Francis Lorraine Petre, 1907 Napoleon's Campaign in Poland, 1806-1807 Francis Lorraine Petre O.B.E, 2011-05-24 F
Lorraine Petre was at the forefront of a number of British historians who wrote at the turn of the 20th Century who advanced the knowledge understanding of Napoleonic times and warfare hugely Petre wrote a number of books on the subject particularly because of the dearth of information focusing on Napoleon's lesser known campaigns with a depth of research unheard of at the time His writings have stood the test of time and have been reprinted a number of times as recently as the last ten years In this book his second in his series shines the spotlight of the Napoleon's quest to vanquish his last remaining continental enemy Russia Having smashed Prussia in 1806 Napoleon eagerly sought out his Russian opponents however his tactics of lightning advances and strategic envelopment founded in the mud and cold of Poland Extended over a vast area his troops acutely suffered from shortages and played a deadly game of cat and mouse with the last of the Prussian forces under Lestocq whilst waiting for the thaw that would enable them to come to grips with the enemy As it transpired they did not have to wait as long as they might have imagined fighting the bloody slugging match in the snow with the Russians at Eylau and although they held the field it was a field covered by their own comrades corpses After another brutal but more successful engagement at Heilsberg during which the Russians lost heavily Napoleon finally ran his quarry to the ground at Friedland After a sterling delaying action by Lannes corps and supporting cavalry under Grouchy Napoleon found his opponent pinned with his back to a river After an abortive attack by Marshal Ney General Sarmont drove a battery of thirty guns into canister range of the Russian centre leaving a red ruin and allowing a victory for the French turn into a bloody rout for the Russians as many drowned trying to reach their lines on the other side of the river The peace of Tilsit was to be signed soon after marking arguably the highpoint of the French Empire Author Francis Lorraine Petre OBE 1852 1925
