Nature Destiny Of Man Volume 2:

Christian Theology, Volume Two Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-09 This is one of the first systematic theologies written from a believer's church chiefly an Anabaptist Mennonite perspective Dr Finger develops his themes throughout the volume in careful dialogue with Reformed Lutheran Roman Catholic and other historic approaches The eschatological approach taken by Finger does not represent a fixation on future events Rather it represents a method of inquiry based on the early Christian conviction that the last things had already occurred through Jesus even though their effects were not yet fully realized Chief among these were the resurrection of the dead the outpouring of the Spirit the coming of God's kingdom and the defeat of the powers of evil After outlining this vantage point Volume I considered eschatology revelation and the work of Christ in its light Volume II begins with anthropology Jesus human work provides the norm for authentic human being Justification comes next and is considered as the eschatological revelation and actualization of God's righteousness through the faithfulness of Jesus Christ After treating the dynamics of personal sanctification Dr Finger explores the context within which it is pursued the church His ecclesiology begins with mission including its approach to non-Christian religions and the sociopolitical realm Volume II ends where most systematic theologies begin with God including the humanity and deity of Jesus Christ Thomas N Finger has undertaken an important task that is rarely attempted the production of a constructive systematic theology informed by judicious dialogue with current biblical scholarship Finger's methodological decision to adopt an eschatological approach enables him to work formally as well as materially from within a perspective shaped by the NT writers his innovative organization of the loci of Christian doctrine with its emphasis on the church as a community of believers living out the tensions between Christ's resurrection and Parousia is a direct result of taking the NT seriously Particularly noteworthy is his exposition of the doctrine of justification in the light of recent paradigm shifts in Pauline studies Finger's book is a productive and edifying work for all who care about the ongoing conversation between Scripture and systematics Richard Hays Duke Divinity School Thomas N Finger has chosen an approach to the systematic presentation of Christian Theology which I also have taken since the publication of my Theology of Hope in 1964 He begins with the goal with eschatology With that goal in mind a new light is cast on every single doctrine of Christian theology the light of redemption and the work of the theologian becomes a labor of hope This is a theology of the way With the kingdom of God kept steadily in view it becomes an invitation to walk the way of Jesus Tom Finger's theological prospectus makes a brilliant contribution to ecumenical theological dialogue from the Anabaptist tradition He offers an eschatologically oriented theology for which I can only congratulate him Jürgen Moltmann Professor of Theology University of Tübingen This volume is not only a contribution to the contemporary discussions in systematic theology It is also an important ecumenical breakthrough The Anabaptist tradition stands as an important dialogue partner in the quest for a common ground in the Christian faith Finger approaches the biblical faith from an eschatological viewpoint that is faithful to the Anabaptist tradition but in dialogue with

Roman Catholic classical Protestant and contemporary scholars in both of these traditions He has begun a substantive conversation that will be important into the twenty first century Jeffrey Gros Former Director of the Commission on Faith Order National Council of Christian Churches USA Love Your Enemies Lisa Sowle Cahill,1994 The author examines the theological bases of just war theory and pacifism especially in the light of the concept of God as that motif illuminates Christian discipleship Differences between the theory of just war and the practice of pacifism are highlighted in the overview of the history of Christian thought on the subject and the inclusiveness of the ideal of the kingdom for pacifism is emphasized

The Future of Christian Realism Dallas Gingles,Joshua Mauldin,Rebekah L. Miles,2023-04-15 In the world s most developed democracies anxiety about the future of democracy is palpable The tension between moral aspiration and moral despair has reached a point of crisis Christian realism arose during a similar time of crisis when Reinhold Niebuhr used the insights of the Christian tradition to interpret the clash between democracy and totalitarianism Beginning with Robin Lovin s account of Christian realism as a nuanced blend of theological moral and political realisms The Future of Christian Realism addresses fundamental topics in theology ethics and politics The contributors come from different traditions span five continents and together present a case for the continuing relevance of Christian realism By paying close attention to many of the most pressing moral challenges facing societies today the authors illustrate and evaluate the enduring relevance of Christian realism Prophetic Realism Ronald Stone,2005-11-07 After September 11 2001 ordinary citizens faced a new world ruled by political and religious machinations against the threat of terrorism While political leaders pursued a policy of militarism many religious leaders advocated pacifism Ronald H Stone advocates a middle road between these two extremes what he calls prophetic realism Taking up Reinhold Niebuhr s notion of Christian realism Stone argues that our current situation calls for hard answers to hard questions Stone offers compelling evidence that Jesus provides the prophetic model of our interaction with our enemies This book will change people s minds about the relationship of religion and politics in the contemporary world

Reinhold Niebuhr Revisited Daniel F. Rice,2009-07-10 In 2007 then presidential candidate Barack Obama called Reinhold Niebuhr 1892 1971 his favorite philosopher Reinhold Niebuhr Revisited offers fresh and creative ways of looking at this influential American theologian s views on religion politics and culture through the eyes of diverse respected scholars Christ, Creation, and the Fall Simon R. Watson,2021-05-03 If the Christian God is creator of all things and revealed in Christ to be compassionate love then how can divine agency in creation be understood considering the Darwinian assertion that biological warfare undergirds natural selection The implications are significant for understanding Christian discipleship and ethics if indeed the human is made in God s image with the capacity for creative or destructive dominion over earthly life Gen 1 26 To approach this challenge Simon R Watson turns to Philip Hefner s The Human Factor 1993 which identifies the human as created co creator to investigate themes of freedom and determinism in light of Darwinian evolutionary theory Hefner s argument exploring human purpose from a beneficence discernible in creation invites a re examination of Victorian preoccupations with natural teleology Inspired by Hefner s work Watson places Darwin s The Descent of Man 1871 in conversation with historical and contemporary sources from William Paley s Natural Theology 1802 to twenty first century articulations of Wisdom Christology by Denis Edwards and Elizabeth Johnson to argue that theology can offer a framework of meaning to interpret an evolving nature as revelatory of a Christian God when considered through the lens of a suffering Christ and an existentially fallen creation God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool,2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation God's Wounds Jeff B Pool,2011-07-28 God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume I Divine Vulnerability and Creation is the first of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God In this first volume the author develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Through this approach to the Christian symbol of divine suffering he then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics Moral,

Believing Animals Christian Smith,2003-07-10 What kind of animals are human beings And how do our visions of the human shape our theories of social action and institutions In Moral Believing Animals Christian Smith advances a creative theory of human persons and culture that offers innovative challenging answers to these and other fundamental questions in sociological cultural and religious theory Smith suggests that human beings have a peculiar set of capacities and proclivities that distinguishes them significantly from other animals on this planet Despite the vast differences in humanity between cultures and across history no matter how differently people narrate their lives and histories there remains an underlying structure of human personhood that helps to order human culture history and narration Drawing on important recent insights in moral philosophy epistemology and narrative studies Smith argues that humans are animals who have an inescapable moral and spiritual dimension They cannot avoid a fundamental moral orientation in life and this says Smith has profound consequences for how sociology must study human beings Theology Through the Theologians Colin E.

Daniel F. Rice,1993-01-01 Reinhold Niebuhr and John Dewey frequently have been identified as the most influential American philosophers of their respective times Although their direct contact in print and in political action was marginal their substantive conflict over such issues as religion naturalism the liberal tradition and democracy both reflected and shaped much of America s inner dialogue from 1932 to mid century and beyond In this intriguing book Daniel Rice makes a strong case that although the clash between Niebuhr and Dewey was real and important in a wider context the two shared more insights than either realized The End of American History David W. Browning, 2006-05-17 Interest in psychology permeates our culture with psychological solutions advanced for a host of moral dilemmas How should ethically minded Christians include insights from such disciplines as psychoanalysis cognitive moral development and neuroscience in their theological reflection Don Browning offers a serious proposal for combining these disciplines with the best in ethical reflection from a Christian standpoint Along the way he introduces readers to the moral psychology work of Sigmund Freud Carol Gilligan Antonio Damasio and others opening up a dialogue between their work and the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur Browning also recognizes the potential limits of the conversation between Christian ethics and the moral psychologies pointing out where they must diverge
