generic specificities disturbing details and authorial interference Unlike the mainstream cognitive approaches or even the emergent unnatural narratology the articles collected here explore the artifice involved in presenting something ordinary and realistic in literature The first section of the book deals with anti dynamic elements such as dialogue details private events and literary boredom The second section devoted to extensions of cognitive narratology addresses spatiotemporal oddities and the possibility of non human narratives The third section focuses on frame breaking fragmentarity and problems of authorship in the works of Vladimir Nabokov The book presents readings of texts ranging from the novels of Don DeLillo and Thomas Pynchon to the Animal Man comics The common denominator for the texts discussed is the interruption of the chain of events or of the experiential flow of human like narrative agents The English Novel, 1700-1740 Robert

Letellier,2003-02-28 The English novel written between 1700 and 1740 remains a comparatively neglected area In addition to Daniel Defoe whose Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders are landmarks in the history of English fiction many other authors were at work These included such women as Penelope Aubin Jane Barker Mary Davys and Eliza Haywood who made a considerable contribution to widening the range of emotional responses in fiction These authors and many others continued writing in the genres inherited from the previous century such as criminal biographies the Utopian novel the science fictional voyage and the epistolary novel This annotated bibliography includes entries for these works and for critical materials pertinent to them The volume first seeks to establish the existing studies of the era along with anthologies It then provides entries for a wide ranging selection of works which cover fictional theoretical historical political and cultural topics to provide a comprehensive background to the unfolding and understanding of prose fiction in the early 18th century This is followed by an alphabetical listing of novels their editions and any critical material available on each The next section provides a chronological record of significant and enduring works of fiction composed or translated in this period The volume concludes with extensive indexes The Multiple Perspective Irene Stocksieker Di Maio,1981-01-01 In this study the works of Wilhelm Raabe 1831 1910 are being discussed taking into account the emerge of the perspectival narration culminating in the Braunschweig period 1870 1920 The book starts with a survey of the point of view theory including the concept of multiple perspective and then focusses on the works of Raabe in which these various techniques will be demonstrated Special attention is paid to three works of the Braunschweig period Der Dr umling Das Horn von Wanza and Kloster Lugau criticism Mario Vargas Llosa Charles Rossman, Alan Warren Friedman, 2014-04-21 The Peruvian Mario Vargas Llosa has been acclaimed throughout the literary world as one of Latin America's finest writers yet until recently little has been written about his work in English While his work has the subject of an increasing flow of critical commentary in Spanish and his major novels have been translated into English this is the first full scale critical treatment of Vargas Llosa published in the English language These articles by a number of established writers and critics appraise Vargas Llosa's individual novels as well as the body of his work The Time of the Hero The Green House Conversation in The Cathedral and Pantaleón y las visitadoras are examined in order of publication A second group of more general essays ranges across Vargas Llosa's work and explores pervasive themes and concerns Two pieces by Jos Miguel Oviedo serve as a coda In a bilingual interview Oviedo and Vargas Llosa discuss Vargas Llosa's novel La tía Julia y el escribidor Oviedo concludes with a critical discussion of that novel A Vargas Llosa chronology compiled by the editors is also included Most of these essays originally appeared in 1977 as a special issue of Texas Studies in Literature and Language The concluding essay by Oviedo was prepared especially for this edition The Story of the Storyteller Jean O'Bryan-Knight, 2023-04-12 This book traces the history of an engaging character a writer who acts as the narrator and protagonist of three of Vargas Llosa's novels In La tía Julia y el escribidor he recalls his apprenticeship in Historia de Mayta he reflects upon the practice of his craft and in El hablador he ponders the significance of his vocation That this fictional character closely resembles his flesh and blood creator only adds to his allure Because the three novels in question have such strong structural and thematic links it proves quite helpful to conceive of them as a trilogy Indeed the connections are so pronounced that a significant synergistic effect results from considering the three together It is this effect that this volume brings light as it analyzes how each novel functions as a separate entity how these entities are integrated into a greater whole and how this whole fits into the wider picture of the Peruvian author's long and prolific literary career As students and scholars alike will find thinking in terms of a trilogy greatly enhances our understanding and appreciation of Vargas Llosa's rich narrative Narrative Fiction and Death Sabine

Köllmann, 2023-09-29 Narrative Fiction and Death Dying Imagined offers a new perspective on the study of death in literature It focuses on narrative fiction that conveys the experience of dying from the internal perspective of a dying protagonist Writers from Victor Hugo in the early 1800s to Elif Shafak in the present day have imagined the unknowable final moments on the threshold to death This literary study examines the wide range of narrative strategies used to evoke the transition from life to death and to what effect revealing not only each writer's unique way of representing the dying experience the comparative reading also finds common concerns in these texts and uncovers surprising parallels and unexplored intertextual relations between works across time and space that will interest comparatists as well as specialists in the literatures discussed Students of individual texts examined here will benefit from detailed analyses of these works The fictional evocation of dying addresses our basic human fears offering catharsis consolation and a greater cognitive and emotional understanding of that unknowable experience Presented in an engaging and highly readable manner this study argues for literature s potential to challenge our assumptions about the end of life and change our approach to dying an aspect that will interest students and researchers of the health humanities palliative caregivers and all those interested in questions of the end of life Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman,Manfred Jahn,Marie-Laure Ryan,2010-06-10 The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource Narration and Discourse in American Realistic Fiction Janet Holmgren McKay,2017-01-30 No detailed description available for Narration and Discourse in American Realistic Fiction Contexts of Pre-Novel Narrative Roy Eriksen,2020-10-12 No detailed description available for Contexts of Pre Novel Narrative
