Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass Frederick Douglass, 2020-02-21 I was born in Tuckahoe near Hillsborough and about twelve miles from Easton in Talbot county Maryland I have no accurate knowledge of my age never having seen any authentic record containing it By far the larger part of the slaves know as little of their ages as horses know of theirs and it is the wish of most masters within my knowledge to keep their slaves thus ignorant I do not remember to have ever met a slave who could tell of his birthday They seldom come nearer to it than planting time harvest time cherry time spring time or fall time A want of information concerning my own was a source of unhappiness to me even during childhood The white children could tell their ages I could not tell why I ought to be deprived of the same privilege I was not allowed to make any inquiries of my master concerning it He deemed all such inquiries on the part of a slave improper and impertinent and evidence of a restless spirit The nearest estimate I can give makes me now between twenty seven and twenty eight years of age I come to this from hearing my master say some time during 1835 I was about seventeen years old

The Life and Times of Frederick Douglass Frederick Douglass, 2008-12-01 I have neither been miserable because of the ill feeling of those about me nor indifferent to popular approval and I think upon the whole I have passed a tolerably cheerful and even joyful life I have never felt myself isolated since I entered the field to plead the cause of the slave and demand equal rights for all In every town and city where it has been my lot to speak there have been raised up for me friends of both colors to cheer and strengthen me in my work I have always felt too that I had on my side all the invisible forces of the moral government of the universe from Chapter 17 Incidents and Events American icon FREDERICK DOUGLASS 1818 1895 editor orator author statesman and reformer told his life story three times First in 1845 s Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass he felt it necessary to explain how a man born in chains could rise to national prominence and respect In 1855 with My Bondage and My Freedom he expanded upon his story with a more in depth and even more thoughtful exploration of his life as a slave and his journey to escape it Both astonishing and essential books are also available from Cosimo His third autobiography The Life and Times of Frederick

Douglass first published in 1881 and presented here in the thoroughly revised 1892 edition is his most reflective offering the perspective of a man at the end of long life well lived Douglass retells the story of his childhood and escape from slavery offering details that he could not previously reveal with friends family and other innocents still in the thrall of slavemasters Now though with the Civil War and Emancipation well behind the nation Douglass can also offer more provocative analyses of his own battle for personal freedom and his fight for the very soul of the nation This classic of African American literature and of 19th century American history is a must read for anyone wishing to consider himself well read

The Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass Frederick Douglass, 2016-12-22 I was born in Tuckahoe near Hillsborough and about twelve miles from Easton in Talbot county Maryland I have no accurate knowledge of my age never having seen any authentic record containing it By far the larger part of the slaves know as little of their ages as horses know of theirs and it is the wish of most masters within my knowledge to keep their slaves thus ignorant I do not remember to have ever met a slave who could tell of his birthday They seldom come nearer to it than planting time harvest time cherry time spring time or fall time A want of information concerning my own was a source of unhappiness to me even during childhood The white children could tell their ages I could not tell why I ought to be deprived of the same privilege I was not allowed to make any inquiries of my master concerning it He deemed all such inquiries on the part of a slave improper and impertinent and evidence of a restless spirit The nearest estimate I can give makes me now between twenty seven and twenty eight years of age I come to this from hearing my master say some time during 1835 I was about seventeen years old My mother was named Harriet Bailey She was the daughter of Isaac and Betsey Bailey both colored and quite dark My mother was of a darker complexion than either my grandmother or grandfather My father was a white man He was admitted to be such by all I ever heard speak of my parentage The opinion was also whispered that my master was my father but of the correctness of this opinion I know nothing the means of knowing was withheld from me My mother and I were separated when I was but an infant before I knew her as my mother It is a common custom in the part of Maryland from which I ran away to part children from their mothers at a very early age Frequently before the child has reached its twelfth month its mother is taken from it and hired out on some farm a considerable distance off and the child is placed under the care of an old woman too old for field labor For what this separation is done I do not know unless it be to hinder the development of the child s affection toward its mother and to blunt and destroy the natural affection of the mother for the child This is the inevitable result I never saw my mother to know her as such more than four or five times in my life and each of these times was very short in duration and at night She was hired by a Mr Stewart who lived about twelve miles from my home She made her journeys to see me in the night travelling the whole distance on foot after the performance of her day s work She was a field hand and a whipping is the penalty of not being in the field at sunrise unless a slave has special permission from his or her master to the contrary a permission which they seldom get and one that gives to him that gives it the proud name of being a kind master I do not recollect of ever seeing my mother by the light of day She was with me in the night She would lie down with me and get me to sleep but long before I waked she was gone Very little communication ever took place between us Death soon ended what little we could have while she lived and with it her hardships and suffering She died when I was about seven years old on one of my master s farms near Lee s Mill I was not allowed to be present during her illness at her death or burial She was gone long before I knew any thing about it Never having enjoyed to any considerable extent her soothing presence her tender and watchful care I received the tidings of her death with much the same emotions I should have probably felt at the death of a stranger
