Nam Sense Arthur Wiknik, 2020-01-10 A candid memoir of being sent to Vietnam at age nineteen witnessing the carnage of Hamburger Hill and returning to an America in turmoil Arthur Wiknik was a teenager from New England when he was drafted into the US Army in 1968 shipping out to Vietnam early the following year Shortly after his arrival on the far side of the world he was assigned to Camp Evans near the northern village of Phong Dien only thirty miles from Laos and North Vietnam On his first jungle patrol his squad killed a female Viet Cong who turned out to have been the local prostitute It was the first dead person he had ever seen Wiknik's account of life and death in Vietnam includes everything from heavy combat to faking insanity to get some R tricked unwitting US suppliers into providing his platoon with hard to get food defied a superior and was punished with a dangerous mission and struggled with himself and his fellow soldiers as the antiwar movement began to affect them Written with honesty and sharp wit by a soldier who was featured on a recent History Channel documentary about Vietnam Nam Sense spares nothing and no one in its attempt to convey what really transpired for the combat soldier during this unpopular war It is not about glory mental breakdowns flashbacks or self pity The GIs Wiknik lived and fought with during his yearlong tour were not drug addicts or war criminals or gung ho killers They were there to do their duty as they were trained support their comrades and get home alive Recipient of an Honorable Mention from the Military Writers Society of America

Disorientation Karl Ashoka Britto, 2004-04-01 This book explores literary representations of cultural hybridity spanning nearly half a century a period marked by major shifts in Franco Vietnamese relations How can identity be thought and represented outside of the oppositional categories that divide cultures histories languages and races Can the intercultural subject be understood as more than a site of cultural contestation as anything other than a confrontation between incompatible binary opposites This book offers compelling responses to these questions through a series of close readings of francophone novels written by Vietnamese authors during and just after the colonial period While many contemporary studies of cultural hybridity tend to privilege the postmodern deconstructive play of postcolonial identities Disorientation seeks to uncover what is often obscured in such celebratory analyses the rigid and potentially traumatic conditions under which colonized subjects experienced the tensions and contradictions of intercultural identity The close readings that form the core of the book are inflected by cultural and historical considerations and informed by a range of primary documents that includes training manuals for colonial administrators works of imperialist propaganda tourist guidebooks and travel writing and textbooks from Franco Vietnamese schools These contextualized analyses recast the problem of interculturality in an Asian francophone context expanding the historical and cultural fields within which questions of identity and difference are currently discussed and offering a striking perspective from which to question postcolonial theories of hybridity

Redrawing the Lines Reed Way Dasenbrock, 1989 Redrawing the Lines was first published in 1989 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Since 1970 literary theory has experienced a period of rich interaction with both Anglo American analytic and Continental philosophy particularly deconstruction Yet these two philosophical schools have regarded each other with hostility if at all as in the 1977 exchange between John Searle and Jacques Derrida over the work of J L Austin Since then the two philosophical traditions have begun to interact as each has influenced literary theory and some suggest that they are not diametrically opposed Redrawing the Lines the first book to focus on that interaction brings together ten essays by key figures who have worked to connect literary theory and philosophy and to reassess the relationship between analytic and Continental philosophy The editor s introduction establishes the debate s historical context and his annotated bibliography directs the interested reader to virtually everything written on this issue The contributors Reed Way Dasenbrock Henry Staten Michael Fischer Charles Altieri Richard Shusterman Samuel C Wheeler III Jules David Law Steven Winspur Christopher Norris Richard Rorty and Anthony J Cascardi Reed Way Dasenbrock is associate professor of English at New Mexico State University He is the author of The Literary Vorticism of Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis Toward the Condition of Painting

Enduring Vietnam James Wright, 2024-07-02 This powerful and heartbreaking history of the Vietnam War looks not only at the conflict but the generation caught up in its horrors and consequences Booklist The Vietnam War is largely recalled as a mistake either in the decision to engage there or in the nature of the engagement Or both Veterans of the war remain largely anonymous figures accomplices in the mistake Critically recounting the steps that led to the war this book does not excuse the mistakes but it brings those who served out of the shadows Enduring Vietnam recounts the experiences of the young Americans who fought in Vietnam and of families who grieved those who did not return The book describes the baby boomers growing up in the 1950s why they went into the military what they thought of the war what it was like to serve in Nam and to come home With a rich narrative of the Battle for Hamburger Hill and through substantial interviews with those who served the book depicts the cruelty of this war and its quiet acts of courage James Wright's Enduring Vietnam provides an important dimension to the profile of an American generation and a rich account of an American War Oxford Studies in Agency and Responsibility David Shoemaker, Neal A. Tognazzini, D. Justin Coates, 2019 Oxford Studies in Agency and Responsibility is a forum for outstanding new work in an area of vigorous and broad ranging debate in philosophy and beyond What is involved in human action Can philosophy and science illuminate debate about free will How should we answer questions about responsibility for action The United States and the Vietnam War, 1954-1975 Louis Peake, 2007-11-13 The United States in the Vietnam War 1954-1975 is an invaluable reference guide to the costly and controversial war the U S waged in Vietnam over the course of five presidential administrations Focusing not only on the conflict in Southeast Asia but also on the tumult the war inspired on the domestic front Louis Peake provides an authoritative guide to the wide range of media available on the U S involvement in Vietnam From collections of art work and poetry about the soldiering experience to journalistic accounts of battles and military training films the entries consistently provide clear and concise descriptions allowing the reader to easily identify the value of any particular resource With revised and updated annotations and over 150 new entries this second edition of The United States in the Vietnam War 1954-1975 is an invaluable reference tool for researchers and students of the Vietnam War Routledge Research Guides to American Military Studies provide concise annotated bibliographies to the major areas and events in American military history With the inclusion of brief critical annotations after each entry the student and researcher can easily assess the utility of each bibliographic source and evaluate the abundance of resources available with ease and efficiency Comprehensive concise and current Routledge Research Guides to American Military Studies are an essential research tool for any historian Sketches of Landscapes Avrum Stroll, 1997-12-08 Avrum Stroll accepts the ancient tradition that one of the tasks of philosophy is to give an accurate account of the world's features both animate and inanimate But he contends because these features are inexhaustibly complex no single theory or conceptual model can provide a complete account Stroll's approach is piecemeal and example oriented In stressing the importance of examples his work runs counter to one of the most powerful and seductive ways of thinking about the world the Platonic tradition which denigrates examples in the search for qualities or essences Stroll favors pluralism on the ground that this is how the world is The landscapes of the title refers to various conceptual landscapes Using the methodological approach he calls philosophy by example the author discusses seven major problems of epistemology metaphysics and the philosophy of language skepticism direct reference theories and natural kinds the relationship between the microscopic and macroscopic the logic of examples direct reference and fiction holistic theories of meaning and direct versus indirect realism in perception It is the author's method that binds together the different topics but the method is not the message What matters are the substantive results His unique analyses reveal new understandings of some difficult problems Fighting Elites John C.

Fredriksen,2011-12-12 From Army Rangers to Green Berets to the U S Navy SEAL team that killed Osama bin Laden this book explains what makes Special Forces special covering the rich and varied history of elite formations in American military history and describing their recruitment intense training and equipment in depth Most civilians have only a vague idea of what the U S Special Forces are all about who they are how they differ from our normal military forces what they ve accomplished throughout our history and how they operate today Fighting Elites A History of U S Special Forces examines the rich and varied history of U S Special Forces identifies their contributions to specific conflicts from colonial times forward and highlights their present operational excellence In this first ever reference guide to U S Special Forces military historian John C Fredriksen provides a carefully balanced presentation describing all units in their own detailed section that discusses their origins recruitment training tactics and equipment and defining military engagements if known The text also contains 20 biographical entries of noted personalities associated with special purpose activities Historical Dictionary of the War in Vietnam Ronald B. Frankum Jr.,2011-06-10 For Southeast Asia the Vietnam War altered forever the history topography people economy and politics of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam DRV the Republic of Vietnam RVN Cambodia and Laos That the war was controversial is an understatement as is the notion that the war can be understood from any one perspective One way of understanding the Vietnam War is by marking its time with turning points both major and minor that involved events or decisions that helped to influence its course in the years to follow By examining a few of these turning points an organizational framework takes shape that makes understanding the war more possible Historical Dictionary of the War in Vietnam emphasizes the international nature of the war as well as provide a greater understanding of the long scope of the conflict The major events associated with the war will serve as the foundation of the book while additional entries will explore the military diplomatic political social and cultural events that made the war unique While military subjects will be fully explored there will be greater attention to other aspects of the war All of this is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Vietnam War Meaning, Knowledge, and Reality

John Henry McDowell,John McDowell,1998-01-01 This is the second volume of John McDowell s selected papers These nineteen essays collectively report on McDowell s involvement over more than twenty years with questions about the interface between the philosophies of language and mind and with issues in general epistemology Throughout McDowell focuses on questions to do with content with the nature of content both linguistic and psychological with what McDowell regards as misguided views about content and with the form which a proper semantic theory of content should assume Friendly Fire in the Literature of War Earl R. Anderson,2017-05-08 The term friendly fire was coined in the 1970s but the theme appears in literature from ancient times to the present It begins the narrative in Aeschylus s Persians and Larry Heinemann s Paco s Story It marks the turning point in Homer s Iliad Virgil s Aeneid the Chanson de Roland Stephen Crane s

The Red Badge of Courage and Tim O'Brien's Going After Cacciato It is the subject of transformative disclosure in Jaan Kross's Czar's Madman Ron Kovic's Born on the Fourth of July O'Brien's In the Lake of the Woods and A.B. Yehoshua's Friendly Fire In some stories events propel the characters into a friendly fire catastrophe as in Thomas Taylor's A Piece of this Country and Oliver Stone's 1986 film Platoon This study examines friendly fire in a broad range of literary contexts
