Original Charles Darwin's Beagle Diary Charles Darwin, 2001-05-24 On 27th December 1831 HMS Beagle set out from Plymouth under the command of Captain Robert Fitzroy on a voyage that lasted nearly 5 years The purpose of the trip was to complete a survey of the southern coasts of South America and afterwards to circumnavigate the globe The ship's geologist and naturalist was Charles Darwin Darwin kept a diary throughout the voyage in which he recorded his daily activities not only on board the ship but also during the several long journeys that he made on horseback in Patagonia and Chile His entries tell the story of one of the most important scientific journeys ever made with matchless immediacy and vivid descriptiveness

Authority and Displacement in the English-Speaking World (Volume I) Florence Labaune-Demeule, 2016-01-14
Whether one thinks of the modern world or of more remote times both seem to have been affected if not moulded by the interaction between the concepts of authority and displacement Indeed political and social sources of authority have often been the causes of major geographical displacements as can be illustrated by the numerous waves of migration which have been observed in the past and which are still present today such as the transportation of slaves from African to American coasts in colonial times If displacement can often be understood as spatial displacement it can also be synonymous with psychological social and even aesthetic displacement for instance through different artistic means or through the use of stylistic discursive devices Displacement also entails displacement dislocation as well as dislocation or chaos This suggests that the etymological meaning of the term authority auctoritas has to be highlighted thus referring to the author of a particular work and to the different manifestations of the authorial persona in a work of art This collection of essays in two volumes examines the relationships between the concepts of authority and displacement in the English speaking world without restricting the analysis to a particular area or to the field of literature Some essays do indeed deal with literature from different spatial areas and temporal eras while others look into these concepts from a more cultural or aesthetic point of view Volume One Exploring Europe from Europe includes essays on Shakespeare's Measure for Measure John Ross's Second Exploration Voyage Thomas Hardy's Jude the Obscure in addition to investigations of Rose Tremain's novels Disguise by Hugo Hamilton and the cinematic adaptation of Conrad's Almayer's Folly by Chantal Akerman The volume concludes with a study of two novels by the Anglo Sudanese writer Jamal Mahjoub
