Naked In Winter:

Naked in Winter Jerome Brooks,2000-09 Through its two major metaphors nakedness and winter this story opens with a Jake Ackerman roughly three years older than he was at the end of Make Me a Hero But in a wintry world where everywhere he turns he seems to need someone to express love to him he finds that his very own protection against the cold prevents others from reaching into him to touch his fine sensitivity Only when he connects with Roberta whose own nakedness reveals to him the hives on her upper chest and arms signs of her own timidity does he buy her an expensive gift with the little money he earns and inscribes it with his real feelings

Naked in Winter Sally Dali,2014-09-26 The author of Being Naked and Still Naked turns her attention from the joys of naturism in the summer sun to experiences of nudity in the colder seasons of the year While attempting to remain warm she muses about various aspects of naturism and nudity in general As always Sally Dali writes with an open mind and a sense of humour as she strives to be a year round naturist if only indoors Experienced and novice nudists as well as curious textiles will find much to enjoy in her latest volume of memories and insights
