The Origins of Natural Science Rudolf Steiner, 1985 9 lectures Dornach December 24 1922 January 6 1923 CW 326 Modern science and the scientism based on it so far from being the only possible reality principle is merely one way of conceiving the nature of reality a way moreover that has arisen only recently and that there is no reason to suppose will last forever Owen Barfield from the introduction These talks outline the subtle changes in our ideas and feelings in relation to the development of natural science Through this Steiner shows the significance of scientific research and the mode of thinking that goes with it As we look at what technology has brought us we may have a feeling like the pain we feel over the death of a loved one According to Steiner this feeling of loss will eventually become our most important stimulation to seek the spirit This book is a translation from German of Der Entstehungsmoment der Naturwissenschaft in der Weltgeschichte und ihre seitherige Entwicklung GA 326
