Nature And The Crisis Of Modernity:

Nature and the Crisis of Modernity Raymond A. Rogers,1995 Nature and the Crisis of Modernity Raymond Albert Rogers,1994 Nature in Modernity Stephen Duguid,2010 Nature in Modernity Servant Citizen Queen or Comrade explores the origins and implications of the mastery of nature agenda within Western culture and argues that there is a long standing parallel shadow tradition grounded instead in mutuality respect and reciprocity This is explored in a series of chapters that focus on our hunter gatherer heritage the shift to a more sedentary and agricultural life and the subsequent emergence of mastery of self and nature as the dominant cultural objective The impact of this mastery agenda on the natural environment is explored and a case made that our current ecological crisis has its origins in this tradition of mastery A counter tradition is examined identifying a range of cultural tools grounded in alternative traditions tools that can be used to create a culture of care mutuality and reciprocity in which it will be logical to welcome nature in all its complexity as a fellow citizen Nature and the Environment in Contemporary Religious Contexts Thomas Donlin-Smith,Muhammad Shafiq,2018-06-11 This collection of essays discusses the human relationship with and responsibilities toward the natural environment from the perspective of religions and the social sciences The chapters examine a variety of conditions that have contributed to the contemporary environmental crisis including abuse of power economic greed industrialization deforestation and unplanned waste management They then discuss concepts from several different religious texts and traditions that promote environmental protection as a sacred moral duty for all humanity Religious concepts such as dharma duty toward Mother Earth tikkun Olam repair of the world khalifa people as deputies of God on earth amanah the universe as a trust in human hands and paticca samuppada dependent co arising are employed to argue that all the components of the biosphere are integral to the cosmos each piece with its own value and role in the harmony of the whole The book makes it clear that religions can become more green and play a helpful role in raising our ecological consciousness and supporting preservation of the environment into the future The Nature of Modernism Elizabeth Black,2017-11-22 This books presents the first extended study of the relationship between British modernist poetry and the environment Challenging reductive associations of modernism as predominantly anthropocentric in character and urban in focus the book s central argument is that within British modernist poetry there is a clear and sustained interest in the natural world which has yet to receive adequate critical attention Whilst modernist studies continues to emphasize the plurality of the movement and the breadth of voices and concerns within it the environmental consciousness of modernist literature and its response to changes to human nature relations following the experience of war and modernity remain largely unexamined Exploring British modernist poetry from an ecocritical perspective offers a fresh approach to the movement and its context and produces original readings of both canonical and more marginalized modernist voices This book opens by discussing the relationship between modernism and ecocriticism and the benefits of creating a dialogue between the two It then presents new readings of Edward Thomas T S Eliot Edith Sitwell and Charlotte Mew that reveal a shared preoccupation with environmental issues and a common desire to find new ways of achieving physical psychological and artistic reconnection with nature Building on the continuing growth of ecocriticism this book demonstrates how green approaches to modernist studies can produce new insights into both individual poets and the modernist movement as a whole making it an essential resource for students of modernism ecocriticism and early twentieth century literature

Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions: God, Scripture and the rise of modern science (1200-1700) Jitse M. van der Meer, Scott Mandelbrote, 2008 These volumes describe how the development of the different styles of interpretation found in reading scripture and nature have transformed ideas of both the written word and the created world

Nature: From nature to natures : contestation and reconstruction David Inglis, John Bone, Rhoda Wilkie, 2005 Many influential stances within the social sciences regard nature in one of two ways either as none of their concern which is with the social and cultural aspects of human existence or as wholly a social and cultural fabrication But there is also another strand of social scientific thinking that seeks to understand the interplay between social and cultural factors on one side and natural factors on the other These volumes contain the main contributions that have been made within each of these streams of thought The selections illustrate to the reader the complexity of the various positions within these streams and the strengths and limitations of each perspective A new introduction places these articles in their historical and intellectual context and the volumes are completed with an extensive index and chronological table of contents

Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions: 1700-Present Scott Mandelbrote, Jitse van der Meer, 2009-01-31 The four companion volumes of Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions contribute to a contextual evaluation of the mutual influences between scriptural exegesis and hermeneutics on the one hand and practices or techniques of interpretation in natural philosophy and the natural sciences on the other We seek to raise the low profile this theme has had both in the history of science and in the history of biblical interpretation Furthermore questions about the interpretation of scripture continue to be provoked by current theological reflection on scientific theories We also seek to provide a historical context for renewed reflection on the role of the hermeneutics of scripture in the development of theological doctrines that interact with the natural sciences Contributors are J Matthew Ashley Robert E Brown Elizabeth Chmielewski Edward B Davis Henri Wijnandus de Knijff Marwa Elshakry Richard England Menachem Fisch George Harinck Bernhard Kleeberg Scott Mandelbrote G Blair Nelson Alexei V Nesteruk Jitse M van der Meer Rob P W Visser and William Yarchin

Geoengineering Discourse Confronting Climate Change Brynna Jacobson, 2022-07-07 Geoengineering the idea of addressing climate change through large scale technological projects stands out among contested technologies in the degree to which its scope of possibilities and its premise are characterized by global existential risks Despite controversy this field has been shifting toward mainstream consideration Geoengineering Discourse Confronting Climate Change The Move from Margins to Mainstream in Science

News Media and Politics examines the trajectory of geoengineering through critical discourse analysis of three key genres: science policy reports, news journalism, and congressional hearings. Brynna Jacobson explores how reports from distinguished scientific societies have constructed certain notions of legitimacy around geoengineering, how narratives within news coverage have reflected and shaped the public discourse and understanding of geoengineering, and how geoengineering has garnered political support from both major political parties in the United States. Through analysis of discursive conventions within these genres, the author reveals the evolution of notions of normalcy, legitimacy, and imperative around the field of geoengineering.

Global Media Apocalypse Jeff Lewis, 2012-10-15 The modern world seems trapped between fantasies of infinite pleasure and the prospects of total global catastrophe. Global Media Apocalypse explores these contrary imaginings through an evolving cultural ecology of violence. Articulated through the global media, these apocalyptic fantasies express a profoundly human condition of crisis.

Portuguese Literature and the Environment Victor K. Mendes, Patrícia Vieira, 2019-06-03 Portuguese Literature and the Environment explores the relationship between Portuguese literature and the environment from Medieval times to the present. From the centrality of nature in Medieval poetry through the bucolic verse of the Renaissance all the way to the Romantic and post-Romantic nostalgia for a pristine natural or rural landscape under threat in the wake of industrialization, Portuguese literature has frequently reflected on the connection between humans and the natural world. More recently, the postcolonial turn in contemporary literature has highlighted the contrast between the environment of the former colonies and that of Portugal. Contributors to the collection examine how Portuguese writers engage with the environment and have incorporated nature in their texts not only to prompt social, political, or philosophical reflections on human society but also as a way to learn from non-humans. The book is organized into three sections. The first explores the relationship between Portuguese philosophy, historiography, culture, and environmental issues. The second section discusses the link between literary texts and the environment from the Renaissance to 1900. The final section analyzes the connection between literary movements or specific authors and environmental change from 1900 to today. Scholars of literature, Latin American studies, literature, and environmental studies will find this volume especially useful.

Thomas Carlyle and the Idea of Influence Megan Dent, Paul E. Kerry, Albert D. Pionke, 2018-06-20 That Thomas Carlyle was influential in his own lifetime and continues to be so over 130 years after his death is a proposition with which few will disagree. His role as his generation's foremost interpreter of German thought, his distinctive rhetorical style, his approach to history via the innumerable biographies of great men, and his almost unparalleled record of correspondence with contemporaries, both great and small, makes him a necessary figure of study in multiple fields. Thomas Carlyle and the Idea of Influence positions Carlyle as an ideal representative figure through which to study that complex interplay between past and present most commonly referred to as influence. Approached from a theoretically ecumenical perspective by the volume's introduction and eighteen essays, influence is itself refigured through a number of complementary metaphorical frames.

influence as organic inheritance influence as aesthetic infection influence as palimpsest influence as mythology influence as network and more Individual essays connect Carlyle with the persons and publications of Mathilde Blind Orestes Brownson John Bunyan G K Chesterton Benjamin Disraeli George Eliot T S Eliot Ralph Waldo Emerson Johann Wolfgang von Goethe James Joyce William Keenan Windham Lewis Jules Michelet John Stuart Mill Robert Owen Spencer Stanhope John Sterling and others Considered as a whole Thomas Carlyle and the Idea of Influence assembles a web of conceptual and intertextual connections that both challenges received understandings of influence itself and establishes a standard by which to measure future assertions of Carlyle's enduring intellectual legacy in the twenty first century and beyond Modern British Nature Writing, 1789-2020 Will Abberley, Christina Alt, David Higgins, Graham Huggan, Pippa Marland, 2022-03-17 This first full length study of modern British nature writing is timely and invaluable for literary scholarship in the environmental crisis

Dilemmas in Modern Jewish Thought Michael L. Morgan, 1992-11-22 Michael Morgan has served up an intellectual treat These subtle and carefully reasoned essays explore the dilemmas of the post modern Jew who would take history seriously without losing the commanding presence Israel heard at Sinai It is a pleasure to be nourished by a fresh mind exploring the tension between reason and revelation history and faith Rabbi Samuel Karff This is without doubt one of the most significant works in modern Jewish thought and a must for a thoughtful student of contemporary Jewish philosophy Rabbie Sheldon Zimmerman This may well mark the next stage in the long history of Jewish self understanding Ethics rigorous history of modern Jewish thought Choice Is Judaism a timeless universal set of beliefs or rather is it historical and contingent in its relation to different times and places Morgan clarifies the tensions and dilemmas that characterize modern thinking about the nature of Judaism and clears the way for Jews to appreciate their historical situation yet locate enduring values and principles in a post Holocaust world

Nature Fantasies Gabriel Horowitz, 2023 Nature Fantasies is a work of literary criticism and theory that presents and critiques a current of Latin American thought characterized by a desire to return to nature It considers how nature fantasies involved in the decolonization and the formation of the Latin American nation state have turned into an engine of the state's undoing The Political Ideas of Leo Strauss, Updated Edition S. Drury, 2006-07-10 Now in paperback this book explores the political thought of Leo Strauss a philosopher most noted for playing a key role in neoconservative thought in America Drury explores Strauss's thought and its role in American politics exposing what she argues are the elitist nearly authoritarian strains within it and those who follow it The Decline of Nature Gilbert F. LaFreniere, 2012-07 Globalization and the Decolonial Option Walter D. Mignolo, Arturo

Escobar, 2013-10-18 This is the first book in English profiling the work of a research collective that evolved around the notion of coloniality understood as the hidden agenda and the darker side of modernity and whose members are based in South America and the United States The project called for an understanding of modernity not from modernity itself but from its darker side coloniality and proposes the decolonization of knowledge as an epistemological restitution with political and ethical implications Epistemic decolonization or de coloniality becomes the horizon to imagine and act toward global futures in which the notion of a political enemy is replaced by intercultural communication and towards an other rationality that puts life first and that places institutions at its service rather than the other way around The volume is profoundly inter and trans disciplinary with authors writing from many intellectual transdisciplinary and institutional spaces This book was published as a special issue of Cultural Studies Engaging Nature Peter F. Cannavo, Joseph H. Lane, 2014-12-19 Essays that put noted political thinkers of the past including Plato Machiavelli Hobbes Wollstonecraft Marx and Confucius in dialogue with current environmental political theory Contemporary environmental political theory considers the implications of the environmental crisis for such political concepts as rights citizenship justice democracy the state race class and gender As the field has matured scholars have begun to explore connections between Green Theory and such canonical political thinkers as Plato Machiavelli Locke and Marx The essays in this volume put important figures from the political theory canon in dialogue with current environmental political theory It is the first comprehensive volume to bring the insights of Green Theory to bear in reinterpreting these canonical theorists Individual essays cover such classical figures in Western thought as Aristotle Hume Rousseau Mill and Burke but they also depart from the traditional canon to consider Mary Wollstonecraft W E B Du Bois Hannah Arendt and Confucius Engaging and accessible the essays also offer original and innovative interpretations that often challenge standard readings of these thinkers In examining and explicating how these great thinkers of the past viewed the natural world and our relationship with nature the essays also illuminate our current environmental predicament Essays on Plato Aristotle Niccol Machiavelli Thomas Hobbes John Locke David Hume Jean Jacques Rousseau Edmund Burke Mary Wollstonecraft John Stuart Mill Karl Marx W E B Du Bois Martin Heidegger Hannah Arendt Confucius Contributors Sheryl D Breen W Scott Cameron Peter F Cannav Joel Jay Kassiola Joseph H Lane Jr Timothy W Luke John M Meyer zg Orhan Barbara K Seeber Francisco Seijo Kimberly K Smith Piers H G Stephens Zev Trachtenberg Andrew Valls Harlan Wilson
