Nature Watch:

Nature Watch Austin Lynne M. Weber, Jim Weber, 2011-09-28 Ducks in January bats in March rain lilies in April meteors in August the predictable appearance of fauna and flora allows humans to experience the natural cycles in the environment no matter how urban the setting In Nature Watch Austin avid amateur naturalists Lynne and Jim Weber provide an introduction and guide to some of the natural events that define the seasons in the city of Austin and its surrounding areas Month by month each chapter profiles the plants animals insects and other natural phenomena that are particularly noteworthy at that time of year The authors also provide suggestions on how and where to see them from driving to a nearby water treatment plant to lounging by the backyard bird feeder Opening with a chart on weather temperature and daylight hours each month s chapter features photographs and original illustrations by the authors A list of references includes area field guides and more in depth sources of information by subject No matter how clogged with traffic and entombed in concrete even large cities harbor wildlife and support a community of plants either in tucked away places both familiar and unexpected or in parks and preserves dedicated to city dwellers in search of open space Learning the annual rhythms of urban wildland encourages everyone to be in tune with nature and welcome the opportunities to enjoy it year after year

NatureWatch ,1997 Nature Watch Big Bend Lynne M. Weber, Jim Weber, 2017-02-17 In this information packed month to month guide to the wildlife plants and natural events that define the seasonal cycles in Big Bend National Park naturalists Lynne and Jim Weber offer a richly illustrated guide to the natural rhythms of this beautiful and remote region in far West Texas If you re on the lookout for deer in January tracking hummingbirds in August photographing wildflowers in September or listening to frog choruses after a summer rain the authors provide Where to Watch suggestions on when and how to see these and many other park inhabitants from beavers and bats to lizards and dragonflies Each chapter features a weather and temperature chart photographs and eye catching illustrations by Lynne Weber Whether you are a casual tourist or a frequent visitor to Big Bend the authors hope that knowing what to look for during your stay in one of the nation s largest national parks will heighten your awareness sharpen your observation skills and enhance your overall experience in this iconic Texas landscape Tracking NatureWatch Successes ,1998 Anglesey Naturewatch Philip Snow, 2021-06-15 A beautifully illustrated guide to the wildlife landscape and nature reserves of Anglesey Will appeal to all those interested in the wildlife and natural history of the island The Nature Watch Collection Gerry Rising, Harold Stiver, 2012-10-01 The publisher is William R Parks www.wrparks.com The books are printed by CreateSpace This B W paperback edition is available for 9 95 The color paperback edition is available for 24 95 The Kindle eBook edition is available in color for 7 95 For over twenty years Gerry Rising has been writing a weekly Nature Watch column for The Buffalo News A collection of some of his columns is now available in paperback Harold Stiver the superb Canadian nature photographer has joined Dr Rising in this publishing project and almost all of the photographs that accompany the columns are his For those of you as yet unfamiliar with Dr Rising's or Stiver's work you have a real treat ahead when reading this book. The publisher is William R. Parks, Hershey, PA. Dr. Gerald R. Rising, Sr., the Gerry Rising of these columns, is State University of New York Distinguished Teaching Professor Emeritus at the University at Buffalo. His day job at the university was working with school mathematics teachers and teaching mathematics and computer science. Rising is the author of over a dozen mathematics texts; the most recent include Program Your Calculator and About Mathematics, the latter written for college liberal arts students. Not a professional biologist, Professor Rising seeks to communicate to his readers his own involvement with and love of nature. He has explored the outdoors through hiking, canoeing, and biking. This year, at age 85, he plans to ride his motor scooter on a camping trip around Lake Michigan, completing his similar circumnavigations of all the Great Lakes. Rising lives with his wife Doris in Amherst, New York, a Buffalo suburb. He has two children, four grandchildren, and a great granddaughter. Harold Stiver is a partner in a financial services company who lives with his wife Elaine in Paris, Ontario. He has two daughters and one grandson whom he spoils relentlessly. He has long had a fascination with the natural world and has traveled widely, exploring and photographing it. You can see more of his images at <http://www.singularvideo.com>. He is the author of a series of eBook Guides for Photographers and Explorers covering subjects like Waterfalls, Old Mills, and Covered Bridges. They are available at Amazon and other popular distributors.

Book Reviews: I can't think of very many newspaper columns from two decades ago that I would think of buying and reading, but this book is an exception. Reading Gerry Rising's book of Nature Watch columns is like taking walks with a knowledgeable and genial friend, someone whose observations and comments let you see parts of the world around you with more clarity and appreciation. The writing style is informal but informative, with a descriptive skill that evokes a sense of being there. Dwight Kauppi: This compilation represents the first full year of those informative, insightful, and interesting writings. Rising's work has broad appeal. Readers are treated to widely varied subject material, as exemplified in the following column titles: Hiker's Log, Ladybird Johnson, Route 20, Maple Leaves, Charles Darwin, Our Deer Problem, Bluebird, and Frog Songs. The author's approach to these weekly topics includes appreciation, comment, reflection, and scientific observation. Christopher Hollister

Nature's Year Drew Monkman, 2012-04-07. Whatever your interest may be, this month-by-month guide to the key natural events in Central and Eastern Ontario will let you know exactly what's happening, and it's often in your own backyard. Nature's Year is an almanac of key events in nature occurring in Central and Eastern Ontario, a region that extends from the Bruce Peninsula and Georgian Bay in the west to Ottawa and Cornwall in the east. The book is a chronicle of the passing seasons, designed to inform cottagers, gardeners, photographers, suburban backyard birders, and nature enthusiasts alike as to what events in nature to expect each month of the year. Whatever your interest may be—birds, mammals, amphibians, reptiles, fish, invertebrates, plants, fungi, weather, or the night sky—just turn to a given month and you'll find a list of what's happening, often right in your own backyard. This book will also provide a reassuring measure of order and predictability to nature and help the reader become more attentive to and appreciative of the many wonders of the natural world that surround us in this exceptional region of Ontario Phenology: An Integrative Environmental Science Mark D. Schwartz, 2013-07-30 Phenology refers to recurring plant and animal life cycle stages such as leafing and flowering maturation of agricultural plants emergence of insects and migration of birds It is also the study of these recurring events especially their timing and relationships with weather and climate Phenological phenomena all give a ready measure of the environment as viewed by the associated organism and are thus ideal indicators of the impact of local and global changes in weather and climate on the earth's biosphere Assessing our changing world is a complex task that requires close cooperation from experts in biology climatology ecology geography oceanography remote sensing and other areas Like its predecessor this second edition of Phenology is a synthesis of current phenological knowledge designed as a primer on the field for global change and general scientists students and interested members of the public With updated and new contributions from over fifty phenological experts covering data collection current research methods and applications it demonstrates the accomplishments progress over the last decade and future potential of phenology as an integrative environmental science On the Right Track, 1995 Assessing Schools for Generation R (Responsibility) Michael P. Mueller, Deborah J. Tippins, Arthur J. Stewart, 2013-07-17 Today's youth will face global environmental changes as well as complex personal and social challenges To address these issues this collection of essays provides vital insights on how science education can be designed to better engage students and help them solve important problems in the world around them Assessing Schools for Generation R Responsibility includes theories research and practices for envisioning how science and environmental education can promote personal social and civic responsibility It brings together inspiring stories creative practices and theoretical work to make the case that science education can be reformed so that students learn to meaningfully apply the concepts they learn in science classes across America and grow into civically engaged citizens The book calls for a curriculum that equips students with the knowledge skills attitudes and values to confront the complex and often ill defined socioscientific issues of daily life The authors are all experienced educators and top experts in the fields of science and environmental education ecology experiential education educational philosophy policy and history They examine what has to happen in the domains of teacher preparation and public education to effect a transition of the youth of America This exciting informative sophisticated and sometimes provocative book will stimulate much debate about the future direction of science education in America and the rest of the world It is ideal reading for all school superintendents deans faculty and policymakers looking for a way to implement a curriculum that helps build students into responsible and engaged citizens You Too Can Ifeoma Ndiolo Enaholo, 2016-10-06 This book is for everyone like me that is facing challenges in their lives and wishes to rise above the limitations by daring to be different in order to overcome those hurdles that seemed impossible for others What you need is faith Walk with faith trusting God and with a positive mindset You will definitely succeed I must admit that I have lived quite an interesting life a life full of adventure I was born and nurtured in a family environment that made me imbibe such versatility which prepared me to be able to blend with citizens of diverse cultures I was also fortunate enough to have been so multi talented that I was able to take different kinds of employment My life has therefore never really been static Rather it has been embellished with various incidents pleasant and unpleasant from which I learned how to better prepare myself for the purpose for which I was created which is to help others that are encountering and battling through challenges in their lives

Nature's Holism Laurence Evans,1999-08-10 In the association of the bee and the flower is a very advanced reflection of the process of evolution through natural selection Nature s Holism explores the coevolution of long associated species arriving at a holistic view of nature where the compatibility between species is significant In nature there are two interacting forces There is the numerical increase in numbers of a species termed a force of perpetuity Increasing numbers of a single species have an inevitable impact on the environment However as each species survives within an ecological context there is a feedback from the ecosystem as numbers increase requiring a necessary compatibility with the ecosystem Fitness is therefore defined not only by quantitative representation of genes in the next generation perpetuity but also the qualitative condition of compatibility with the habitat or ecosystem that provided the conditions and resources for this success

Adams,2010-08-05 As the first book to explore the confluence of three emerging yet critical fields of study this work sets an exacting standard The editors aim was to produce the most authoritative guide for ecojustice place based education and indigenous knowledge in education Aimed at a wide audience that includes but is not restricted to science educators and policymakers Cultural Studies and Environmentalism starts from the premise that schooling is a small part of the larger educational domain in which we live and learn Informed by this overarching notion the book opens up ways in which home grown talents narratives and knowledge can be developed and eco region awareness and global relationships can be facilitated Incorporating a diversity of perspectives that include photography poetry and visual art the work provides a nuanced lens for evaluating educational problems and community conditions while protecting and conserving the most threatened and vulnerable narratives Editors and contributors share the view that the impending loss of these narratives should be discussed much more widely than is currently the case and that both teachers and children can take on some of the responsibility for their preservation The relevance of ecojustice to this process is clear Ecojustice philosophy is a way of learning about how we frame or perceive the world around us and why that matters Although it is not synonymous with social or environmental justice the priorities of ecojustice span the globe in the same way It incorporates a deep recognition of the appropriateness and significance of learning from place based experiences and indigenous knowledge systems rather than depending on some urgent ecological crises to advocate for school and societal change With a multiplicity of diverse voices coming together to explore its key themes this book is an important starting point for educators in many arenas It brings into better focus a vital role for theEarth s ecosystems in the context of ecosociocultural theory and participatory democracy alike Encompassing theoretical empirical and experiential standpoints concerning place based knowledge systems this unique book argues for a transformation of science education s intellectual tradition of thinking that emphasizes individual cognition In its place the book offers a wisdom tradition of thinking living and being that emphasizes community survival in harmony within itself and with Mother Earth Glen Aikenhead
