Narrow Gate Churches Atallah Mansour, 2004 Photographs have a crucial place in the representation of the atomic age and its anxieties Camera Atomica examines narratives beyond the technological sublime that dominates much nuclear photography suppressing representations of the human form in favor of representations of B 52 bombers and mushroom clouds The book proposes that the body is the site where the social environment interacts with the so called atomic road uranium mining and processing radiation research nuclear reactor construction and operation and weapons testing Cameras have both recorded and in certain instances provided motivation for the production of nuclear events Their histories and technological development are intimately intertwined at McGill University in the early 1900s for example Ernest Rutherford employed photography to identify the properties of radioactive materials winning a Nobel Prize for his research and at Los Alamos in the mid 1940s Julian E Mack and Berlyn Brixner designed specialized cameras for measuring the blast yield of nuclear weapons All photographs including nuclear photographs have the capability to function affectively by working on the emotions and fascinating audiences Through a wide range of visual documentation Camera Atomica raises questions such as what has the role of photography been in underwriting a public image of the bomb and nuclear energy Has the circulation of photographic images heightened or lessened anxieties or done both at the same time How should the different visual protocols of photography scientific journalistic documentary touristic and artistic be understood Palestine's Christians and the Nationalist Cause Erik Freas, 2024-12-23 This book provides an historical overview of Palestine s Christian communities and their role in the Palestinian nationalist movement during the late Ottoman and British mandatory periods More than being a history of Palestine s Christian Arabs the book focuses on Palestine s Christians during the formative period of Palestinian Arab national identity attentive to the broader topic of the relationship between nationalism and religion in this case between Arab identity and Islam Whereas until recently historians have tended to assume that national and religious identities are distinct and mostly mutually exclusive things more recent scholarship has addressed the fact that often there exists considerable overlap between the two though it should be noted often in ways that are not by any means inherently exclusive of those not belonging to the majority faith as is the case here The relationship is also an ever changing one hence the final chapter of the book which functions as something of an epilogue regarding the current status of Palestine s Christians vis vis their place in the nationalist cause and relationship with the broader Muslim population The book will be of interest to historians and scholars focused on the modern Middle East Palestinian history Muslim Christian intercommunal relations and the relationship between nationalism and religion American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour, 2020-01-31 Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it Built on an in depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel Translating Miroslav Volf s formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context Dr Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf s theory and Palestinian peacemaking models Through her research and analysis Dr Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities

The Great Betrayal Sheldon W. Liebman, 2018-11-27 In the view of many contemporary scholars both Jesus and Judaism have been misrepresented by the church for the past two thousand years Their main point is that Judaism was not a superficial rigid and outdated religion and Jesus did not reject it In fact along with his disciples he remained a Law abiding Jew his entire life However as Christianity developed from a Jewish sect in the first century AD to the official religion of the Roman Empire in the fourth century the church was transformed Jesus was redefined and both Jews and their religion were repudiated and marginalized In short both Christians and Jews were deeply affected by what many scholars now call the de Judaization of Jesus This book is an attempt to correct the traditional theological and scholarly misinterpretations of Jesus and Judaism that emerged over the first four centuries of the life of the church

Palestinian Christians in Israel Una McGahern, 2012-06-25 Although Christians form a significant proportion of the Palestinian Arab minority in Israel very little research has until now been undertaken to examine their complicated position within Israel This book demonstrates the limits of analyses which characterise state minority relations in Israel in terms of a so called Jewish Muslim conflict and of studies which portray Palestinian Christians as part of a wider exclusively religious based transnational Christian community This book locates its analysis of Palestinian Christians within a broader understanding of Israel as a Jewish ethnocratic state It describes the main characteristics of the Palestinian Christian community in Israel and examines a number of problematic assumptions which have been made about them and their relationship to the state Finally it examines a number of intra communal conflicts which have taken place in recent years between Christians and Muslims and between Christians and Druze and probes the role which the state and various state attitudes have played in influencing or determining those conflicts and as a result the general status of Palestinian Christians in Israel today

Radical Christianity in Palestine and Israel Samuel J. Kuruvilla, 2013-03-27 Christianity arose from the lands of biblical Palestine and regardless of its twentieth century associations with the Arab Israeli conflict to Christians around the world it remains first and foremost the birthplace of Christianity Nevertheless the size of the Christian population among Palestinians today living in Israel and the Palestinian territories is now relatively insignificant In Radical Christianity in the Middle East Samuel J Kuruvilla argues that Christian Palestinians often employ politically astute as well as theologically radical means in their efforts to prove relevant as a minority community within Israeli and Palestinian societies Examining the political background of the gradual collapse of secular Arab Nationalism to be replaced by Islamic liberation movements he reveals a trend within the Christian Palestinian Church which saw increasing politicisation in the 1980s and 1990s In the face of often restrictive Israeli policies such as land confiscation along with the First Intifada there was a drive towards setting up inter Church and faith activism with the goal of Palestinian liberation Kuruvilla charts the development of a theology of Christian liberation in particular through the work of Palestinian Anglican cleric Naim Stifan Ateek and Palestinian Lutheran Pastor Mitri Raheb From its roots in 1960s Latin America liberation theology has been adapted and contextualised within the specific situation within Israel and Palestine to produce a framework that emphasises peace and reconciliation while recognising the importance of resistance and national unity Theology has impacted Christian perceptions of Palestinians struggle with Israel the idea of a land promised to the sons of Abraham and the moral responsibilities that come with this are pitted against Israeli oppression of both Christian and Muslim inhabitants of the Holy Land and their desire for independence and justice Through this comprehensive study of the often overlooked theological political and practical position of Christians in Palestine Kuruvilla provides a new and insightful perspective on one of the most written about conflicts

The Land Cries Out Salim J. Munayer,Lisa Loden,2011-10-21 Our theology does not exist in a vacuum but must relate to the world we inhabit and must influence our moral and ethical actions This is especially true when discussing theology of the land in the context of a violent territorial conflict The Holy Land has seen so much bloodshed that the earth itself is crying out to God The chapters presented in this book form a unique collection of voices speaking from different perspectives on the issue of the theology of the land These voices include Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian theologians and scholars who live in the Holy Land as well as others from around the world The various chapters reflect a wide spectrum of opinion and reveal how much disagreement still exists among followers of Christ However the dialogue generated by having these opposing voices side by side speaking to each other rather than past each other is encouraging This book is both challenging and inspirational and contributes in an innovative way to this important discussion
