience to religious life and that a new discourse has emerged in Sumi religion The author positions himself as an insider and in doing so has given a reflexive account of Sumi religious life meanwhile substantiating the arguments and findings in the light of contemporary theoretical developments The volume brings out compelling evidence that religion significantly shapes the daily life of the Sumi It offers a detailed ethnographic study of Sumi religion and world view as the Sumi Naga was seldom studied in depth in the post Independence period Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Democracy In Nagaland: Tribes, Traditions, and Tensions. A. Wati Walling, Ankush Agrawal, B. Henshet Phom, Chothazo Nienu, Dolly Kikon, Kham Khan Suan Hausing, Michael Heneise, Moamenla Amer, Renchumi Kikon Kuotsu, Riku Khutso, T. Longkoi Khamniungan, Venusa Tinyi, Vikas Kumar, 2018-01-01 This volume offers interdisciplinary perspectives on the historical cultural and traditional inferences inner logic and intricacies of democratic politics and elections in Nagaland It goes beyond institutional analyses of democratic structures and governance by looking at the troubled historical context in which modern democracy was introduced how Nagas themselves view democracy the reasoning they adopt as they engage in campaigns and perform elections the remapping of traditional practices and values unto the new democratic playing field and at the gender and clean elections debates such practices evoke Tattoo Histories Sinah Theres Kloß, 2019-11-25 Tattoo Histories is an edited volume which analyses and discusses the relevance of tattooing in the socio cultural construction of bodies boundaries and identities among both individuals and groups Its interdisciplinary approach facilitates historical as well as contemporary perspectives Rather than presenting a universal essentialized history of tattooing the volume's objective is to focus on the entangled and transcultural histories narratives and practices related to tattoos Contributions stem from various fields including Archaeology Art History Classics History Linguistics Media and Literary Studies Social and Cultural Anthropology and Sociology They advance the current endeavour on the part of tattoo scholars to challenge Eurocentric and North American biases prevalent in much of tattoo research by including various analyses based in locations such as Malaysia Israel East Africa and India The thematic focus is on the transformative capacity of tattoos and tattooing with regard to the social construction of bodies and subjectivity the re creation of social relationships through the definition of non tattooed others the formation and consolidation of group identities traditions and authenticity and the conceptualization of art and its relevance to tattoo artist tattooee relations Agency and Knowledge in Northeast India Michael Heneise, 2018-08-06 The Nagas of Northeast India give great importance to dreams as sources of divine knowledge especially knowledge about the future Although British colonialism Christian missions and political conflict have resulted in sweeping cultural and political transformations in the Indo Myanmar borderlands dream sharing and interpretation remain important avenues for negotiating everyday uncertainty and unpredictability This book explores the relationship between dreams and agency through ethnographic fieldwork among the Angami Nagas It tackles questions such as What is dreaming What does it mean to say I had a dream And how do night time dreams relate to political and social actions in waking moments Michael Heneise shows how the Angami glean knowledge from signs gain insight from ancestors and potentially obtain divine blessing Advancing the notion that dreams and dreaming can be studied as indices of relational devotional and political subjectivities the author demonstrates that their examination can illuminate the ways in which as forms of authoritative knowledge they influence daily life and also how they figure in the negotiation of day to day domestic and public interactions Moreover dream narration itself can involve techniques of interference in which the dreamer seeks to limit or encourage the powerful influence of social others encountered in dreams such as ancestors spirits or the divine Based on extensive ethnographic research this book advances research on dreams by conceptualising how the social encompasses the broader co extensive set of relations and experiences especially with spirit entities reflected in the ethnography of dreams It will be of interest to those studying Northeast India indigenous religion and culture indigenous cosmopolitics in tribal India more generally and the anthropology of dreams and dreaming Entangled Lives Joy L. K. Pachuau, Willem van Schendel, 2022-11-10 Entangled Lives is a case study in environmental history multispecies history more than human history posthumanism and environmental humanities Its main objective is to foreground that history is co created but that its contours are locally specific A Matter of Belief Vibha Joshi, 2012-09-15 Nagaland for Christ and Jesus Saves are familiar slogans prominently displayed on public transport and celebratory banners in Nagaland north east India They express an idealization of Christian homogeneity that belies the underlying tensions and negotiations between Christian and non Christian Naga This religious division is intertwined with that of healing beliefs and practices both animistic and biomedical This study focuses on the particular experiences of the Angami Naga one of the many Naga peoples Like other Naga they are citizens of the state of India but extend ethnolinguistically into Tibeto Burman south east Asia This ambiguity and how it affects their Christianity global involvement indigenous cultural assertiveness and nationalist struggle is explored Not simply describing continuity through change this study reveals the alternating Christian and non Christian streams of discourse one masking the other but at different times and in different guises
