Narrative: a Critical Linguistic Introduction Michael J. Toolan, 1988 World Englishes Kingsley Bolton, Braj B. Kachru, 2006 The Narrative Construction of Identities in Critical Education A. Archakis, V. Tsakona, 2012-11-13 Based on approaches from discourse analysis and sociolinguistics this study proposes an analytical model focusing on the linguistic and discursive means narrators use to construct a variety of identities in everyday stories This model is further exploited in language teaching to cultivate students cultural sensitivity and critical literacy The Linguistic Features of the Qur'anic Narratives Yehudit Dror, 2016 This monograph attempts to identify the linguistic characteristics of the Qur'anic narratives and to indicate what distinguishes them from other Qur'anic thematic passages Initially it is noted that there are four models of Qur'anic narratives In spite of the distinction between the models much of the narrative has the structure suggested by Labov 1974 They include six elements abstract orientation complicating action evaluation resolution and coda This work shows that each component is associated with specific linguistic features Series Viennese Open Oriental Studies Wiener Offene Orientalistik Vol 12 Subject Linguistics Islamic Studies An Introduction to Narratology , Narrative Progression in the Short Story Michael J. Toolan, 2009 One of our most valuable capacities is our ability partly to predict

what will come next in a text But linguistic understanding of this remains very limited especially in genres such as the short story where there is a staging of the clash between predictability and unpredictability This book proposes that a matrix of narrativity furthering textual features is crucial to the reader's forming of expectations about how a literary story will continue to its close Toolan uses corpus linguistic software and methods and stylistic and narratological theory in the course of delineating the matrix of eight parameters that he sees as crucial to creating narrative progression and expectation The book will be of interest to stylisticians narratologists corpus linguists and short story scholars

The Exorcism Stories in Luke-Acts Todd Klutz, 2004-06-24 This 2004 book in English integrates detailed literary criticism of the exorcism stories in Luke Acts with wide ranging comparative study of ancient sources on demonology spirit affliction and exorcistic healing Methods from systemic functional linguistics and critical theory are explained and then applied to each story Careful focus is placed on each narrative's linguistic functions and also on relevant aspects of its literary co text and the wider context of culture Implications of the analysis for the new perspective on Luke Acts especially the implied author's relationship with Judaism are explored in relation to the Lukan stories original context of reception Largely neglected interfaces between Luke's narrative representation of exorcism and emerging academic discourse about religious experience shamanism health care in antiquity ritual performance and ancient Jewish systems of impurity are probed in ways that shed fresh light on this supremely alien part of the Lukan writings

Multimodal Texts from Around the World W. Bowcher, 2012-07-24 A first in multimodal multisemiotic discourse studies this collection of original articles by international scholars focuses primarily on texts from non English speaking contexts The illuminating insights enhance our understanding of how language and other semiotic resources construe specific cultural and social concerns

The State of Stylistics Poetics and Linguistics Association. Conference, 2008 The State of Stylistics contains a broad collection of papers that investigate how stylistics has evolved throughout the late 20th and early 21st centuries In so doing it considers how stylisticians currently perceive their own respective fields of enquiry It also defines what stylistics is and how we might use it in research and teaching This book represents an excellent snapshot of the discipline of stylistics in all its range As well as theoretical positioning by some key figures in the field it covers the main dimensions of cognitive computational and discoursal approaches to literary stylistics and it does not neglect the practical pedagogy that is the artisanal bedrock of the discipline There is valuable work here that showcases the international reach of stylistics Professor Peter Stockwell School of English Studies University of Nottingham
