The Psychology of Personhood Jack Martin, Mark H. Bickhard, 2012-11-29 A new examination of the psychology of personhood which views persons as irreducibly embodied and socially situated beings Cultural, Ethnic, and Political Nationalism in Contemporary Taiwan J. Makeham, A. Hsiau, 2005-08-19 This volume analyzes what is arguably the single most important aspect of cultural and political change in Taiwan over the past quarter century the trend toward indigenization bentuhua Focusing on the indigenization of politics and culture and its close connection with the identity politics of ethnicity and nationalism this volume is an attempt to map prominent contours of the indigenization paradigm as it has unfolded in Taiwan The opening chapters concern the origin and nature of the trend toward indigenization with its roots in the unique historical trajectory of politics and culture in Taiwan Subsequent chapters deal with responses and reactions to indigenization in a variety of social cultural and intellectual domains The Social Licence for Financial Markets David Rouch, 2020-07-13 This book is about what Mark Carney has called the social licence for financial markets and how it can point us towards a more sustainable future Author David Rouch argues that what it reveals contrasts sharply with the usual portrayals of markets as places of unrestrained financial self interest Drawing attention to a more complex reality and the presence of justice focused aspirations in finance can positively impact individual institutional and systemic behaviour change not imposed by regulators but emerging from the very substance of market relationships The finance sector should have a key role in addressing humanity's increasingly pressing sustainability challenges Yet the relationship between finance and society has not recovered from the 2008 crisis and the scandals and austerity that followed The Covid 19 pandemic and its economic fallout is sharpening some of the issues and creating new ones Recognising that financial markets operate subject to a social licence has the potential to galvanise market participants in tackling these challenges strengthening social solidarity on which markets also depend and to provide coordinates for navigating a way through the post pandemic social political and economic landscape

Biblical Narrative Learning Tung Chiew Ha,2015-10-02 Biblical narrative learning is a non critical educational approach for Christian communities with diverse learning backgrounds involving three sets of movement inquire and invent interpret and imagine inspire and imitate and impart It is grounded in humankind s universal capacity to teach and learn through stories and built on practices in narrative learning along with biblical narratives The Gospel of John provides a model for this interpretive process that continues the teaching of living in a loving relationship with God and one another John uses many literary devices to enhance an affective and reflective learning The literary devices create the familiar strange effect John s narrative fosters remembrance of the Story and guides the learner to adequate faith in God It inculcates adequate faith to wait in suspense while the Jesus Story and our stories when they are remembered create new understanding and transform the life experiences of the person
