Narrative Mortality Death Closure And New Wave Cinemas:

Narrative Mortality Catherine Russell, 1995 Analyzes New Wave cinema from a postmodern perspective What seems like closure might be something more as Catherine Russell shows us in this book about death in narrative cinema since the 1950s Analyzing the structural importance of death in narrative endings as well as the thematics of loss and redemption Russell identifies mortality as a valuable critical tool for understanding the cinema of the second half of the twentieth century Her work includes close textual readings of films by Fritz Lang Wim Wenders Oshima Nagisa Jean Luc Godard and Robert Altman among others In these analyses Russell reveals an uneasy relationship between death and closure which she traces to anxieties about identity gender and national cultural myths as well as to the persistence of desire Drawing on the work of Walter Benjamin she shows us death as a fundamentally allegorical structure in cinema and as a potential sign of historical difference with crucial implications for theories of film narrative and spectatorship Narrative Mortality provides fresh insight into the dynamics of postmodern cinema as it emerged from the modernist preoccupation with existential mortality By tracing the role of death from a work that precedes the Brechtian cinema of the 1960s Beyond a Reasonable Doubt to several that succeed it Nashville The State of Things the book expands the narrative project of New Wave cinema and ushers it onto a broader historical plane

Modular Narratives in Contemporary Cinema A. Cameron, 2008-07-11 Since the early 1990s there has been a trend towards narrative complexity within popular cinema This book examines a number of contemporary films that play overtly with narrative structure raising questions of chance and destiny memory and history simultaneity and the representation of time

Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany s well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema

Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment Robert M. Bohm, Gavin Lee, 2017-12-15 Capital punishment is one of the more controversial subjects in the social sciences especially in criminal justice and criminology Over the last decade or so the United States has experienced a significant decline in the number of death sentences and executions Since 2007 eight states have abolished capital punishment bringing the total number of states without the death penalty to 19 plus the District of Columbia and more are likely to follow suit in the near future Nebraska reinstated its death penalty in 2016 Worldwide 70 percent of countries have abolished capital punishment in law or in practice The current trend suggests the eventual demise of capital punishment in all but a few recalcitrant states and countries Within this context a fresh look at capital punishment in the United States and worldwide is warranted The Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment comprehensively examines the topic of capital punishment from a wide variety of perspectives A thoughtful introductory chapter from experts Bohm and Lee presents a contextual framework for the subject matter and chapters present state of the art analyses of a range of aspects of capital punishment grouped into five sections 1 Capital Punishment History Opinion and Culture 2 Capital Punishment Rationales and Religious Views 3 Capital Punishment and Constitutional Issues 4 The Death Penalty s Administration and 5 The Death Penalty s Consequences This is a key collection for students taking courses in prisons penology criminal justice criminology and related subjects and is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in prison service or in related agencies Courting Death Desmond Manderson,1999-09-20 This collection deals with complex issues relating to death such as mercy killings the right to die and murder the relationship will always be controversial This timely and provocative collection brings together scholars from Australia Britain and the US Rites of Realism Ivone Margulies,2003-03-27 A collection of essays rethinking and reviving realism as a focus for film theory particularly emphasizing the relation of the genre to issues of the body

Critical Theory and Film Fabio Vighi,2012-05-03 Critical Theory and Film brings together critical theory and film to enhance the critical potential of both The book focuses on the Frankfurt School most notably the works of Adorno and Horkheimer as well as associated thinkers It seeks to demonstrate that cinema can help critical theory repoliticize culture and society and affirm the theoretical and political impact of cinematic knowledge After discussing how the Frankfurt School saw cinema as an instrument of capitalism use to promote the cultural and political regimentation of the masses Vighi then proceeds to demonstrate that critical theory can in fact suggest a different verdict on the progressive potential of cinema Each chapter focuses on a key critical theory concept that is explained and redefined through film analysis to unravel the hidden presuppositions and most radical consequences of critical theory A unique contribution to the literature this volume in the Critical Theory and Contemporary Society series offer an innovative reading of film as a critical tool drawing on the latest developments in Lacanian theory Art in the Cinematic Imagination Susan Felleman,2010-01-01 Bringing an art historical perspective to the realm of American and European film Art in the Cinematic Imagination examines the ways in which films have used works of art and artists themselves as cinematic and narrative motifs From the use of portraits in Vertigo to the cinematic depiction of women artists in Artemisia and Camille Claudel Susan Felleman incorporates feminist and psychoanalytic criticism to reveal individual and collective perspectives on sex gender identity commerce and class

Probing more than twenty films from the postwar era through contemporary times Art in the Cinematic Imagination considers a range of structurally significant art objects artist characters and art world settings to explore how the medium of film can amplify reinvent or recontextualize the other visual arts Fluently speaking across disciplines Felleman's study brings a broad array of methodologies to bear on questions such as the evolution of the Hollywood Love Goddess and the pairing of the feminine with death on screen A persuasive approach to an engaging body of films Art in the Cinematic Imagination illuminates a compelling and significant facet of the cinematic experience

Death in Literature Outi Hakola, Sari Kivistö, 2014-05-02 Death is an inevitable yet mysterious event Fiction is one way to imagine and gain knowledge of death Death is very useful to literature as it creates plot twists suspense mysteries and emotional effects in narrations But more importantly stories about death seem to have an existential importance to our lives Stories provide fictional encounters with death and give meaning for both death and life Thus death is more than a physical or psychological experience in literature it also highlights existential questions concerning humanity and storytelling This volume entitled Death in Literature approaches death by examining the narratives and spectacles of death dying and mortality in different literary genres The articles consider literary representations of death from ancient Rome to the Netherlands today and explore ways of dealing with death and dying The discussions also transcend the boundaries of literature by studying literary representations of such socially relevant and death related issues as euthanasia and suicide The articles offer a broad perspective on death's role in literature as well as literature's role in the social and cultural debates about death

Engaging Dialogue Jennifer O'Meara, 2018-01-09 Examines the politics of female ship in relation to contemporary documentary practices

Transfigurations Ashbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grønstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Transfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs

Difficult Death, Dying and the Dead in Media and Culture Sharon Coleclough, Bethan Michael-Fox, Renske Visser, 2023-11-25 This book responds to a growing interest in death dying and the dead within and beyond the field of death studies The collection defines an understanding of difficult death and examines the differences between death dying and the dead as well as exploring the ethical challenges of researching death in mediated form The collection is attendant to the ways in which difficult deaths are imbricated in power structures both before and after they become mediated in culture As such the work navigates the many political and social complexities and inequalities what might be deemed the difficulties of death dying and the dead The book seeks to expand understandings of the difficulty of death in media and culture through a wide range of chapters from different contexts focused on literature film television and in online environments as well as several chapters examining news reportage of difficult deaths      Masks in Horror

Cinema Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2019-10-15 First critical exploration of the history and endurance of masks in horror cinema Written by an established award winning author with a strong reputation for research in both academia and horror fans Interdisciplinary study that incorporates not only horror studies and cinema studies but also utilises performance studies anthropology Gothic studies literary studies and folklore studies      The Celebration of Death in Contemporary

Culture Dina Khapaeva, 2017-03-06 The Celebration of Death in Contemporary Culture investigates the emergence and meaning of the cult of death Over the last three decades Halloween has grown to rival Christmas in its popularity Dark tourism has emerged as a rapidly expanding industry Corpse chic and skull style have entered mainstream fashion while elements of gothic horror torture porn and slasher movies have streamed into more conventional genres Monsters have become pop culture heroes vampires zombies and serial killers now appeal broadly to audiences of all ages This book breaks new ground by viewing these phenomena as aspects of a single movement and documenting its development in contemporary Western culture This book links the mounting demand for images of violent death with dramatic changes in death related social rituals It offers a conceptual framework that connects observations of fictional worlds including The Twilight Saga The Vampire Diaries and the Harry Potter series with real world sociocultural practices analyzing the aesthetic intellectual and historical underpinnings of the cult of death It also places the celebration of death in the context of a longstanding critique of humanism and investigates the role played by 20th century French theory posthumanism transhumanism and the animal rights movement in shaping the current antihumanist atmosphere This timely thought provoking book will appeal to scholars of culture film literature anthropology and American and Russian studies as well as general readers seeking to understand a defining phenomenon of our age      The Routledge Companion to Caste and Cinema in India Joshil K. Abraham, Judith

Misrahi-Barak, 2022-11-22 This companion is the first study of caste and its representation in Indian cinema It unravels the multiple layers of caste that feature directly and indirectly in Indian movies to examine not only the many ways caste pervades Indian society and culture but also how the struggle against it adopts multiple strategies The companion Critiques Indian cinema production through the lens of anti caste discourse Traces the history of films beginning from the early twentieth century focusing on caste representations across India including Hindi Malayalam Kannada Marathi Bengali Punjabi Tamil as well as silent films Makes a foray into OTT media Includes analysis of popular films such as Padmaavat Masaan Fandry Sairat Sujata Article 15 Chomana Dudi Lagaan Court Ee Ma Yau Kaala Pariyerum Perumal Perariyathavar among many others to critique and problematise the idea of caste A major intervention this book alters traditional approaches to caste in Indian cinemas and society and explores new political strategies implemented through cinematic creation and aesthetics It will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of film studies social discrimination and exclusion studies human rights popular culture and South Asian studies It will also be of interest to enthusiasts of Indian cinematic history

Pain, Death, and the Law Austin Sarat, 2009-09-11 This collection of essays examines the relationship between pain death and the law and addresses the question of how the law constructs pain and death as jurisprudential facts The empirical focus of these essays enables the reader to delve into both the history and the theoretical complexities of the pain death law relationship The combination of the theoretical and the empirical broadens the contribution this volume will undoubtedly make to debates in which the right to live or die is the core issue at hand This volume will be an important read for policy makers and legal practitioners and a valuable text for courses in law the social sciences and the humanities Austin Sarat is William Nelson Cromwell Professor of Jurisprudence and Political Science Amherst College

The Civil War Dead and American Modernity Ian Fineth, 2018-01-02 The Civil War Dead and American Modernity offers a fundamental rethinking of the cultural importance of the American Civil War dead Tracing their representational afterlife across a massive array of historical visual and literary documents from 1861 to 1914 Ian Fineth maintains that the war dead played a central complex and paradoxical role in how Americans experienced and understood the modernization of the United States From eyewitness accounts of battle to photographs and paintings and from full dress histories of the war to fictional narratives Fineth shows that the dead circulated through American cultural life in ways that we have not fully appreciated and that require an expanded range of interpretive strategies to understand While individuals grieved and relinquished their own loved ones the collective Civil War dead Fineth argues came to form a kind of symbolic currency that informed Americans melancholic relationship to their own past Amid the turbulence of the postbellum era as the United States embarked decisively upon its technological geopolitical and intellectual modernity the dead provided an illusion of coherence intelligibility and continuity in the national self At the same time they seemed to represent a traumatic break in history and the loss of a simpler world and their meanings could never be completely contained by the political discourse that surrounded them Reconstructing the formal rhetorical and ideological strategies by which postwar American society reimagined and continues to reimagine the Civil War dead Fineth also shows that a strain of critical thought was alert to this dynamic from the very years of the war itself The Civil War Dead and American Modernity is at once a study of the politics of mortality the disintegration of American Victorianism and the role of visual and literary art in both forming and undermining social consensus
