Narrative Impulse Short Stories For Analysis:

The Narrative Impulse Mary Joe Purcell, 1963      Studies in Short Fiction, 1978      The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro      Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Catalog of Books, 1996      New York Magazine, 1982-03-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      James Baldwin and the Short Story Benedict Ushedo, 2018-03-21 This book examines the range of issues that echo in James Baldwin s short stories It articulates and defends the claim that the stories in the collection Going to Meet the Man are driven by the autobiographical memory of the author To support this line of thought and the related proposition that the stories feed into themes relevant to self knowledge vicarious suffering love and forgiveness their effectiveness as transformative and revelatory texts is highlighted By drawing on contemporary studies and challenging the view that short stories are no more than miniature pieces merely echoing major works of their authors this book demonstrates that the short story genre can be profoundly forceful and effective in the articulation of complex human issues This study shows also that the humanistic import of the Baldwin stories is amplified by their ability to accumulate moral tension as they elicit the participation of the reader in an imaginative quest for a better world      The Novel Dorothy J. Hale, 2009-02-09 The Novel An Anthology of Criticism and Theory 1900 2000 is a collection of the most influential writings on the theory of the novel from the twentieth century Traces the rise of novel theory and the extension of its influence into other disciplines especially social cultural and political theory Broad in scope including sections on formalism the Chicago School structuralism and narratology deconstruction psychoanalysis Marxism social discourse gender post colonialism and more Includes whole essays or chapters wherever possible Headnotes introduce and link each piece enabling readers to draw connections between different schools of thought Encourages students to approach theoretical texts with confidence applying the same skills they bring to literary texts Includes a volume introduction a selected bibliography an index of topics and short author biographies to support study      Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story s confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story

American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Fiction. Juvenile fiction R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978

Sojourner Truth as Orator Suzanne P. Fitch, Roseann Mandziuk, 1997-09-23

This work is an in depth analysis of the full breadth of Sojourner Truth s public discourse that places it in its proper historical context and explores the use of humor and narratives as primary rhetorical strategies used by this illiterate ex slave to create a powerful public persona The book provides a comprehensive survey of the life of Sojourner Truth and includes a unique and authoritative compilation of primary rhetorical documents such as speeches songs and public letters This is the only major work to date that analyzes the breadth of Sojourner Truth s public discourse The volume includes a complete and authoritative compilation of her extant rhetoric including several versions of the same speech reports of her speaking appearances public letters published by Truth in newspapers and songs written and performed by her as part of her public lectures Three chapters address the rhetorical dimensions of Truth s public persona First an historical survey contextualizes her life and speaking from slave to reformer placing into perspective the variety of experiences that comprised her background Second an analysis of Truth s use of humor focuses upon how she employed the strategies of superiority and incongruity in her refutation of opponents and the establishment of her own credibility Third a critique of Truth s use of narratives in her discourse reveals how both her speeches and songs rely upon three fundamental stories for their persuasive impact her slave life and religious conversion her use of the black jeremiad to portray race differences and her tales of woman s strength and moral conviction The volume concludes with a consideration of Truth s status as a folk legend and how she wished to be remembered

Feminine Subjects in Masculine Fiction M. Miller, 2013-04-23

Between 1870 and 1910 male authors were actively engaged with imagining new possibilities for women at the same time as the central female figure continued to function as a troubling and unreachable object of aesthetic desire This book examines these inscrutable female characters who were the ground on which fiction reinvented itself as Art

The Story of Jazz Justine Tally, 2001

Since its publication in 1992 Jazz probably Toni Morrison's most difficult novel to date has elicited a wide array of critical response. Many of these analyses while both thoughtful and thought provoking have provided only partial or inherently inconclusive interpretations. The title and certain of the author's own pronouncements have led other critics to focus on the music itself both as medium and aesthetic support for the narration. Choosing an entirely different approach for The Story of Jazz Justine Tally further develops her hypothesis first elaborated in her study of Paradise that the Morrison trilogy is undergirded by the relationship of history, memory and story and discusses jazz not as the music but as a metaphor for language and storytelling. Taking her cue from the author's epigraph for the novel she discusses the relevance of storytelling to contemporary critics in many different fields, explains Morrison's choice of the hard-boiled detective genre as a ghost text for her novel and guides the reader through the intricacies of Bakhtinian theory in order to elucidate and ground her interpretation of this important text, finally entering into a chapter by chapter analysis of the novel which leads to a surprising conclusion. How to Study

"The Best Short Stories" Blanche Colton Williams, 1919 Summarizes stories from the 1915 through 1918 editions of The Best Short Stories books published by Small Maynard Company and explains features such as plot development, characters, presentation etc. Conrad's Short Fiction Lawrence Graver, 2021-01-08 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1969. History of the Short Story in America Elizabeth Baxter, 1909 Visual Storytelling in the 21st Century David Callahan, 2024-10-14 This volume will explore varying contemporary strategies and examples of visual storytelling across several contemporary spheres from street art to video games from media for children to media for adults from images in movement to static images. It reads these storytelling venues in terms of the ethical itineraries that we live by or would like to live by or wish the world lived by. In this sense it relates to the fact that the term narrative has become a ubiquitous shorthand for discursive dominance. Observers of widely varying aspects of social life talk, for example, of changing the narrative, claiming the narrative, overhauling the narrative or owning the narrative. While these general contexts are well known, there remains a need to continually interrogate new examples of storytelling forms, new cases of the uses of stories in differing formats and new stories in general. This perpetual need is what this volume aims to respond to by way of its mixture of contemporary storytelling locations and exemplars. Pedagogical Responses to the Changing Position of Girls and Young Women Carrie Paechter, Rosalyn George, Angela McRobbie, 2018-02-02 Academics and professionals working with young women face a series of paradoxes. Over the last 20 years the lives of young women in the UK and Europe have been transformed. They have gained considerable freedom and independence but at the very same time new, less tangible forms of constraint and subordination now play a defining role in the formation of their everyday subjectivities and identities. Young women have come to exemplify the pervasive sensibility of self responsibility and self organisation This new gender regime demands both conceptualisation and practical response drawing on educational research social and cultural theory and contemporary feminist thought Within the overarching theme of pedagogical responses to these trends through work in schools and within young women s online and face to face communities this book interrogates the field of sexuality and its visualisation across new and old media in the context of often predictable and endemic moral panics about teenage pregnancy rates sexually transmitted diseases and internet pornography In exploring how girls and young women respond to increasing expectations of them as the vanguard of economic social and cultural change contributors to this volume interrogate the ways in which social and educational aspiration interact with young women s developing and embodied identities This book was originally published as a special issue of Pedagogy Culture and Society
